Balkan Notes

(By I. Matinecheff)

THE BALKAN FOX—EX-TZAR FERDINAND ON THE SCENE

On June 2nd, 1921, five new stamps were issued which in significance, subjects, values and workmanship, are a supplement to the War Issue of 1917 (Yvert No. 109-116, 121, 124). The set when completed in this manner is one of the most handsome war sets, that has ever come to light.

There are four varieties of 10 st. value. The stamps are as follows:

1. The first 10 stotinki is claret in color and represents the "Ancient Bridge" near "Skopje" (a town in Macedonia). At the top is written "Kingdom of Bulgaria"; at the bottom are the figures "10" in each corner, with "stotinki" under it and "1915-1916" between them.

2. The second 10 stotinki is also claret in color and is an upright view representing "Schar Mountain" (Macedonia). At the top is written "Bulgaria" and beneath the view—"War of Independence, 1915-16", beneath it "stotinki" and at the corners "10."

3. The third 10 stotinki is claret. It represents a map of Greater Bulgaria, with the Portrait of Ex-Tzar Ferdinand in the centre. On the top is written "United" and at the bottom "Bulgaria." In the upper right hand corner is "1915-1916." Just above the map is inscribed Dobrudja (Bulgarian territory lost to Rumania) and in the lower "Macedonia" (Bulgarian territory ceded by the Treaty of Neuisey to Servia and Greece). Under "United" in the upper left hand corner is "10 st."

4. The fourth 10 st. is also claret. In the upper corners is written "10" with "stotinki" beneath it. In a circle is framed the bust of Ex-Tzar Ferdinand in Macedonian costume. Above his head is the Royal-crown. On the left side of it is inscribed "Debar" (a town in Macedonia), on the right side "1915." Below the bust is the Bulgarian Lion lying down in peace and beneath it "Kingdom of Bulgaria."

5th. The 20 stotinki is blue. It represents the lake of "Ochrida" and the monastery of "St. Clement," which is a living monument to Bulgarian cul-

Germany, and having been held there by the armistice and subsequent events, were kept there until some time ago when they were forwarded to Bulgaria. The size, paper, gum, perforations and workmanship is the same as the rest of the set referred to. They are printed in single colours in sheets of 100 stamps of separate fifties, with five horizontal rows of ten stamps each.

Philatelic papers have already chronicled that since a few month the 10 st. stamp in Bulgaria is sold out. On June 2nd the National Bank issued the new 10 st. stamps and 10,000 of each kind, or 40,000 in all, were sold out that day. A parcel of 10,000 stamps "Ferdinand Debar" was sold to the Central Post Office for sale to the public. The other 30,000, i.e., 10,000 each kind were sold wholesale to tobacconists and others. Later in the day an order was issued prohibiting the sale of the stamps with the portrait of Ex-Tzar Ferdinand. Whether that was on account of the omission of official duties on the part of a state employe or the result of a diplomatic intervention, no body can tell. Up to the time of writing this, the sale of "Ferdinand Dobrugia" and "Ferdinand Debar" has not been re-established. On the contrary on the fourth day, when tobacconists, etc. bought stamps, only 1000 of a (kind) value from the other varieties, were allowed to each dealer. That was the cause for these ones also to go up in price. The same day the papers wrote that the stamps with the Portrait of Ex-Tzar Ferdinand will be surcharged with the Lion (like Servia 1903-4, the head of King Alexander.) It is rumored also that the Entente will prohibit the use of this set, some of the stamps bearing views from Macedonia, thus reminding the last War of Independence and the other—the Portrait of Ex-Tzar Ferdinand, the Balkan Fox, as the London Graphic called him on the eve of the war. The two varieties with the portrait of Ex-Tzar Ferdinand even now are considered as rare and have reached pretty high price. And in case these varieties are surcharged, the ones without it will be a rarity.

La Patrie and Philately

In the February 19th issue of La Patrie (of Montreal, Que.) was contained an item which certainly must have pleased those philatelists who were able to see it. Under the heading "Curiosities du Monde Entier" is displayed an Indian Airmail cover, that of the "First Aerial Post Allahabad." The Allahabad date stamp, "18 Fe 11" is very clearly displayed. Above the illustration is the caption "Par poste aerienne" (By airplane post), followed below by "Voici la premiere carte postale transmise aux Indes anglaises par aeroplan. Cette carta est dument oblitteree par un timbre humide special sur lequel on pent voir un aeroplan. Le timbre porte ces mots: "Premiere poste aerienne Allahabad." Le viola bien le progress!" Translated this would read: "Here is the first post card carried to the British Indies by aeroplane. This card is duly cancelled by a special stamp on which is noted an aeroplane. The stamp bears the words "First Aerial Post Allahabad. Behold the Grace of Progress."

CONVENTION NOTES

The M.P.A. Convention will be held in Chicago, Saturday, August 13th. Meeting called to order at 10.00 a.m. Balloting for officers closes at 12 o'clock, noon.

As the attendance at the Convention would seem to be larger than it was first anticipated, the meetings of the Convention will be held at the Sherman Hotel, where suitable quarters will be provided.

The Sherman Hotel, situated in the business district, corner Randolph and Clark, is one of the best hotels in Chicago, and it should be made headquarters for all the members attending the convention.

President Ames has named the following convention committees: Credentials, M. H. H. Bremer, chairman; A. H. Dahl, A. L. Liljestrom, C. J. Nissen and J. A. Major. Arrangements, M. B. L. Lincoln, chairman; L. Josephson and B. L. Voorhees.

For the convenience of the members, the Secretary's office will be temporarily located at the Sherman Hotel for the few days' time covering the convention.

Members who have already made up their mind to be present at the Annual Meeting or Convention of the M.P.A. would do well to advise the Secretary's office, giving the Committee of Arrangements the opportunity to provide proper accommodation to all those in attendance.

The voting returns on the election of officers, are coming in gradually and everything points to a large vote. Members who have not yet sent in their ballots should do so at the earliest opportunity so that they will be sure their votes are received before the closing hour of the polls.

Members who cannot be present and wish to be represented by proxies, if they have no personal representative in attendance, can mail their proxies to any of the members of the Committee on Credentials who will readily consent to act on their behalf.

Mr. Charles V. McCoy, of Duluth, Minn., is to be the next Exchange Manager of the M.P.A. His appointment has been confirmed by the Board of Directors, and he will take the management of the office as soon as the bonds are approved and the transfer made. Mr. McCoy is a splendid man for the position and it is to be hoped that during the next year the service of the Department, under his administration, will increase its volume, both in quality and personal attention.

has been given additional work along educational lines at the Hanover College, which will take all of his time after September, and, on that account, has tendered his resignation to take effect at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

The Board, under the circumstances, although very well satisfied with Mr. Huber's management, is bound to accept his resignation. Therefore, without further advice, the members who have the time and the proper qualifications to hold the position, are requested to send in their applications to President, Theodore H. Ames, at Montclair, N.J., for consideration. Both the new superintendent of the Sales Department and the superintendent of the Junior Sales Department will be appointed by the new Board of Directors, immediately after the convention.

Send in an application or two during this month. That's the way to show your appreciation and your interest in the development of the M.P.A. "Do it, now . . . !"

In the list of suspended members published in the June issue of the Official Organ, on the 10th line the figure 1508 should read 1058; on line 11th, figures 1301 and 1448 should be omitted. The following numbers, inadvertently, have been omitted and should be added to the list: 1028, 1282, 1227, 626, 1501, 1381, 1296, 1220, 1342 and 1394. Total, 96, instead of 98.

In the list of applications for June, No. 1757 should read "F. R." Gellerman, instead of "E. R."

Nouvelles de France.

Perhaps it would interest philatelists to know that if Monsieur Lafont's bill is adopted by the French Chamber, French souvenir post cards will again flood the world. He is introducing a bill to reduce the post card postage by fifty per cent. and adopting a graded scale according to the length of the message. Because of the high rates introduced in 1919 the post card industry has fallen off considerably, in fact from 300,000,000 to 200,000,000, representing a loss of Fcs 52,000,000, or $4,000,000 in American currency. Sir Rowland Hill will have another job on his hands if this "by the length of message" clause is passed.

—Joseph Ward.

Editorial Chat

With this number we commence our second volume, and many are the letters we have received from friends in all parts wishing us the best of luck throughout the coming year. As we are very busy at the present time we trust that all the friends who wrote us will accept our thanks and appreciation of their kindness expressed here just as much as if we had made a personal reply. We are indeed glad to know that the old C.S.C. is pleasing to many and are always working for a better and bigger Journal. A journal cannot stand still—it either gets better or worse, and it is up to us to keep on improving all the time in order to avoid losing ground and dropping back. "Progress" is our motto, and during the coming year we have an objective; it looks large, but with the active support of all our friends both dealers and collectors. It is quite possible of attainment. We want during the coming year to reach 100 Pages per month and 5000 paid-up subscribers. This is our objective! Will we reach it? Well, it rests with YOU whether we do or not.

Reviews

We have just been favored with a review copy of the "Report of the Eighth Philatelic Congress of Great Britain," which was held at Harrogate from May 3rd to 6th.

The book which contains 148 pages, is published by F. H. Vallancy at 89 Farringdon Street, London, E.C. 4, England, and can be obtained for 2s. 9d. post free. To those who wish to keep in touch with philatelic matters of interest across the pond the book will be of absorbing interest and well worth the price asked. Many questions of vital interest to all philatelists are set forth and debated.

Use the classified columns of the C.S.C. The cost is trifling and if you make your advt. interesting you are sure to get results.

New Issues

This department is conducted by Mr. J. W. Robson, 17 Evelyn Crescent, Toronto, to whom all letters or other data for this department should be sent. We desire to establish New Issue correspondents in all foreign countries. Will you be one, or can you help us to find one?

We want more, many more, New Issue correspondents. Our aim is to have a correspondent in practically every country in the world. Can you correspond with us? Can you write and give us the latest news of every new issue or variety? Of course you can. Then please do. Samples of the new stamps are desired where possible—used or unused, either will do. It will only take five minutes at the most to drop us a line and we can assure you that any help, however small, will be appreciated. If it is so desired, any stamps submitted will be returned.

Alexandria—French Post Office

According to M. Theodore Champion the following specimens surcharged locally in Egyptian currency, in one line, in black, have recently been issued: 2m on 5c, 31,000; 3m on 3c, 5,000; 4m on 15c, 18,000; 8m on 20c, 19,000; 10m on 25c, 48,000; 12m on 30c, 5,000; 15m on 2c, 4,000; 15m on 40c, 4,500; 15m on 50c, 15,000; 30m on 1f, 1,500; 60m on 2f, 1,000; 150m on 5f, 375.

As varieties Stamp Collecting notes: large "3" (3 mil.), wide "6" (6 mil.) and wide "8" on the 8m.

Messrs. Bright & Son notify the following: As above, but surcharge lithographed: 4m on 10c; 6m on 15c; 8m on 20c; 10m on 25c; 15m on 50c. Overprinted in Paris in two lines: 15m on 50c; 30m on 1f.

Azores.

The values of 6c, 12c, 13½c, 14c, 20c of the current series of Portugal have been surcharged AZORES in black.

Belgium

The first of the new series—the work of the engraver, Montenez, has been shown us by Messrs. Warstacs. It is of the denomination of 50c, and has the profile of King Albert, looking to left, in military uniform, but without hat or helmet. The stamp is in deep steel-blue, and is a most handsome production, the portrait, which is on a solid background, being a striking one. Above is the word "BELGIQUE," in small capitals, on a scroll, and below, "BELGIE," with "50" and "C" respectively, in uncoloured type in the lower corners. Perf. 11½.—Stamp Collecting.

Brazil.

A 600r vermilion, of a new design and oblong in shape, has been added to the current series. Also a 150r violet, inscribed "Aviação."

This has been made necessary by the revision of the postal tariff by the Postal Congress.

Authority has been given for the temporary use of bisected 100r stamps in place of 50r stamps until the new value appears.

China

Rumor has it that the junk on the present series is to be replaced by the head of a Confucius, a camel, and a pagoda.

"We learn from official sources that the commemorative stamps to be issued towards the end of the year will be of the same size as the commemorative stamps of 1912 and that the main feature of the designs will consist of portraits of the President of the Republic (H. E. Hsu Shih-chang), the premier (H. E. Chin Yun-peng) and the Minister of Communications (H. E. Yeh Kung-cho), in addition to which there will be ears of corn with a conventional design. No information as to colors is as yet available.

"We have seen several different versions published of the Chinese inscription on the Famine Relief stamps; we therefore addressed an enquiry to the Chinese Postal Commissioner, who informs us that the correct translation is "One cent for Famine Relief Fund is herewith collected."—Whitfield King's Bulletin.

Canal Zone

The 2c vermilion and black, 1909 type, is appearing in a new and shorter overprint.

Colombia

According to the "Philatelic Journal of Great Britain" the current 10c "Provisional" adhesive printed in purple, with a large white flaw obliterating the "L" of "Republica" has been seen.

Stamp Collecting says that the 20c with the "Provisional" device has just arrived in green, instead of black (as issued in 1908).

Denmark

Postage Due stamps have now been for the first time introduced in this country, and a provisional issue has been made by overprinting the ordinary postage stamps at the top with the word "PORTO". The values at present issued are 1, 5, 7, 10, 20, 25 and 50 ore.—Whitfield King's Bulletin.

The 3, 12 and 27c ordinary series, have been withdrawn from use. The 10c Kronborg Castle, has appeared in green.

Dahomey

The 50c value has been bisected vertically, horizontally and diagonally by the post office authorities, each half to be good for a 25c stamp, inland postage. The mail must be handed to the authorities who stamp it themselves.

Danzig

The German 75pf. green and black stamps on hand have been surcharged with a large black "60."

An aero-mail set, showing an aeroplane flying over the city, and surface printed by

J. Sauer, perf. 14, has been issued. It consists of the following: 40 pf. blue-green; 60pf. lilac; 1m, carmine; 2m, brown; 5m, violet.

France

Mr. W. B. Atkin, of Liverpool, writes: "I have just received from Paris a block of 6 of the current 5c green, on poor paper, exceedingly thin, which allows the design to be seen from the back quite clearly. Though this feature is not new, the design, which has become more spiritual seems worthy of comment.

"The 'L' of 'REPUBLIQUE' has only an intended arm; the 'Q' is a bare-faced 'O' while the final 'E' is an 'F' with no apparent intention to be anything other. This latter discrepancy has always existed, but was disguised by a projection on the cap of the sower, now missing, and leaving the 'F' without any excuse.

"The sower has exactly the appearance of the old 10c, Type I, October 1906, only more so; cap, head, hair, arms, and corn-bag are held together by the affinity which such parts feel towards each other.

"The eyes occupy quite one-third of the face, which is proof of that elusive, spiritual of the French women, the few hairs that show as quite on their own.

"The division forming the thumb on the sowing arm extends well into the wrist, the thumb being a piece of wire.

"The arm-bone, known as humerus, has no flesh or skin, showing us a gleaming white bar, to which is attached a remnant of the forearm, with the elbow and more flesh missing.

"This is quite an arm for treatment, and ranks with Type I, Victoria, which doesn't show the Queen holding the orb." — Stamp Collecting.

French Colonies

Like most other countries in the postal union the lower values—5, 10, 25 and 50c—will likely change colors.

Fiume

We mention these and then ask our readers to forget them. The Constituent Assembly (?) has overprinted the 'Pro fondazione studio' series "COSTITUENTE FIUMANA" diagonally and "24.lv.1921" horizontally, in black, 5c green to 10 cor. violet, inclusive.

Germany

Mr. P. T. Blain sends the 1¼, 1½ and 2½ marks stamps in new shades.

Guatemala

The surcharge "1921 'DOCE Y MEDIO CENTAVOS'" in black, has been applied to the current 20c value.

We understand that a contract for an entirely new series has been placed.

Greece

Mr. F. Black sends, among other specimens, a lithographed copy of the 3dr carmine (Hermes & Arcas) with a zig-zag roulette.

Honduras

In July last we chronicled two large commemorative labels that had been printed in red, and, while the ink was still moist, dusted with gold and silver powder. Mr. Eugene Klein now informs us that, in addition, to the finished gold and silver stamps, twenty-five copies in red, without the metallic powder, were sold at the post office.—Scott's Monthly Journal.

Italy

A correspondent mentions the appearance of two new denominations, viz.: 30c and 80c.

Jamaica.

Mr. Derek Ingram writes: "Examples of the new 5s. stamp, orange and blue (Pan playing pipes in foreground of picturesque landscape—inscription "Isle of Wood and Water") have been kindly submitted. This striking and symbolic vignette is on the old Mult. CA paper and was issued on April 16th.

"Messrs. Alfred Smith & Son have also shown us the 2d and 2½d pictorials on the old watermarked paper.

Messrs. Alfred Smith & Son understand that the pictorial 2½d (described in our May issue) is to be withdrawn, as the Union Jack on the left is upside down. A fresh supply of this stamp, printed on Script CA paper, was only consigned to the Colony a few weeks ago.

Japan

A set of four was issued on April 20th, to commemorate the fifty years that have passed since Japan's entry into the Postal Union. They are perf. 12½ and are composed of the following values: 1½ sen, green and red, flag of Japan; 3 sen violet-brown, general post office at Tokyo; 4 sen carmine, flag of Japan; 10 sen blue, general post office at Tokyo.

The 6, 8, 30 and 50 sen stamps of the current series have been surcharged in black Japanese characters for use in China.

Kedah

We quote from Stamp Collecting: "The new value, 25c, first foreshadowed in our February 19th issue, has now materialized. It is in the "Malay Ploughing" type used for the existing 10c—50c. stamps and has the frame in purple and the center in blue. Contrary to the reference in our April 23rd number, it has the old Mult. C.A. watermark.

Latvia

Mr. Ed. Parsons notifies us that the large 25k, man and serpent type, 1919, series, has been surcharged "DIVI 2 RUBLI" in three lines, in red.

"We regretfully have to note more surcharges, comprising the 50 kop. sage and pink (Liberation of Lettgallen), overprinted "DESMIL RBL" in black sans-serif capitals, and the 10 kop. brown and red (November 18th, 1919) surcharged with the same superscription, in black fancy lower-case type. The original denomination is obliterated with a frame of diagonal lines on the former and with a red overprint on the latter. Mr. Th. Allard reports the appearance of 20, 30, 50 and 100 roubles surcharged on the 50 kop stamp.—Stamp Collecting.

Lichenstein

The Economist Stamp Company states that they have received three new values of the new Pictorial issue, 2rp green and black and 80rp slate and black.

Stamp Collecting lists these differently as follows: "2 rappen velvet; 13 rappen brown; 25 rappen red and black; 40 rappen blue and black.

"The design of the 2 and 13 rappen is the Arms of this tiny Principality; that of the 25 rappen, a view of the capital, Vaduz; and that of the 40 rappen, the church tower at Schaan, a pretty village, where is one of the railway stations of the "country."

Luxembourg

The following new values have appeared: 1fr. oblong, scarlet, perf. 11, inscribed "Grand Duche" and with the design of a castle inscribed, "Vianden"; 2 fr. oblong, greyish-blue, perf. 11, a factory view at Esch; 2 fr. oblong, light purple, perf. 11, showing the bridge across the Alzette at Luxemburg. Three very fine stamps indeed. The current 2c value has been surcharged with a "3" in the center. Bars obliterate the former value. The surcharge, as usual, is in black. The 30c has appeared in a reddish-brown shade while the 5 fr. is now on sale in a brighter shade of purple.

Lourenzo Marques.

The 115r on 10r has been surcharged "UM QUARTO DE CENTAVO" in three lines, in black. The 2½c violet has been surcharged "1 CENTAVOS". It has also been surcharged "1½ CENTAVOS."

Madagascar.

We note the following provisionals: "0.30" on 40c brown and black; "0.60" on 75c carmine and black; "0.80" on 75c violet and orange; "1fr" on 5fr. violet.

Memel

We learn of the following surcharges from several correspondents: "15" surcharged on the 10p value surcharged on the 10c; "60" surcharged on the 40p value surcharged on 20c, brown-violet. Both surcharges are in blue. "3 M" on 60c. lilac; "10 M" on 5 fr. blue; "20 M" on 45c green.

Mexico

On September 21st Mexico is to issue a set of three stamps in commemoration of her independence. The highest value is to be reserved for the conveyance of printed matter in bulk. The three values are: 5c, 10c and 10 pesos. We are most truly glad that Mexico has at last something other than revolutions to celebrate, but we must add that the postage labels of this country have already "got our goat." A perforated specimen of the current 30c has been shown to us.

Monaco

The Bulletin Mensuel reports a new 5 francs grey-green stamp with portrait of the present Prince. It is perf. 14 x 13½.

Mesopotamia (Iraq.)

"Lieut.-Col. A. E. Stewart writes from Mesopotamia to the effect that the local post offices have completely sold out their supplies of the ordinary ¼ anna and 1½ anna stamps, which are not to be had, except through stamp vendors at unreasonable prices. All the other denominations are available at the post-office. Col. Stewart writes:

"The 1or. stamp is principally used as a Customs Duty stamp, and, when used as such, is cancelled by having a round hole punched through it by the check office.

"There is an error in the 1½ anna stamp—no tail to "Q."

"In the Service set the 1½ anna is not available and is likely to be one of the scarcer denominations.

"Rumor has it now that a new set is going to replace the present issue, but I can get no definite information on this point."

"The Portuguese India Philatelic Co. have drawn the attention of the 'Philatelic Journal of India' to the following errors:: 1 anna.—A dot to the left of the upper down stroke of the figure '1.' 1 anna.—A second down stroke to the right of the tail to the "Q," and of about the same length. This gives the effect of a double tail.

Newfoundland

We print the following statement made by Whitfield King & Co.:

"Some controversy has been going on respecting the later printing of the 2 cents coronation stamp, which has generally been considered to be lithographed. In order to set all doubts at rest we sent an entire sheet of these stamps, also a sheet of the first (1911) printing, to Messrs. Whitehead Morris, Limited, asking them to compare the sheets and explain the cause of the difference in appearance. We give their reply in full, which finally settles the question. The stamp No. 111a in our catalogue is therefore not lithographed, but is a colour variety of No. 102 and not so clearly printed.

Messrs. Whitfield King & Co.:

Dear Sirs,—We thank you for your letter of the 29th ult., ref: 329271, and have pleasure in informing you that the whole of the Coronation Issue Postage Stamps have been supplied by us to the Newfoundland Government, and is printed direct from engraved plates.

The sheet enclosed with your letter, which you suggest has been lithographed, is from a reprint supplied during the war when it was impossible to obtain the same quality color as that used for the first supply, and you will

Owing to a shortage the following provisionals have appeared: "05" on 40c red on yellow paper; "10c" on 5p pale green; "20c" on 30c violet on yellow paper; "1d" on 5p pale green; "2d" on 40c red on yellow paper; the 2½p ultramarine, the 5p violet and olive green, and the 6p violet have all been surcharged, "1d."; ".05" has been surcharged on Scott's No. 127; "10c." on No. 108 - No. 111. But few of these stamps were printed, it is said, and if such is the case, they are likely to prove attractive.

Peru

To commemorate the hundred years since Peru separated from Spain and became an independent republic a commemorative series will likely be issued around July 28th.

Portuguese Colonies

Mr. E. R. Roterberg writes Scott's Monthly Journal: "My correspondent in Lisbon informs me that the stamps of the Cores type of Congo, Inhambane, Lourenço Marques, Quelimane and Tete are obsolete; that the stamps of Congo are being used in Angola and those of Inhambane, Lourenço Marques, Quelimane and Tete in Mozambique."

Roumania

Owing to increased postal rates the 1, 3, 15, 25, 10 and 40 bani stamps have become obsolete. The 1 leu green is no longer issued. A 1 leu rose, portrait of Ferdinand, replaces the former 1 leu green value. A new 2 ley value in orange has been added to the present set.

Saint Vincent

The ½d. olive has been issued on the new Script CA paper. Perf. 14.

Salvador

The 5c yellow and 10c blue have been surcharged "CORREOS UN CENTAVO 1919" in three lines. The 50c grey, 1916 issue, has been surcharged "VALE 5 CENTAVOS." Heavy bars and blocks obliterate the former values. The 25c. brown has been overprinted "6 SEIS," heavy dots covering the former values. The 29c black has been surcharged with "15" and heavy blocks in red. The 50c grey has been surcharged "35 TREINTA Y CINCO" in black.

Sarre

Mr. J. L. Reidel writes: "The much advertised new set is finally out, but is meeting with very strong opposition in the French and German philatelic papers because of its lack of artistic execution. We report: 5 pf. river Sarre; 10pf. miner at work; 20pf. green, pithead; 25pf. blue and brown, landscape; 30pf. Sarre River; 40pf. red, landscape; 80 pf. blue, landscape, 50pf. coal train; 60 pf. tower; 1m, 25pf. mine shaft; 2m, town hall; 3m, factory; 5m, Ludwig's church, Sarrebruck; 10m, Government palace, Sarrebruck; 25m; 1m.

"The above set has been surcharged as follows in French currency: 3 on 20, red; 5 on 25, red; 10c on 30pf. blue; 15 on 40; 20 on 50, red; 25 on 60, blue; 30 on 80; 40 on 1m, blue; 50 on 1.25m.; 75 on 2m blue; 1fr on 3m, blue; 2fr on 5m blue; 3fr on 10m; 5fr. on 25m, blue.

"It is stated that this issue was withdrawn at the end of April and replaced by another one in French currency. The numbers printed on above issues were fairly small.

Sweden

Through the courtesy of Mr. Ragnar Lundberg "Stamp Collecting" states that on June 6th, the National Day in Sweden, three new stamps commemorating the deliverance of Sweden from the Danes in 1521 by the Dalecarlians under command of that famous champion of liberty, Gustavus Vasa. The values are: 20 ore, dark violet; 110 ore, light blue; 140 ore, grey-black—all in modern type, portraying G. Vasa in armour, in profile to the right, with the armorial bearings of the Vasa family (a sheaf) in the upper right hand corner.

Switzerland

Mr. Kay Swanfeldt notifies us of the following changes in colour in the present issue, due to revised tariff by the postal union.—

5c to yellow; 10c to green; 20c to violet; 25c to red; 04c to blue.

Tonga

Five values bearing a portrait of Queen
Salote Tebu have recently been issued, viz:
2½d. blue; 5d. orange; 7½d. green, 10d carmine, 1sh. brown.

Trinidad and Tobago

The large 5s purple and mauve, with Script
CA watermark, has been shown us by Mr.
R. Roberts.—Stamp Collecting.

Tula

Yes! another new name. Mr. J. Curtiss, of Hove, has been good enough to show us a fine example of the 1k., imperf., of Russia, overprinted with a black cross! This he obtained from a correspondent in Latvia, who informed him that the stamp was issued thus by the government of Tula, and that these "black-crosses" are rare. We will not go so far as to say that we are glad—because we shall not—but perhaps we shall hear from other readers who may have seen, or heard of this new philatelic atrocity.—Stamp Collecting.

Union of South Africa

The issue of a new 1½d embossed King
George stamp, in brown, is reported.

Turkey

The following interesting letter on the state of affairs in Turkey was taken from Scott's Monthly Journal:

"In regard to the purchase of stamps in Constantinople, there is an interesting story.
As you perhaps know, the Turkish Government is about bankrupt. The post office officials have not been paid for the last three months; so, in order to hold them on the job, they have been given permission to divide among the persons employed all the money derived from the sale of stamps. One is treated with the utmost respect and it is no trouble for them to show their goods."

Silesia

Mr. J. L. Reidel writes regarding the stamps of the Plebiscite catalogued several months ago:

"On the day of the Plebiscite (20 March) the stamps of the second issue (5 pf. to 1m.) were overprinted "Plebiscite 20.3.21." By order of the Inter-Allied Commission no complete sets were sold to collectors and not more than a few thousand sets thus overprinted were sold. Consequently, very high prices are paid for complete sets, ranging from 1500 marks to 3000 marks for the 11 stamps.

79—Douglas Ashby, 265 Queenston St., St. Catharines, Ont.

80—H. M. MacLean, Brockville, Ont.

If no objections are received by August 17th, the above will be made members.

Resigned:

68—R. S. Fraser, 794 Dorchester Ave., Winnipeg, Man. Reason given, account of business.

In response to a request received from Wilcox, Smith & Co., Dunedin, N.Z., regarding the Sales Department, it was unanimously decided at a meeting of Directors, to have the Sales Manager write them, stating they would be allowed privileges of membership on payment of dues.

Our first mail auction will be held on Sept. 28th. Former notices and ads state the second Wednesday of each month. It has been decided to publish a full list of lots in the Official Organ, therefore, to give bidders plenty of time, it is decided that the fourth Wednesday will be better. I have received promises of 130 lots up to date. We will probably have one of the best sales, as some of the stamps promised are of the highest grade. We will be glad to hear from any members wishing to put in lots. They must reach me by Aug. 10th at the very latest and as much sooner as possible, in order to give me time to accurately describe lots. Owing to the large number of lots we will likely receive for this Sale, all bids must be made by mail.

Persons putting in lots or bids must observe the following:

1.—Stamps, except in large lots, must be mounted on sheets supplied by the Secretary-Treas. at 1/4c each.

2.—All stamps are in good used condition unless otherwise stated. * means unused, full gum;  unused, no gum; *? probably unused, doubtful; PC, pen cancelled.

3.—Any person, not a member of the Society, will be allowed to bid on lots.

4.—All prices and numbers refer to Scott's 1920, unless otherwise stated.

5.—All bids must be in multiples of 5c or 10c.

6.—You may bid on as many lots as desired, also state how much you desire to spend we will not take up lots to exceed this amount.

7.—No commission is charged for executing bids, but bidders must pay expenses of forwarding lots, such as postage, registration, etc.

8.—It is understood that the amount you state on each lot is the highest price you are willing to pay, and that we are to buy below your limit if possible. For example, Lot No. 17, Canada Jubilee, $5.00 superb, used. Your bid is $5.00. The next highest being $4.25, you will therefore get this lot for $4.25.

9.—10% commission will be charged owners on all lots sold. NO RESERVE WILL BE ALLOWED ON ANY LOT, but owners may bid on their own stamps in order to protect them, if desired. They will be charged 10% commission if theirs is the highest bid. For example, you are the owner of Lot No. 17, Canada Jubilee, $5.00 superb used. You bid $5.00; the next highest bid being $4.25, this lot will be knocked down to you at $4.30, which would mean you will pay 43c to get your own lot back.

10.—Any reasonable complaint will be adjusted, if lot is returned intact. You must return the full lot, not one stamp, otherwise we are unable to do anything in the matter. Every care will be taken by the Society to protect the buyers' interests. Our guarantee is very liberal.

All paid-up members will be supplied with Scott's Catalogue at $1.25 post-paid. Notice of payment will be made later. Every one bringing in a new member will be allowed 25c refund on his Catalogue for each new member. Five new members entitles you to a free Catalogue. No limit to the number of free Catalogues, but no one will be allowed to buy more than one.

Credits on Catalogues at present are: Patton, 3, Robinson 2, Peterson 1, Aubert 1, Roach 1. Are you satisfied to see Patton and Robinson leading?

Could I again call your attention to the necessity of bringing in new members. I am always willing to help any person to land new ones, either by a personal call, or letters. Many of us know a large number of Collectors, yet never think of bringing them to meetings, or writing them. Every one should be glad to boost his Society, for without getting new members, a Society can never go ahead. A large list of new members in the Official Organ brings many inquiries. Would you think of joining, if you noticed that we got one or two only, each month? Certainly not, and others think the same. Our sales department depends on getting more all the time. The more we have the better our sales circuits, also they will go around better. There is no reason why we should not have 20 members extra every month. We would have if every member took an interest in his Society.

Regarding the Sales Department. Do you know that we are receiving sheets containing stamps of the highest grade. Recently, Mr. Robinson, the manager, showed me some sheets he had received from one of our members, containing some very scarce British Colonials. This is continually happening, so that some of the sheets contain stamps you have been trying to get for a long time. Why not take advantage of this department, get something for your duplicates, either cash or stamps you need in your collection. The department is under the charge of an expert, with a thorough knowledge of stamps, Mr. Robinson being a well known stamp dealer, in fact, the only REAL stamp dealer in Winnipeg. A few years ago Mr. Robinson started a stamp business as a side line, with very little capital and fewer stamps. His business increased to such an extent that in 1920 he was forced to give up a good position in order to look after his affairs. At the present time he devotes all his time to stamps and is the largest Dealer in Western Canada. It is therefore probable that, being in charge of the Sales Department, he will apply the same successful methods to build up this department. He has worked hard to build up this new department, and it is therefore up to every member to help him. The best way to do so is to send in some sheets, which will help the Society, yourself and our members. Can't you find some duplicates you would like to dispose of. Other members are willing and waiting to buy them. GET BUSY.

Who's Who in Philately

James Chalmers, the Postal Wonderman.

(By Joseph Ward)

Postage stamps, the little bits of paper gummed on one side and issued by the government, was the means of popularizing the sending of articles beyond anything else in the way of contribution, and an Englishman, James Chalmers, is responsible for having first conceived the idea.

Chalmers was born at Ardnoath in 1782 and at an early age became a bookseller in Dundee and was later the printer and publisher of the Dundee Chronicle. In the year 1825 he applied himself to the acceleration of the mails and mainly through his efforts the travelling time on mails between Dundee and London was reduced a day each way.

Then Chalmers turned his attention to reforms in the post office system. He first suggested a minimum rate of postage. He first drew a sample of a stamp and set it up in type and then printed a few gummed copies. These he exhibited to Dundee merchants in August, 1834.

These merchants thought so much of the scheme that it gave Chalmers courage to approach Robert Wallace, a member of the Parliament, who was interested in Post Office reform, and later took up the matter with Roland Hill, one of the leading men of the day in Britain.

England was quick to adopt the idea once its value was shown. An Act of December 21st, 1839, authorized the issuing of the stamps and they were issued for the first time for the convenience of the letter writing public May 6th, 1840. Later Brazil, Switzerland, a couple Italian States, the United States with other countries adopted the new invention.

Chalmers' idea was appreciated at home. The townspeople presented him with a silver claret mug, a salver, and a purse of fifty guineas as a reward for his efforts.

The Dominion was rather tardy in adopting the adhesive paper, they not putting it into use until the spring of 1851.

Whether dealer or collector you cannot afford to be without.

NOTES AND NEWS FOR JULY

(By J. W. Robson)

France, we learn, is facing a serious problem in supplying a currency to take the place of small silver change, which disappears like magic in this country. Experimental issues of paper money in small denominations have not met the problem, and have resulted only in general exasperation.

This paper currency becomes ragged and filthy soon after being issued, and the government decided to replace it by aluminum coins. It requires small money to the value of 400,000,000 francs to meet the requirements of France, however, and the mint has a maximum capacity of only 100,000,000 francs per year.

Hydro-airplanes for postal service are being put into operation by the government of the Philippine Islands, and special postage stamps may be expected. The routes run from Manila to Cebu and from Manila to Zamboanga.—Scott's Monthly Journal.

Rt. Hon. F. G. Kellaway, the new postmaster-general of Britain, is being bitterly attacked for increased charges on British printed matter sent abroad.

The Northcliffe and British press generally is especially vociferous. The Daily Mail charges Kellaway with "cutting the ties of the empire," and says the increase has been imposed because the post-office department has contrived to incur a dead loss of 400,000 pounds a year by mismanagement of the telephone system, and that it has now decided to levy an extra 300,000 pounds on British printed matter sent abroad and to the dominions.

Notice is given by the Postoffice Department of an increase in parcel post rates to Great Britain, to become effective on July 1st. The increase is from 12 cents to 20 cents on a parcel weighing one pound, with a gradually increasing rate to the maximum of 11 pounds, which will be $1.80, as compared with $1.32 formerly. The new rates will be 20 cents for the first pound and 16 cents for each succeeding pound or fraction thereof. The rates are given as follows: 1 pound, 20 cents; 2 pounds, 36 cents; 3 pounds, 52 cents; 4 pounds, 68 cents; 5 pounds, 84 cents; 6 pounds, $1; 7 pounds, $1.16; 8 pounds $1.32; 9 pounds, $1.48; 10 pounds, $1.64; 11 pounds, $1.80.

Mrs. D. Field, of the Dundee Society, says that watermarks might be called the showers which bring forth the flowers in the Garden of Philately. What when the watermarks are inverted and reversed? Scotch mist? —Stamp Collecting.

In a way watermarks, like flowers, have to be well watered (no pun intended) before we can see them at their best. The water in this case however is benzine. What's that? Benzine don't come in cases. No, er-r- of course not. My error.

The "Australian Philatelist" will cease to be published after July, when it completes its 27th volume. This news will be regretted by all, and we can only hope that the writings of its learned editor, Mr. E. D. E. van Weenen, and those of other contributors to its columns, will not cease with the disappearance of Messrs' Hagen's old and valued house organ, but that some other channel will be found for the frequent dissemination of such expert knowledge as is possessed by Mr. van Weenen and his collaborators. —Stamp Collecting.

One thing that we cannot understand is why the Canadian Government goes on printing the 3 and 10 cent stamps in such very similar colors. By electric light they are practically indistinguishable.

The Bank of London has reduced its rate of discount from six and a half to six per cent.

It is rumored that Australia is to have square coins in the future. Besides greater ease in packing and a greater saving in space there is less waste in the cutting of the coins as no metal remains to be resmelted.

Several dealers report a falling off in sales. That's nothing. Stamps will stick to anything in this hot (and sticky) weather.

'Tis said that the bigger they come the harder they fall, but somehow we don't just see how they make that out. From all accounts some very small specimens have fetched some exceedingly hard prices at some of the recent auction sales.

The other day I received a letter, and as it called for a reply, a stamp was enclosed. I made out a reply, addressed the envelope and began to affix the stamp when I noticed that it had already been used. Needless to say my letter was at once destroyed and no reply was sent. Such petty meanness cannot be too harshly condemned. My correspondent besides breaking the law in cleaning and re-gumming the stamp, wished me to break the law also in using it. And the worst of it is that my correspondent is a grown man. Such a petty deed merits but contempt.

Twenty-one aeroplanes of the United States air-mail service have flown more than 750,000 miles, and have carried more than 50,000,000 letters, since the service was established in 1917. The best record was made by De Haviland Plane No. 76, which, when it went out of service last fall, had travelled 38,348 miles at an average speed of 94.4 miles per hour. De Haviland Plane No. 74 still is carrying mail between Reno and San Francisco, after having flown 38,381 miles at an average speed of 89.1 miles per hour. Curtiss and Martin planes have also made excellent records.

Those "swell" specimens are often like a balloon—that someone goes and pricks with a pin.

FERRARY AUCTION AT PARIS

Philadelphia, July 20.—A cable to one of the leading Quaker City dailies from the French capital, observes that a 2-cent Hawaiian "murder stamp" was sold there at auction for 160,000 francs. The term "murder stamp" is explained as having originated at the time of the murder of Gaston Leroux, by Hector Giroux. At the time of the murder it was plain that no ordinary theft was executed, as 10,000 francs and a diamond studded watch were found in an open drawer. The Hawaiian stamp was the only thing missing. Giroux confessed to have killed his friend because he could not live without that stamp. The cable does not say that this was one of the Ferrary stamps but we come to this conclusion because that Austrian's stamps are now being auctioned by the French Government. At the time of the murder this stamp was valued at 10,000 francs.

A POSTAL TRAGEDY

Oh! How I hate the Dominion Post Office Department, and most of all that Department that handles the undelivered letters. A more hard hearted specimen of organization would be hard to imagine.

"Why all this?" say you?

Attention, I shall tell my tale of woe.

In the first place I was late for breakfast, I always am, but on this particular occasion I was later than usual. Then I lost a collar button under the bed, mislaid my cuff links, cut myself while shaving and finally broke my eye-glasses. From all of which I gathered it was to be one of my bad days. And it was!

"Good morning!" my brother called as I entered the dining-room.

I looked at him with almost tears in my eyes. "Bad morning" I said, "Very bad morning indeed."

"Then my younger sister, Harriet, looked up and asked, "What's up, face?"

I sat down. Then Dorothy noticed me over the fashion page. "Behold sunshine has entered our cozy circle," she cried.

"Keep quiet, all of you," I said, "I'm sick."

But I was the first to break the spell I myself had caused. "Any post this morning?" I asked in an offhand way, more to cover up my former harshness than want of mere information.

"Only this," said Bob, holding up an official looking envelope, "It has come through the Dead Letter Office and although the address is correct it cannot be intended for any of us." And so saying he presented me with the letter, and when I saw it I wished a hole would present itself in the floor through which I might escape. You know how the dead letter office people handle the mail that they are unable to deliver. They simply rip open the letters, copy the signature and inside address, if any, and send them back to the writer. This d—d thing was addressed to:

"Dear Snoodles, Esq.,
Rockwood Manor,
Wenonah, N.S."

I knew very well that every one was watching me and I could feel the blood mounting to the roots of my hair. and I realized at once what had happened. I mentally kicked myself for being so careless when addressing letters to Marie, and for having used a signatuore as "Snoodles.". It may sound very nice to hear her say it on a moonlight night, but it looks too horrible for words, when written on the outside of an envelope.

"We'll give it back to the postman when he comes," said Dorothy.

"Er—no," I stammered, "I wouldn't do that, for, well, er, you see it's mine."

"Yours?"

"Yes, it's a letter I wrote to, er, my banker."

"Indeed," said Harriet, "you must be on very good terms with the bank to sign your letters "Snoodles."

"Not at all," I answered before thinking, "that's, er, my telegraphic address!"

This feeble attempt was met with howls of derision. Then:

"What's her name?" asked Dorothy.

"Where does she live?" from the brother.

"Tell me what she's like!" pleaded Harriet.

"Yes, 'Snoodles' tell us, we are interested in your future."

That finished me. I threw down the Herald and jumped to my feet. "As a family," I said, "you are disgusting. You claim relationship with the great American Henry Clay, but your name is M-U-D."

"And yours is 'Snoodles'!" cried Harriet.

With somewhat of a superhuman effort I refrained from choking her, and strode out of the room, and as the door slammed—and it did slam—I heard muffled shrieks and I shuddered as I thought of the future.

All that was six weeks ago and ever since then life has been a misery to me. I am spoken to, and about on every possible chance as "Snoodles." When I dress to go out in the evenings I am asked whether or not I am going "Snoodling." Only last week it was my birthday; I was presented with a travelling man's toilet outfit, and every piece was engraved, "To Snoodles from the family." Thus it goes. Another six weeks like the last and I shall be in my vault, "Snoodled" to death.

You wonder why I tell my tale of woe here, but I want to save my fellow men. I certainly would have preferred to have kept the details of this horrible affair locked forever in my breast but a sense of duty has caused me to pen these lines. I am before you a horrible example!

If you are young and lovesick, be warned in time. If you must write love letters I see no reason why you should not use a formal signature, John Z. Smith, Edward J. Jones, and such, then if the letter is not delivered and for any reason comes back the goats in the Dead Letter Office would not have the chance to wreck your happy life as they have mine.

Oh, how I hate the Post Office Department, but most of all that department that handles the undelivered letters. A more hard hearted—

Canadian Precancel Notes

(By Frank S. Thompson)

Perth, Ont., is the newest addition to the precancel family, the one-cent value being used recently by a large drug concern in that town.

Ottawa has added both the 2 and 10-cents to the current set, the latter value being used in sending out the war medals.

Brandon, Man., London, Ont., and Vancouver, B.C., recently precancelled the 3-cent value.

Moncton, N.B.—Here are a few new ones in Type A, 2-cent double inverted, 7-cents both normal and inverted, 10-cents double inverted, 20 cents both double normal and double inverted. Moncton is now out in a new type, lettering of which is quite small and neat compared to type A. Have seen the 2-cents only as yet.

Some new varieties noted are Montreal type H, 1-cent both double normal and double inverted and Winnipeg 2-cent double inverted in the new type.

Toronto recently precancelled in the current type a number of the 3-cent (2T1) brown, which were used by a local seed house in sending out catalogs.

Thirty Canadian cities have issued to date 921 precancelled stamps, of which the writer has 710 varieties in his private collection. Twenty-eight Canadian cities are using precancels at the present time.

Mr. W. H. Hawes furnishes some most interesting information regarding the Saskatoon precancels. It appears that $2000 worth of stamps up to the 20-cent value were cancelled and given to the T. Eaton Co., who at that time were sending their parcels from Winnipeg to Saskatoon by freight and then posting them from Saskatoon. The Government stepped in and stopped this, so after having used some $500 worth Eaton's returned the balance. Later, however, a quantity of the 1-cent value was used by several local concerns in mailing circulars. From the above it would appear that the Eaton Co. did actually use some of the higher values, although what has become of them seems a mystery. As far as the writer is aware nothing whatever has been seen from Saskatoon beyond a very few copies of the 1-cent value.

BRAZIL'S CENTENNIAL A COMING EVENT OF PHILATELIC INTEREST

(By Joseph Ward)

One of the most interesting of a series of centennial celebrations and fairs which the various South American republics will conduct during the next five years will be the 100th anniversary of the independence of Brazil. Plans are already laid for the elaborate exercises to take place next year.

As the republic is only thirty years old, it may seem odd that Brazil is observing its one hundredth birthday of freedom, but the days of independence dates from the overthrow of Portuguese control and not the founding of the present republic. The 7th of September is the date observed for it was on this day, in the year 1822, that Don Pedro I, declared himself as the first Emperor of Brazil and renounced allegiance to Portugal.

Throughout Brazil there are erected statues to the Emperor and the many prominent men associated with him in his fight for freedom, and it is very probable that some of these statues will be reproduced on the commemorative stamps which will surely be issued to mark the event.

We wish the Brazilians the best of success with their proposed centennial celebrations and feel sure that the issue of 1922 will be a credit to the republic and philately.

Canadian Stamps Issued, 1869-97

(By Fred. Jarrett)

(All rights reserved)

The smallest denomination of this issue, the $\frac{1}{2}$ c, is worth more than passing interest. Not only are there many shades, from grey to a brown-tinted black, but as well the collector may note thick and thin papers, and an offset variety in which the design appears on the back. The stamp first appeared in July, 1882, the stocks of its larger predecessor having been exhausted.

The orange shade of the 1c is easily distinguished from the orange yellow and the yellow, being a true orange color. The orange yellow is also a true color variety. Placed alongside the yellow it appears orange, while alongside the orange it appears yellow. The orange shade was issued as the stocks of the larger 1c stamp became exhausted. It appeared about March, 1870. Gibbons list this stamp bisected to give the $\frac{1}{2}$ c denomination.

There are a number of shades in the common yellow, including pale and deep yellow, and what may be called a toned paper caused by the color permeating the texture of the paper. An ochre shade is occasionally found.

The 2c may be classified as pale, deep yellow and blue green. The pale green was issued February, 1872. Scott's list both vertical and diagonal halves used as 1c. The vertically bisected 2c in the writer's collection is on a piece of original cover postmarked "Halifax October 22nd 1884." The diagonally bi-sected 2c appears on a cover with an entire 2c, making a 3c rate which prepaid postage from Brantford to Elginburg, postmarked 1886.

The blue green shade is comparatively rare. Even the common shades do not exist in the large quantities commonly supposed.

The 3c value was the first of the "small cents issue" to appear, and was probably on sale in January, 1870. A cover in the writer's collection bearing a 3c dull red, is dated February 22nd, 1870. If the pale rose-red which Gibbons mentions as issued January, 1870, is not wrongly described then both the dull red and the pale rose-red made their appearance during the first month of issue. From dated copies and covers we date the different shades as follows:

Jan. 1870—Dull red.

1871—Deeper and richer dull red followed by pale rose.

1872—Pale rose red.

1872-5—Pale rose red with slight variations gradually turning to dull vermilion.

In this stamp we have pale rose red, deep rose red, dull vermilion, bright vermilion, carmine, dull red and bright red. The pale rose is easily distinguished from the dull red. The 3c carmine or carmine rose issued December (?) 1888 is the rarest of these stamps. The shades run from pale carmine to a deep rose carmine. The carmines should be soaked with care as the color runs.

It is difficult to classify the vermilion shades although the bright vermilion listed by Gibbons stands out distinctly alongside a vermilion of the paler shade. Oxidization increases the difficulties of shading, some of the vermilions oxidizing to very puzzling shades, including the color of the 6c brown, and others varying from black brown to pure blacks. The rose red and dull red shades are not subject to oxidization. It is interesting to note in passing that many of these "off shades" may be blamed indirectly on the common garden variety of bedbug, for the simple reason that so many of the envelopes from which these stamps were taken came originally from ancient frame dwellings which received periodical sulphur fumigations, in an effort to keep down these pests. A few hours of this sulphur treatment discolors vermilion stamps as well as spoiling the margins on bedbugs.

A collection of dated copies and shades of the 1c, 2c, 3c is interesting, and since the stamp may be purchased by the thousand, the expense is slight. An interesting item may be mentioned here, a 3c vermilion dated Oakville 1858. The two latter figures must have been transposed in the dating stamp.

A collection of colored cancellations adds further pleasure to collecting, at a minimum expense. Odd cancellations on the 3c may be found in red, blue, green, purple, etc. If you desire to be a real hair-splitting specialist, pick out those with the "guide dot" in the lower left corner of the stamp.

Stamps printed on creased paper are sometimes found. When soaked and smoothed out these show blank lines across the face of the stamp. An interesting stamp in the writer's collection is a 1c on which only two-thirds of the stamp design shows, a small square of paper having received the impression and afterwards fallen away from the stamp. Faulty perforations make another variety, the most interesting being that in which the value comes above the Queen's head.

In the 5c issued January, 1876 we find the grey, brownish grey, and an olive grey.

The 6c value was first issued in January, 1872. In the opinion of many the pale brown is more rare than the red brown. The chocolate brown shade is possibly the rarest.

Difficulty need not be experienced in differentiating the 8c shades. First set aside the violet black, about which there can be no doubt. The grey and blue-grey come next. The slate shade is a hard, dark grey.

The four shades of the 10c listed in Scott's give the main color varieties. Gibbons list seven shades, which are difficult to differentiate. Twenty slightly different shades of this stamp might easily be found. This stamp is first recorded in the American Journal of Philately for November 20th, 1874 and therefore probably came out in October, 1874, being mentioned as "rose." Gibbons record a "pale magenta" as issued November, 1874. At the moment no covers are available to throw further light on the first shade issued.

It is not generally known that this issue included a 12½c stamp and possibly a 15c. Howe shows a photo-gravure of the 12½c and states that the stamp existed in finished state. It is undoubtedly extremely rare. Proofs of both values were illustrated in Le Timbre-Poste for November, 1888, according to Howe, with the information that the 12½c was of a lilac shade and the 15c in green, although a contemporary writer, W. C. Stone, claims he saw both stamps in a finished state with full gum, the 12½c in bright blue.

The imperforates of this issue no doubt originated as printer's waste, but it has been proven that all values were on sale in the post offices. Mint pairs are sometimes offered by the larger dealers. Properly cancelled used pairs, particularly on cover, would be of considerable value.

Various stamps of this issue exist with double perforations. My collection includes a mint pair of the 1c with double rows of perforations top and bottom. All varieties exist with compound perforations 11½ x 12.

Watermarked varieties have been heard of, the writer's collection containing a 1c showing a distinct "C". It is thought these watermarks were caused by accident in the making of the paper.

The only noteworthy feature of the large 20c and 50c values is that the 20c stamp seems to be much more scarce than the 50c.

Paper varieties: There are thick and thin papers in all this issue. The paper used for the dull red and rose red of the 3c value is quite distinct from the other papers. A hard finish paper will also be noted on the later stamps, which shows a distinctly ribbed surface.

Imprints: There are three varieties of imprints. (1) the denomination in shaded Roman capitals at the inscription "British American Bank Note Co., Montreal & Ottawa" also beneath the bottom row and at each side; (2) "British American Bank Note Co., Montreal," on all four sides. CENTS has been omitted. (3) "British American Bank Note Co., Ottawa."

Exchange Wanted

I have about ten thousand U.S. and Foreign Stamps that I desire to exchange for Stamps of Canada. Can use any amount of the 5-Cent Beavers, Scott's No. 15 and many other of the early issues. Have also about three thousand U.S. and Foreign covers to exchange. Correspondence invited.

THE M.P.A. CONVENTION

The annual meeting, or convention of the M.P.A. was held in Chicago, Saturday, August 13th at the Hotel Sherman.

Morning Session

The convention, in the absence of the President and the Vice-President, was called to order by Mr. Bachand-Vertefeuille, secretary of the Association. Mr. L. B. Lincoln, of Chicago, chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, was made temporary chairman.

After a few brief remarks by Temporary Chairman Lincoln, Mr. Charles E. Severn, of Chicago, president of the Chicago Philatelic Society, welcomed the members of the M.P.A. and the visitors to the whole-hearted hospitality of Chicago. Mr. Severn is a splendid speaker and his interesting talk was very much appreciated.

At 10.30 the Committee on Credentials began its work of receiving the proxies and counting the ballots. Mr. C. N. Smith, of Madison, Ill., was made a member of the Committee.

The reports of the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer and the Sales Manager were read and recorded as received.

Messrs. Liljeström, Josephson, Schiff, Smith and Severn were chosen respectively as chairman of the following committees: Finance, Sales Department, Official Organ, Convention and Resolutions. In the absence of the President, Mr. B. L. Voorhees, of Chicago, was appointed as temporary chairman of the committee on by-laws. Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Bachand-Vertefeuille are the two other members of the committee.

The convention then adjourned for lunch, to re-convene at 1.30 p.m.

Afternoon Session

At 1.30 the convention was called to order by Chairman Lincoln. The Committee on Credentials were still counting the ballots.

The following well-known out-of-town visitors were present: P. M. Wolsieffer, Philadelphia, Mrs. T. S. Farquharson, Des Moines, Iowa, W. A. Sisson, St. Louis, Mo., D. C. Hammarth, Topeka, Kans., August Bollman, St. Louis, Mo., Bertrand L. Drew, Boston, Mass., Geo. A. Bell, Grand Rapids, Ohio, Y. Souren, New York, Brother Charles-Sidney Thompson, of Los Angeles, Calif., was in just in time to hear the news of the election of officers.

The result of the election of officers is as follows:

President Clarence G. Gardner, of Jackson, Mich.;

Vice-President—Col. J. M. T. Partello, of Garret Park, Md.;

Secretary—Louis J. Bachand-Vertefeuille, of Chicago;

Treasurer—Otto C. Reymann, of Philadelphia;

International Secretary—Elmer F. Smith, of Pontiosuc, Ill.;

279 votes were cast.

On August 13, 1921, there were 470 active members in the Association, 27 applications pending, and 91 "P.N.D." members, who may still be counted as such.

The detailed minutes of the convention will be published in the Year Book. The reports of officers will appear in subsequent numbers of the Official Organ. The selection of the seat of the next convention is left to the decision of the incoming Board of Directors.

The results of the operation of the past year are very gratifying and it seems that a bright future is in store for the 20th year of the existence of the Association.

OUR CONTEST

In the September issue we shall announce the results of our subscription contest which has been running for the last few months. The names of the lucky parties will then be made known.

J. A. P. S.

Starting with the September issue we are going to act as official organ for yet another of our live American Philatelic societies, viz.: the Junior American Philatelic Society, which is well known as one of the rising societies of the continent, and one which is doing much for the furtherance of American Philately.

We can only say that we are very appreciative of the fact that they chose our paper to represent them and we trust that we shall fill the bill efficiently and thoroughly justify the honor done us.

NEW ADVERTISER

Mr. Theodore Champion, whose adv.
occupied the back cover of last month's issue has booked that position for one year. Mr. Champion controls one of the largest stamp businesses of the world and his offers are always well worth looking up.
Now that the season is opening up other advertisers will be following the example of Mr. Champion and contracting ahead for space while the present low rate is in force. The subscription list has gone ahead by leaps and bounds during the last few months and in addition to this large increase we have also the combined membership of the M.P.A., W.S.S. and J.A.P.S. as subscribers. To the wise a word is sufficient. Send for that contract now.

Use the classified columns of the C.S.C. The cost is trifling and if you make your advt. interesting you are sure to get results.

Who's Who in Philately

General Faïdherbe.

(By Geo. M. Moreland)

Many have probably wondered who the quite military gentleman is whose face appears on the 1906-'07 issues of many of the African French Colonies, including French Guinea, Dahomy, Ivory Coast, Mauritania, etc.

The picture is that of General Louis Leon Caesar Faïdherbe, who was a general in the Army of France. It is quite appropriate for the French government to honor him by placing his picture on her African colonies' stamps for a greater part of his life work was that of making a minute study of the language, geography and archaeology of Northern Africa. He wrote many learned volumes on the subject which have become authorities throughout the world. It is said that he spoke the native languages of the parts of Africa where he studied with the fluency of a native.

He was born in the historic city of Lille, France, on June 3, 1818, and died in Paris, September 29, 1889.

The Society has made arrangements to show the finest collection of Cape of Good Hope triangles, in Winnipeg. This being one of the finest in Canada. Date will be announced later. The owner has made this a life-time hobby, and his collection contains only superb copies. Some of the covers are known as the finest in the world, there being pairs, blocks of fours and sixes. This will be well worth seeing as it will be the finest collection ever shown in Winnipeg.

The Sales Manager, Mr. Robinson, reports members sending in valuable lots of stamps for the Sales Circuits, unregistered. I have been shown one lot, also the envelope, which came through the ordinary mail, valued at over $100.00 net. This is very careless on the part of members, and also very unfair to Mr. Robinson, as if these had gone astray, the owner would probably have laid a complaint against the Sales Manager. THIS MUST CEASE, and members are warned against doing this in future.

On another page will be found our first Mail Auction. Lots are listed by Catalogue number only, and are carefully described. Any person, member or not, may bid on these lots.

Temporary membership lists have been mailed to all members. Any member not having received one, please write. Book of rules, members, etc., will be ready in October.

Application blanks are now ready to be forwarded to any member on request. Please use some, and remember these will help you get a free Catalogue.

Members desiring Catalogues MUST REMIT for same at once. We have a limited number, and as soon as these are taken up, you will be unable to get one. 100 different stamps that Catalogue at least $10.00. All nice stamps, undamaged; some used, some unused; we take them as they come. 19th and 20th Century mixed. No two packets just alike because our stock is variable. But you get the value. We bought them cheap, so we are selling them cheap to you. If you are a collector you are sure to want many for your collection, and the rest will be good traders. If you are a dealer they will be a fine bunch to sell, and your customers will howl for more. So try one package right away. You can't get stung, and will be pretty certain to want more. Better order one today as our stock is limited.

The "Large Cents" Issue of Canada

(By Fred. Jarrett)

(All rights reserved)

Although Gibbons give April, 1868, as the date of this issue, the writer has a pen-cancelled 3c denomination, laid, pen-cancelled "2 Aout 1867." This was unfortunately removed from its cover and the cover destroyed before the early date was noticed.

The ½c value comes in grey and grey-black. A minor variety may be noted in the absence of shading in the Queen's hair.

The 1c value first appeared in the brown-red shade. In the writer's collection is a cover dated May 1868. One of the rare Canadian stamps is the 1c brown-red on laid paper. The paper is soft, distinctly laid, and fairly thick. It is recorded as postmarked Nov. 27, 1868. The 3c on laid paper is becoming quite scarce. This stamp is recorded as appearing August 31, 1868, although the earlier date mentioned above should be borne in mind.

At a later date the 1c appeared in orange-yellow and bright orange. The 1c orange-yellow was first noted in The Philatelist for April 1, 1869, and described as "bright orange." The issue was later credited to January, 1869. The earliest copy in the writer's collection is dated April, 1869, in bright orange.

The 2c green may be listed in various shades. A close examination discloses the small guide dot in the lower left corner, and a distinct minor variety consists of a thin vertical line crossing a horizontal line through this dot. As practically all the stamps show this guide dot, the transfers must have been laid separately on the engraving stone, according to pre-arranged positions as marked by these dots. A cover bearing a 2c stamp, in the writer's collection, is dated May, 1868.

The 3c pale rose-red and deep rose-red, up to the last year or so made an excellent stamp for the specialist of moderate means. Shades, cancellations, dated and colored, etc., made and still make an interesting study.

Next in order is the large 5c olive-green, which, however, did not appear until October, 1875. Reference to almost any catalogue will disclose the fact that this stamp had a very short life, being in use about four months. It is possibly the rarest of the issue, aside from the laid and watermarked varieties. The die was engraved in 1867 with the other values, we learn from Howe, but there was no rates requiring such denomination in the set, and it was not issued. In 1875 the need for a 5c value arose and the unused die was employed to make a plate for temporary use until a new die conforming in size and design to the small stamps then in use could be prepared. It is therefore somewhat in the nature of a provisional.

The 6c comes in many shades, dark brown, yellow brown, etc., and on thick and thin papers. In the writer's collection is a cover dated Aug. 26, 1868, with a 6c dark brown shade, and another of the same shade dated Nov., 1868. The light brown appeared later, as the earliest cover noted is dated January 25, 1872.

In the 12½c we have at least two shades—pale and deep blue, and thick and thin papers as in the other values.

The shades of the 15c are almost innumerable. The rare shade, and it is more rare than catalogue indicates, is the red-lilac or bright mauve, recorded first in May, 1868. The American Journal of Philately described it as "Lilac" in April, 1868. There is a lustre to the coloring of this stamp that cannot be mistaken. Another shade of considerable rarity is the pale greenish-blue, three of which have come to the writer from different sources.

Thick and thin papers may be noted on the ½c, 1c brown red, orange, orange-yellow, 2c, 3c, 5c, 12½c and 15c. The thin paper may be described as "thin hard transparent" while the thick is soft and opaque. All values except the 1c yellow and 1c orange come on watermarked paper, consisting of "H & C Bothwell Clutha Mills" in large double-lined capitals, portions of which may be found on the stamps, which occur in the early printings of 1868.

The imprint for this issue consists of large Roman capitals not shaded. A strip of three of the 12½c value in the writer's collection shows an imprint consisting of large Roman capitals, unshaded, reading "TWELVE & HALF CENTS". "British American Bank Note Company, Montreal & Ottawa" also appears on this issue in colorless caps on a narrow strip. Howe lists the ½c with an additional imprint "HALF CENT" in shaded Roman Capitals 4mm. high.

"Splits" in this issue do not seem to have been used except in the case of the 6c bisected to make the 3c stamp, as listed by Gibbons. Howe records this diagonally split, used in Nova Scotia, where splits were in more common use. The writer's collection contains a vertically bisected 2c used with a small 1c orange, on piece of cover, bearing numeral cancellation "41" over both stamps and cover.

Bill Stamps were sometimes used for postage, although not so authorized, and the writer's collection contains a cover bearing a 1c yellow postage stamp between two 1c brown bill stamps, the three paying the 3c rate. During the continuance of this issue the bill stamps were doubtless often affixed in error and did duty as postage stamps, due to the similarity in the shades, but there was no authorization from the Post Office Department covering such use.

The 1c yellow, and the 15c in a peculiar shade of brown-violet, are known imperforate.

Exchange Wanted

I have about ten thousand U.S. and Foreign Stamps that I desire to exchange for Stamps of Canada. Can use any amount of the 5-Cent Beavers, Scott's No. 15 and many other of the early issues. Have also about three thousand U.S. and Foreign covers to exchange. Correspondence invited.

LIVE WIRES IN SHERBROOKE

On September 6th a few of the stamp collectors of Sherbrooke gathered at the residence of Dr. Spencer, and formed themselves into a club to be known as the Eastern Townships Stamp Club. The officers elected were: President, Dr. Spencer; Sec.-Treas., Mr. J. A. Barrie; Sales Manager, Mr. G. S. Somers.

Canada was the country whose stamps were studied and as several of the members were giving Canada especial attention some good copies and rare ones were shown. Some amusement was caused by the auction which netted the club something over $3.00. Quite spirited trade between members and buying from approval sheets occupied a share of the evening.

The club will meet Oct. 4th to study B.N.A. stamps, at the home of Mr. Barrie. Quite a large number of collectors names was handed in, and as the club name indicates, numerous out-of-town members will be welcomed. The interest shown by those present made it very apparent that all the collectors appreciated just such meetings and a good beginning for the season.

"DO IT NOW! . . ."

Treasurer:

Otto C. Reymann,

Philadelphia, Pa.

NEW PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Jackson, Mich., Sept. 1, 1921.

To the Members of the Metropolitan Philatelic Association:

Greetings.

I wish to thank you for the honor you have bestowed on me in electing me your president for the ensuing year and to assure you I shall do all I can to deserve your confidence and make it a successful year for the Association.

My work as recruiting chairman for the past two years has brought me in close touch with many of the members and I wish to take this opportunity to thank you all, officers, members of the M.P.A., and friends, for the hearty support you have given me in the past.

While some of you may feel that there is no great importance in numbers, it is my sincere belief that with a larger membership we shall be able to offer more benefits to the stamp collector, and as this is one of the outstanding features of our Association, I feel that each member should lend his or her support to increasing the membership whenever possible. Let us double our membership and in so doing increase our efficiency and benefits.

I shall bend every effort toward the support and betterment of the Metropolitan Philatelic Association and it will afford me great pleasure to be of service to each member individually. I trust each one of you will feel free and ready to call on me at any time and I give you my positive assurance that I shall always be at your command.

Wishing every member and all departments success and a continuance of prosperity for the M.P.A., I am,

Respectfully yours,

C. G. GARDNER.

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

To the 1921 Convention of the Metropolitan Philatelic Association, Chicago, Ill.:
Friends and Fellow Members:

It would be difficult for me to make an extended report of my activities for the term just ending without infringing upon and duplicating the subject-matter of the reports of the other officers.

Therefore, I will confine myself to a brief summary of the results which have been accomplished during 1921, since I came to the office of President.

Under an agreement prepared by Mr. Guest, a contract was signed with the Canadian Stamp Collector to serve as Official Journal, and the service rendered has been, on the whole, satisfactory. This agreement terminates, automatically, on December 31st, 1921.

A special fund has been created, composed of an appropriation of $50 from the Treasury and several generous contributions of members, for the liquidation of claims arising from the shortage found in the accounts of the Junior Sales Department at the time of the death of Mr. Leon V. Cass, the then Manager of that Department. Thanks to the co-operation of the claimants, there is reason to believe that all claims can be satisfactorily settled and the Department again restored to the confidence of the membership. The matter has been a great handicap to Mr. Huber.

An aggressive recruiting campaign was instituted and financed by the Association and the current list of applicants for membership includes the first fruits of Mr. Gardner's endeavors.

Your Treasurer and President have made earnest endeavors to collect from Mr. H. E. Day a sum of money representing dues collected by Mr. Day while he was Secretary. An initial instalment has been paid and Mr. Day has expressed his intention of paying the entire amount as soon as he is able.

Fifty Dollars due the Association from Mr. W. E. Goodwin for a long time has been collected by the U.S. District Attorney for the Post Office Department and has been returned to the Treasury of the Association.

Mr. Mason's resignation from the Board of Directors left a vacancy in the Board and Mr. A. R. Henman was chosen by the Board to fill the place. Mr. Danielson was chosen to act as Vice-President.

Due to his inability to devote to it the necessary time, Mr. Henman has been forced to give up the Exchange Department, which he has so ably conducted for several years and his resignation took effect on August 1st, 1921, when he turned over his Department to Mr. Charles V. McCoy, of Duluth, Minn., chosen from among the applicants for the position by the Board of Directors as being the best man for the place.

There are no claims against the Treasury or other business on hand which is not receiving the active attention of your Officers—nothing has been "pigeonholed" for the attention of the next Administration,—and there is no reason why the coming year, with all back business cleaned up, and nothing to do but to go ahead, should not be one of tremendous progress and prosperity to our Association.

In closing, I wish to express my gratitude to my fellow-Officers for their kind co-operation, their hard work, and their patience when I have been too exacting, and I hope that my poor efforts may have contributed in some small degree to this creditable report which I have the honor of presenting.

Fraternaly yours,

THEODORE H. AMES,
President of the M.P.A.

OUR CONTEST

The prize winners in our subscription contest are as follows:

- 1st—W. R. Patton.
- 2nd—Donald Bruce.
- 3rd—J. E. Guest.

Prizes according to their choice will be available for the winners at any time. Honorable mention for the following in the order mentioned: Mrs. Oughtred, Wilfred Whaley, Capitol Stamp Co., C. H. Hollister, S. G. Campbell, Lester B. Porter, F. W. Herring, W. H. Smith, W. M. Butler, D. W. Laird, J. B. Wrigley.

We wish to congratulate the winners on their good work, which has both boosted our paper and benefitted themselves. We wish also to thank all the other live dealers and collectors who participated in the contest without being so fortunate as the lucky three. Better luck next time!

AUTUMN ACTIVITY

The season has now gotten under way and the long evenings are once again in evidence; collectors generally are beginning to look up albums and stray packets of hinges, etc., preparatory to immersing themselves once again in the Joys of Philately, which all condensed means: "they air once agin feeling th' itch ta gettat th' ol' books."

Dealers, too, are manifesting increased activity, new pricelists are appearing, extra adds are being run, newcomers are launching out into business and the old ones are speeding up selling effort in order to pick off the business before their slower brothers get a start.

All things point to keen competition and lively buying this season, in fact, it looks to us like a bigger and better season than last year.

OUR J.A.P.S. FRIENDS

This month we want to welcome as our readers all members of the J.A.P.S. We trust that we shall prove of interest to those young collectors and that in them the paper will find many friends. We are always glad to hear from the younger collectors and any enquiries they may care to make, accompanied by a stamped, addressed envelope, we will answer to the best of our ability, and as promptly as possible.

Use the classified columns of the C.S.C. The cost is trifling and if you make your advt. interesting you are sure to get results.

New Issues

This department is conducted by Mr. J. W. Robson, 17 Evelyn Crescent, Toronto, to whom all letters or other data for this department should be sent. We desire to establish New Issue correspondents in all foreign countries. Will you be one, or can you help us to find one?

CANADA

The surprising news of the last two months is the increase in the Special Delivery rates. Ten cents was small, we will admit, but to jump from that sum to twenty cents is rather hasty, to say the least. It is not expected that any special stamp will be issued, two of the old ten cent being considered satisfactory.

AUSTRIA

The following is an important communication from our trusted correspondent in Austria, Mr. G. Bauml:

"Collectors take care! The following stamps have appeared in the market but were never officially issued, and are thoroughly private products:

"1. The current Austrian stamps, 5 Heller, 20 Kronen, surcharged "VOLKSABSTIMMUNG SALZBURG." This series was issued by that political committee which recently has organized the plebiscite in the province of Salzburg (resp. union to Germany) in opposition to the Austrian Government.

"2. The current newspaper stamp, 20 Heller orange, and surcharged "9".

Regarding the above information Mr. Bauml states: "I believe that it is the duty of all Philatelists to warn dealers and collectors if speculative issues, made by private business men for philatelists only, are thrown into the market."

The same correspondent also submith samples of four new values, viz.—3 kronen green, 4 kronen brick red, 5 kronen purple, and 10 kronen slate blue. This issue became necessary on account of the increase in postage fees and also as the current "Parliament" is too expensive as regards printing (copper plate process). A 50 kronen stamp and some dues—3, 4, 8 and 20 kronen are expected to appear any day.

ANGOLA

The following provisionals are noted in various European Journals, 5 on 7½c dark yellow, 5 on 75r brown, 4 on 15c lilac, 1c on 50r. blue, 1c on 115r. on 200r., 1c on 100r of 1911, 1c on 115r of 1911, 4c on 500r of 1911, 4c on 30r. brown. on yellow locally surch. "REPUBLICA."

BELGIUM

Mr. H. Ellershaw has sent for our inspection a set of the surcharged Olympic Games adhesives of Belgium with an error in the overprint on each of the three values, the STOP under "C" being misplaced or dropped a considerable distance. We understand that this dropped stop occurs only on the left-hand side of the stamp and remains normal on the right-hand side.—Stamp Collecting.

The Parcel Post series has been enlarged with a 55c denomination in yellow.

BULGARIA

Last June five new values—10, 10, 10, 10, 20 st. appeared. These are dated 1915, 1916 and are illustrative of war scenes. These stamps were printed in Germany but their distribution was inhibited at the time of the Armistice owing to complaints made by the Serbian Government.

CHINA

"Stamp Collecting" publishes the following clipping from "Flight": "In connection with the Peking-Shanghai air route, the Aeronautical Department is proposing to issue a new set of air postal stamps, which will be sold for 15, 30 and 50c respectively. The design of the stamps will be an airship flying over the Great Wall. They will be inscribed in English and Chinese, "Air Post Service." The stamps will be on sale on the day that aeronautical traffic between Peking and Tientsin is inaugurated."

CANAL ZONE

The 2 and 4c values have been temporarily surcharged "2 CANAL ZONE" and "4 CANAL ZONE" owing to a shortage of postage dues.

COSTA RICA

M. Theodore Champion writes: "A decree signed the 15th of June, 1921, by the President of the Republic authorized the Director General of Posts to issue a stamp commemorating the first century of the cultivation of coffee in the Republic. The stamp is a little larger than the Canadian Confederation issue and is printed in black, perf. 11½. The frame of the stamp is blue."

DUTCH EAST INDIES

A new series is well into the course of preparation. Native canoes, temples and various other characteristics will be depicted.

DAHOMEY

As the stamps of Dahomey have been printed in new colours with an overprint for use in Togoland, we presume that these will be on issue for Dahomey itself in the near future.—Stamp Collecting.

ECUADOR

A 20 value series, 1c to 1s., and printed by the American Bank Note Company, has been in our hands for a short time. Each value bears a portrait of some different, yet prominent, statesman.

FRANCE

Owing to the revision of the postal rates various values have appeared in new colours. The 5 cent, formerly green, is now yellow-orange, the 10 cent is now green and the 50 cent appears in a blue shade.

GERMANY

Various values of a new series have, or shortly will have, appeared. Mr. Bauml has shown us copies of the 5 pf. orange, the 10 pf.

olive green, and the 30 pf. bright-green. Deutsches Reich is at the top while the figures of value in large, fancy, old-type numerals occupy the greatest space on the stamp. Besides the above values shown to us the following are said to be in the course of issue: 15, 25, 40, 60, 80 pf.; 1m, 1m 20pf, 1m 50pf., 1m 60pf., 2m, 3m, 4m, 5m, 10m, 20 mark.

GAMBIA

Mr. B. Finch writes to us stating that he has seen a copy of the 3d King George type, issued on a new yellow paper but with the old watermark.

GUATEMALA

We have as yet learned nothing further regarding the new issue forecasted in this column last July. It seems that this series is not likely to materialize for some time as the following values have just been issued in continuation of the present set: 1p 50c., orange and blue; 5p. green and brown; and 15p orange and black.

1921 CINCUENTA CENTAVOS" in black, has been surcharged upon the current 75c value.

INDIA

"It is stated that the current $\frac{1}{2}$ anna value is to be surcharged as a 9 pies provisional in the same manner as the 1 anna."—Stamp Collecting.

JAMAICA

"Another sensation! The new sixpenny stamp, recently foreshadowed, has been condemned on account of its "utterly execrable colouring" with the result that His Excellency the Governor (who is very jealous of Jamaica's fair name), has ordered the whole lot to be destroyed."—Stamp Collecting.

JUGO-SLAVIA

Two provisional Postage Due labels have been made by surcharging the 5 paras, Crown Prince's head, with "10" and "30" paras, respectively.

LATVIA

"RUB 2 RUB" has been surcharged on the following values of the 1920 issue—20 and 10k, 40 and 15k, 50 and 20k, 1r and 30k..

"10 DESMIT-RUBLE," in black, has been overprinted on the 50k, printed on the bank note paper.

The following is taken from Stamp Collecting: "Due for issue on Sept. 30th, we are now able to publish the appended descriptive notes of a striking new series of postage stamps prepared for this Italian colony:

"TYPE 1—Roman legionary, designed by Duilio Cambellotti: 1c black and brown, 2c black and brown, 5c black and green.

"TYPE 2—Allegory of Abundance in the Libyan desert, illuminated by the Star of Italy, designed by Vittorio Grassi: 10c black and red, 15c brown and orange, 25c blue and pale blue.

"TYPE 3.—Ancient Roman galley in the roadstead of Trinoli, designed by Paolo Paschetto: 30c black and brown, 50c black and olive, 55c black and violet.

"TYPE 4.—Winged Victory, supported by an allegory of Industry in Libya, designed by Giovanni Constantini: 1 lire brown, 5 lire black and blue, 10 lire blue and olive.

"TYPE 5.—Emblematic of Italy, with a background of palm trees, designed by Alcardo Terzi: Inland Express 30c red and blue, Foreign Express 50c brown and red.

"On all these stamps the inscriptions read "Colonie Italiane" and "Poste Libia."

LOURENCO MARQUES

Rumor has it that separate issues for this country are to be discontinued and that the stamps of Mozambique will be used for the entire possessions of the Portuguese Government in East Africa.

LUXEMBURG

We are in debt to Mr. Maury Swartz for samples of and information regarding three newly issued stamps. They are 10c and 5c. green, giving a view of Vianden; a 15c and 10c red, showing an old fort outside of Luxembourg city; a 25c and 10c green, giving a view of the cit yof Luxembourg. The stamps are all inscribed at the top "Timbre Du Souvenir" and at the bottom "Luxembourg." The surplus of 5, 10 and 10c is to be used for distribution amongst the unemployed. The stamps are well executed and exceedingly interesting.

LICHENSTEIN

Three new values have been added to the current Pictorial series, the 20rp purple and black, 30rp green and black, and 1fr claret and black.—Economist Stamp Company.

LIBERIA

The following paragraph has appeared in the "London Times" regarding an expected new issue.

"In the negro Republic of Liberia a striking new series of picturesque designs has just been introduced—the first since 1918. From the watermark, consisting of noughts and crosses, the stamps would appear to be of German origin. The values, colors and subjects are 1c. green (landscape), 5c. blue and black (portrait of the President), 10c (crocodile), 20c. carmine and green (pepper plant), 25c orange-yellow and black (tiger), 30c. green and violet (native village), 50c orange-yellow and blue (mandingo in boat), 75c. scarlet and brown (waterfall), $1 scarlet and black (antelopes), $2 yellow and violet (bird), $5 violet and red (elephant). There is a long list of service stamps in the same designs overprinted "O.S." or "Official" and five stamps of the denomination 10c, for registration purposes, in a triangular design showing a snake, inscribed with the names of each of the head post offices in the Republic.

MEMEL

A provisional air mail issue has been made by surcharging various values of the current series with "FLUGPOST" and a new value,

The list of those issued is: "60 pf. on 40c red and black; 80 pf on 45c green and black, 1 mk on 50c brown and lilac, 2 mk on 1 fr. claret and olive; 3 mk on 60c violet and black, 4 mk. on 2 fr. red and black.

"MEMEL—80 PFENNIG" has been surcharged on the 45c. French stamp. "MEMEL-3 MARK" in red, has been surcharged on the 60c. value of the same country. The former values and the words "Rep. Francaise" have been obliterated by bars.

MOROCCO AGENCIES

The following information is credited to Mr. Derek Ingram: "We are informed that the stamps with surcharge in centimos and pesetas have now been finally withdrawn and replaced by the current ones, overprinted simply "MOROCCO AGENCIES," which series (hitherto reserved principally for use on parcels) now includes the 1½d, and 3d values of this country; supplies of the 5d and 6d are awaited.

"As a matter of fact, the 3, 6 and 12 pesetas denominations were used up long ago and should prove to be commercially desirable.

NYASSA

A new series of eighteen values has been issued. The first four values—¼, ½, 1 and 1½c bear as design the Giraffe as shown on Scott's No. 26; the next five values, 2, 2½, 4, 5 and 6 show the head of Vasco da Gama; the values of 7½, 8, 10, 15 and 20 portray the sailing ship as on Scott's No. 60; the last four values show an armed native and the zebra as on No. 54. All values are inscribed at the top "Companhia Do Nyassa."

POLAND

"The Times" for July 4th says: "Poland is the latest country to provide distinctive stamps for the air post service. The design of the 25 mark stamp represents two aeroplanes encircling the environs of Posen, while that of the 100 mark, printed in dark blue, depicts a single machine flying low over the roofs of the city. Both stamps are inscribed "Aero-Targ-Pozhuan, 1921."

"The 25 mark is in black and orange and the 100 mark in black and blue; they were issued in Posen late in June for use in connection with the Warsaw-Cracow-Lodz aerial mail service."—Stamp Collecting.

PANAMA

The "Economist Stamp Co." writes: "Referring to Scott's No. 529, 1c on ½c, it was discovered that two or three sheets were printed on a dark carmine stamp instead of orange surcharged in dark green."

PAPUA

A new value—2½d purple blue and dark green.—The E. S. C.

ROUMANIA

A set of "Social Assistance" stamps has just appeared. The design printed in the "Bulletin Mensuel" is far from clear. We can make out, however, that the design is that of three figures the most central of which is a woman and the one to the left a child. The 10b stamp only is available for postal purposes, the other nine values being exclusively of fiscal usage.

SWEDEN

Two new values—25 and 40 ore, type of the current 20 ore, have been added to the present series.

SWITZERLAND

Whitfield King & Co. announce that all special air post stamps for Switzerland have been withdrawn from circulation.

TOGO

"It is stated authoritatively in Paris circles, our correspondent writes, that the present series of Togo on Dahomey, overprinted "Occupation Franco-Anglaise," is to be withdrawn very shortly and a new overprint denoting French occupation only, issued in its place.

"Coincident with the advent of the new overprinted stamps, which are expected shortly from this colony, a series of "Timbre Tax" will be issued by overprinting the present Postage Due stamps of Dahomey." — Stamp Collecting.

The set referred to is composed of the following seventeen values: 1c grey and green; 2c blue and orange; 10c green and yellow-green; 15c brown and rose; 20c yellow-green and orange; 25c black and orange; 35c. brown and yellow-green; 40c green and olive; 45c brown and olive; 75c chocolate and ultramarine; 4c olive and orange; 5c red and black; 30c carmine and red; 50c blue; 1 fr. grey and ultramarine; 2 fr. olive and rose; 5 fr. yellow and black.

TURKESTAN

Mr. Bob. Burt tells us that values ranging from 10 k to 10 r have been surcharged on the 1 and 2 k. current Russian Imp. in large black numerals. Turkestan has had twenty values in all made for her in this manner.

TUNIS

A new 20c value has been made by surcharging the current 15c. purple with "20c" and with bars obliterating the former figures of value, in black.

TURKEY

Owing to the increase in postal rates the following provisionals have been issued: 30p. on 10p lilac (1917 issue); 60p on 10p green (1920); 4½p on 1 p. red (1916); 7½ p on 8 p blue (1920). Large numbers of each of the four values have been printed.

DENMARK

We are in debt to Mr. Kay Svanefelt for the following information. He states that the 10 ore green Kronborg Castle, listed last issue, has been surcharged "X 5 X" in aid of the Red Cross Fund.

He also states that two new values—70 ore brown with green centre and 90 ore brown with red centre have been added to the current "King" series.

Regarding last month's article re sending in valuable lots of stamps unregistered, Mr. Robinson and the Secretary went to the Post Office the other day and received the following: Mr. Robinson, one selection NET $192.00 and another $26.00. Both ordinary mail. Mr. Patton, selection for Sales Dept., $60.00, this besides being un-registered, had the flap turned in. The Postal Authorities had taken this for a Catalogue, and allowed same to go through with 2 1c stamps. Comment on sending valuable stamps in this manner is superfluous.

Rules have been mailed to all members by this date. If you have not received your copy, write for same. Also state how many application blanks you can use.

Members are requested to note that the Sales sheets have been done away. In future members sending in Stamps for the Sales Circuits, will mount same in their own sheets or books.

Owing to the large number of members present on Aug. 3rd and 17th, and at the request of many, it was decided to start the Weekly meetings at once, instead of the 1st of Sept. Another healthy indication that the Society is going ahead. All members interviewed in Winnipeg, state that conditions have been marvellous this summer in the Stamp line, and they look to a remarkable fall business. Every member seems to be very optimistic regarding the Society. The Sales Manager, Mr. Robinson, has opened up a Stamp business at 271 Fort St., with a fine line of stamps. Many of the members were present at the opening, also other collectors. In the run on certain lines, Mr. Robinson ran out of packets and hinges. As he carries the "Peerless" used by most of our members, it is hardly to be wondered at.

The Society maintains the services of a Secty-Treas., who is always glad to give you any information. If you have any complaints, suggestions, etc., do not hesitate to write him. Your letter will be answered as quickly as possible.

Junior American Philatelic Society

INTRODUCTORY

Dear Members of J.A.P.S.:

It is with particular good feeling that the J.A.P.S. accepts the offer of the Canadian Stamp Collector for Official Organship. We are proud to have the livest Philatelic monthly in America as our organ. The independent issue of the "Junior Philatelist" has been given up due to high printing costs. The second volume of the Year Book will be in your hands in a month.

500 is the mark set for the J.A.P.S. membership this year. You will all help, I know. The Secretary has a fresh supply of blanks. Come on!

Fraternally yours,

V. N. ROTNEM, President.

Fellow Members of the J.A.P.S.:

Owing to the high cost of printing and the lack of support from the Society, the Secretary did not feel that he could carry on the publishing of a separate stamp paper. From now on the Canadian Stamp Collector will carry on for the Society and we feel sure of good service. Cards and premiums mailed at last, but owing to the $2 blue vanishing from the market we were unable to give the premium we intended. After this when mailing out any applications you have on hand, please scratch off the offer of the $2 blue premium.

Respectfully yours,

C. H. HOLLISTER.

This is to notify the J.A.P.S. members that the Secretary has placed his resignation in the hands of the President. The choice of a new Secretary is now being considered and announcement of his name will be in the next number. — C. H. H.

General Collectors

THIS WILL INTEREST YOU. My past experience has taught me that the stamps mostly desired are from 1c to 10c each. I make a specialty of net sheets at these prices, that fill up the spaces for you.

Or, again, I find by going over your wants at these prices and sending a list and having them sent on a approval to you by request, is a very satisfactory manner. Again, I have sets of most countries that are priced very low; also sent on approval. Br. Col. are getting scarcer every month. Get them now. Yes, I have some Br. Col. War Tax left. Where are the wise men, that refused to buy at first offer. They are 100% higher now and will keep on going.

To Advanced Collectors — N.F.

I was fortunate to pick up from an officer of the Nyassaland Field Force, who was on service in Africa, a few of the Nyassaland Protectorate Surcharged N.F. They are sold in Great Britain at very high figures, there being only 600 of the 4d and 1/- issued, of which I have only a few. The following prices will hold good until they are sold. These are the only known specimens in Canada today, to my knowledge.

Nyassaland Protectorate—Surcharged N.F.

Scott's No. 12, ½d. green, N.F., 50c; No. 13, 1d. scarlet, N.F., 75c; No. 16, 3d. violet yellow, N.F., $3.00; No. 17, 4d. scarlet and black, N.F., $5.00; No. 19, 1/- green, N.F., $7.50. A guarantee is given with each purchase.

Les Timbres de la Croix Rouge Francaise

(THE STAMPS OF THE FRENCH RED CROSS)

(By Joseph Ward)

Gloire a la France au ciel joyeux!
Si douce au coeur, si belle aux yeux,
Sol beni de la Providence!

Gloire a La France!

Tout vient vers elle et tout en part;
Elle est le progress, elle est l'art.
Sol qui produit, peuple qui pense.

Gloire a La France.

Champion de l'humanite,
L'Homme lui doit sa liberte,
Et l'esprit son independence,

Gloire a La France.

—Paul Deroulede, French
Poet, 1846-1914.

On the night of August 1, 1914, the German troops invaded Luxemburg, and the next day entered French territory near Longwy, Department of Meuse. On August 3rd France notified Germany that a state of war existed with the latter because of this invasion.

Then followed a hell that did not stop until the closing weeks of 1918, and whose effects are still to be felt.

At once steps were taken to raise funds for the purpose of equipment of soldiers, wages, Red Cross maintenance, and other necessities required to stop the advance of "kultur."

The French Government provided the guns and equipment, but the French Red Cross, a combination of three societies (which consisted of 35,000 nurses and 40,000 women auxiliaries in over 1,500 hospitals in July, 1915) supplied the hospital material and labour. It has been said that the Red Cross provides everything for the soldiers' comfort from chocolates to feather dusters. Fund "drives," subscriptions, and the postage stamps were instrumental in obtaining money to continue this good work.

On August 11th, the following document was drafted and signed, creating the 10 centime surcharged stamp. A Geneva cross with "5c" was placed on the ordinary "Sower" type then in use:

Le President de la Republique Francaise

Sur la rapport du Ministre du Commerce, de l'Industrie, des Postes et des Telegraphes, Decrete:

Article 1er.—Il est decree un timbre-poste special denome "timbre de la Croix Rouge francaise. Le public aura la faculte, dans le regime interieur seulement d'utiliser ce timbre qui vradra affranchissement jusqu'a concurrent de 10 centimes seulement.

Article 2.—Ce timbre-poste est vendu 15 centimes. La difference entre le prix de vente et la valeur d'affranchissement, deduction faite de la remise reglementaire de 1. p. % sera versece a la commission instituee par le decret du 8 aout 1914, au Ministre de la Guerre, sous l'autorite du service de sante militaire et avec la concours des societies formant la Croix Rouge Francaise.

Article 3.—Par le mesure transitoire et en attendant l'empression du nouveau timbre, le public aura a sa disposition des timbres poste ordinaires a 10 centimes, portant en surcharge le signe de la Croix Rouge et le chiffre 5 centimes.

Article 4.—Le Ministre du Commerce, de l'Industrie, des Postes et des Telegraphes, et le Ministre des Finances sont charges, chacun en ce qui le concerne, de l'execution du present decret.

Fait a Paris, le 11 aout 1914.

R. POINCARE.

Par Le President de la Republique:

Le Ministre du Commerce, de l'Industrie, des Postes, et des Telegraphes,

GASTON THOMSON.

Le Ministre des Finances.

J. NOULEES.

(Translation)

The President of the French Republic:

By the advice of the Minister of Commerce,

Article 1.—There is created a special postage stamp known as "the stamp of the French Red Cross."

Article 2.—This postage stamp is sold at 15 centimes. The difference between the selling price and the franking value goes to a commission instituted by the decree of August 8th 1914, by the Minister of War, under the authority of the military and with the consent of the societies forming the French Red Cross.

Article 3.—By transitory measure, and until the issuing of a new stamp, the public have at their disposal the ordinary 10 centimes postage stamps bearing in surcharge the sign of the Red Cross and the numeral 5 centimes.

Article 4.—The Minister of Commerce, Industry, Posts and Telegraphs, and the Minister of Finances, are charged, each in part in which he is concerned, with the execution of the present decree.

Done at Paris, the 11th of August, 1914.

R. POINCARE.

Les Timbres de la Croix Rouge Francaise

(THE STAMPS OF THE FRENCH RED CROSS)

(First Instalment in Sept. C.S.C.)

The Minister of Commerce, Industry, Posts and Telegraphs.

GASTON THOMSON,

The Minister of Finances.

J. NOULEES.

The first French Red Cross stamp made its "debut" seven days later, August 18th. The ordinary ten centime, Sower type, was surcharged as authorized, at the Government Printing Establishment at Paris. We are informed on supposedly good authority that 600,000 copies were thus overprinted. There are three varieties: The overprint in brick red and vermilion and the stamp itself figuring in the varieties. One type read in the inscriptions "REFUBLIQUE" for "REPUBLIQUE", an "F" for a "P".

A definite Red Cross and postage stamp was issued first on September 12th, 1914. The "Sower" type was still employed, though the inscriptions were moved around a bit and a couple added. The "sign of the Red Cross and the numeral 5c" were amongst the latter. This type is known in two (color) varieties: scarlet and brick red.

(By the decree of February 22, 1916, an issue of surcharged Red Cross stamps were authorized, but as we have heard of no such issue we will omit discussing the details.)

III.

The third issue was authorized by the Presidential decree of October 22, 1916, and placed on sale in 1917. The document and translation follows:

Article 5.—The decree of February 22nd and May 2nd, 1916, are repealed.

Article 6.—The Minister of Commerce, Industry, Posts and Telegraphs and the Minister of Finances are each in part in which he is concerned, charged with the execution of the present decree, which will be published in the Official Journal and inserted in the Bulletin of Laws.

Done at Paris, the 22nd of October, 1916.

R. POINCARÉ.

By the President of the Republic.

The Minister of Commerce, Industry, Posts and Telegraphs,

CLEMENTEL.

The Minister of Finances,

RIBOT.

The special types made their appearance in 1917. On the five centime (2c x 3c), a figure of a widow is portrayed in a cemetery, surrounded by the crosses marking the resting place of those who fought and fell for La France. The colour of this stamp is brown violet.

The ten centime (5c x 5c) pictures two "orphelins de la guerre."

The twenty-five centime (15c x 10c) grey green, and forty centime (25c x 15c) blue, both bear as main features of designs a woman plowing with two horses.

The sixty centime (35c x 25c) green and violet, through an opening in the frame, shows the French Tricolor flying.

The one franc (50c x 50c) brown and light brown, pictures the Lion of Belfort. This gigantic lion carved out of solid rock of the fortress of Belfort, the only bit of Alsace held by France by treaty of 1871, was executed by Frederick A. Bartholdi, the French sculptor who was selected to produce the Statute of Liberty, that 450,000 pound memorial on Bedloes Island, New York harbour. The Lion of Belfort typifies the defence of the fort under the direction of Colonel Denfert-Rochereau, who held the fortress until the last day of the war. Because of its brave defence it was not inculded in the annexed lands.

The two francs (1 F x 1 F) carmine and the ten franc (5F x 5F) blue and black, have the same design, one significant of La Marseillaise.

This issue was designed by M. Louis Dumoulin and engraved by M. Kuffe, and surface printed at the Government Printing Establishment at Paris.

The last type was authorized by decree of February 15th, 1917. This issue consisted of but one stamp, twenty centimes (15c x 5c) blue and red. The design is divided into two parts. On the left represents the sinking of the Hospital ship Asturias, while on the right the shelling of an ambulance is portrayed. The Asturias is shown with the bow and bridge just above water. On the bridge rail a large Geneva cross is noted.

The sinking of the Hospital ship "Asturias," is just one of the indications of "kultur" as believed in and practiced by the Germans. The attack, by submarine, took place the night of March 20th, 1917 (exact location not given) with thirty-one (31) persons killed, twelve (12) missing, and the number wounded, or who died from exposure we have no statistics.

"DO IT NOW! . . ."

6326 Burbridge St.
Philadelphia, Pa.

THE CALL FOR ANNUAL DUES

Members of the M.P.A. are reminded that their dues and subscription to the Official Organ, for the period ending August 31st, 1922, to the amount of $1.00 (American currency) are now payable and would be received with the utmost pleasure by our treasurer, Mr. Otto C. Reymann, 6326 Burbridge St., Philadelphia, Pa., and a new membership card will be sent.

Pay early, so that the Board of Directors can thus prepare the activities of the current year and have the money ready to meet the obligations it will incur for the benefit of the members.

THE SECRETARY OF THE M.P.A.

Mr. Chas. V. McCoy is the new Exchange Manager, and his address is 1819 Wallace Ave., Duluth, Minn. We feel very grateful to Mr. McCoy for the splendid work he has done so far and we hope that every member will step in and make his department one of the liveliest exchanges in the world. Do it, now! . . .

Mr. A. R. Henman, the retiring exchange manager, gives as his opinion that the Board of Directors has made a splendid choice in the appointment of Mr. McCoy to the exchange department.

The Board of Directors is now voting on the appointment of a Sales Superintendent and a Junior Sales Superintendent. In the meantime you can always send your departmental correspondence to the present superintendents, who, when the time comes, will turn over the sales and the correspondence to the new appointees.

Members who may be short of application blanks are at liberty to write the Secretary's Office, who will be only too glad to send them as many as they can use. Surely you have a few friends that would be benefited by a membership in the M.P.A. It is up to the individual member to boost the Association.

Colonel J. M. T. Partello, the new Vice-President of the M.P.A. is perhaps one of the earliest Philatelists in this country, having begun his collection in 1863, until it numbers now about 112,000. This, together with half a million duplicates, he gathered in three trips around the world. He still has them. In the earlier days as a youngster, he was in partnership with dear old J. Walter Scott, before he began his professional business. You will see that he is no novice or beginner in Philately. Among other matters, he has been the chief officer of many associations and societies, has started several clubs of the kind, has made large donations to same, and as far as known has never sold a stamp to anyone. He has been in the past a firm friend of the M.P.A. since the early days of its foundation, and when it was tottering some few years ago, he joined with Dr. Davis in restoring it to normalcy. Philately to Col. Partello is an art, and not a commercial matter or pursuit. His selection to the Board of Directors of the M.P.A. is a credit and will add prestige to the Association.

President C. G. Gardner, of Jackson, Mich., has taken a ten days' leave of absence — and his house is now painted green.

International Secretary Elmer F. Smith, of Pontiac, Ill., is the oldest ranking member of the Association; his card number is 91. His immediate competitor is Rev. H. Wendt, of Earlville, Iowa, No. 123. Both joined the ranks in 1904. The next eight oldest members are: (1905) B. L. Voorhees, Chicago, No. 215; Charles E. Severn, Chicago, No. 293; J. D. Hubel, Detroit, Mich., No. 308; L. B. Vanderpool, Biloxi, Miss., No. 313; (1906) Miss E. Grahame, Montpelier, Vt., No. 324; Jos. L. Weber, Osborne, Kans., No. 341; G. W. Linn, Columbus, Ohio, No. 367; I. N. Greene, Fitchburg, Mass., No. 382. (Next month, the next ten oldest members).

Superintendent Sours, of the Sales Department, tells us that the calls for circuits are on the increase. Those who have stamps to sell may take notice.

Mr. Maurice Barnett, No. 909, of Philadelphia, Pa., who joined the M.P.A. in 1911, died several months ago while in the Far East. He was an importer of china antiques, etc., and made regular trips to China, Japan, etc. He was taken ill on his return trip from Shanghai to the United States and was buried at sea.

Editorial Chat

Did you notice all the bargains our advertisers have for you this month? Real bargains too! Do you read the advertising columns in a thorough manner? If you don't it is your loss. Did you ever think that advertisers are paying for the privilege of showing you what they have to offer; that their advertisement is their show window in which they display their best bargains, and that it will save you money if you order what you want at the right time? Read carefully what the advertisements say.

New Issues

This department is conducted by Mr. J. W. Robson, 17 Evelyn Crescent, Toronto, to whom all letters or other data for this department should be sent. We desire to establish New Issue correspondents in all foreign countries. Will you be one, or can you help us to find one?

CANADA

Commencing on Friday, October 1st, 1921, all parcels shipped by mail in Canada will be insured up to $100 against loss, rifling or damage while in the custody of the Canadian postal service. This scheme will supersede the ordinary registration of parcels.

The sale of insurance fees will be as follows: 3 cents for insurance not exceeding $5. 6 cents for insurance exceeding $5 but not exceeding $25. 12 cents for insurance exceeding $25 but not exceeding $50. 30 cents for insurance exceeding $50 but not exceeding $100.

The insurance is to be paid by means of postage stamps affixed to the parcel by the sender. An insurance receipt will be given the sender in every case where a parcel is insured.

When a parcel is handed to a rural mail courier for instance the courier is to give a receipt to the sender on a form supplied him for the purpose. An insurance receipt on the regular form is to be signed by the postmaster and forwarded by first mail to the sender who will hold it, in addition to the receipt from the courier for purposes of reference.

Parcels containing any of the following goods or articles will not be accepted for insurance against damage: eggs, fish, meat, fruit, vegetables, glass, crockery, semi-liquids, liquids, grease, or any articles of an exceptionally fragile or perishable nature.

In accordance with rules laid down at the Postal Conference at Madrid several new postal rates became effective on October 1st. They are as follows: To Canada, the United States or Mexico, 3 cents; to England or to any of the various British possessions, 4 cents; to any of the various foreign countries within the postal union, 10 cents.

Under the new rates a registered letter to Central Europe costs 20 cents. Yes, pretty high, pretty high!

AUSTRIA

Mr. G. Bauml submits copies of the 50 kronen purple on yellow forecasted in the New Issue column of last month.

AUSTRALIA

Mr. P. Black writes regarding the 4d mauve: "Several small varieties of the stamp have appeared, in the more important of which 'P' and 'E' of PENCE are joined at the top."

LUXEMBOURG

Mr. Bauml writes regarding the new 1 franc red: "The new 1 franc red, showing the castle 'Vianden' shows also the following variety—one stamp to each row: between the U and C of DUCHE there are two small lines (U||C), and the E of Luxembourg shows a spot of colour on the end of its tail."

LITHUANIA

Mr. Bob writes of the following aerial mail set: 1 auksinas green and red; 2 auksinas brown and blue; 5 auksinas grey and bistre. He also tells us that a 2a value has been added to the Prince Keistut set.

N. W. PACIFIC ISLANDS

The 2d King George Commonwealth orange, watermarked Crown and A, has been overprinted for use here.

PALESTINE

Messrs. Whitfield King & Co., have been informed that a new supply of stamps has been ordered from London, where the overprinting will be done, which will differ considerably from the local overprint, the word "Palestine" being in block letters; the Arabic and Hebrew overprints will also probably differ. The values and colours will be the same as the current issue, except that the I.P. will be a lighter shade of blue. The watermark will be Royal Cypher, as before. It is not known when the new stamps will be issued for sale—probably not before the end of the year.—Stamp Collecting.

PERU

The following set was issued from July 28th to August 15th, in commemoration of one hundred years of Peruvian Independence: 1c brown and granite (San Martin); 2c green (Arenales); 4c pink; 5c greenish grey (Allegory of Independence); 10c blue (Admiral Guisse); 12c grey and green (General Vidal); 20c grey and carmine (President Leguia); 50c violet (San Martin Monument); 1s green and pink (San Martin and President Leguia).

POLAND

The following elaboration of our chronicle of Poland's aerial mail labels (see last month's issue) is contributed by Mr. H. B. Gould:

"Two 'posters' (2½ in. x 1½ in.) have been issued for air postage. The first of these, 25 mk., represents a nude young man with a large pair of wings, carrying what appears to be a globe, against a pink sky dotted with aeroplanes. Colours, red and black. The second, 100 mk., is none the less striking. A monoplane in an apparently erratic flight, is distributing letters broadcast over a blue landscape. Colours, blue and black.

"Both are very poorly printed and carry the inscription, "Aero-Targ; Poznan 1921" with value in the two lower corners, while under the design T.A.A.R.O.M.I.K. appears in large sans serif capitals.

"As advertising posters for bill-boards, we congratulate the designer, "W.R." who has been bold enough to inscribe his initials, but, as stamps—it is best to maintain a discreet silence."

"A 50 mark stamp, carmine and bistre, has appeared in the type of the recently issued 25 mark value."—Stamp Collecting.

RHODESIA

Mr. Derek Ingram states that he has seen a horizontal used pair of the 1½d King George adhesive, imperforate between.

SYRIA

Mr. A. Knows writes that the 2 francs red and blue has been surcharged thus in black: "O.M.F. Syrie 10 Piastres." The overprint is in four lines.

TURKEY

Mr. Bauml writes that the French Post Office in Constantinople has issued three new surcharged French stamps for use here. The samples he submits show: "1 PIASTRE 20 PARAS" on 10c red, Scott's No. 135; "4 PIASTRES 20 PARAS" on 30c orange, Scott's No. 139; "7 PIASTRES 20 PARAS" on 50c blue, type of 1903.

TOGO

The following is clipped from "Stamp Collecting": "Mr. C. G. Cottle shows us mint examples of the overprinted Gold Coast 5s and 10s K.G. values, on Experimental papers (stocks of which were officially destroyed after being on issue for a few days) the former (on lemon yellow) having the value tablet in carmine instead of vermilion, and the 10s being on blue-green with yellow green back. These Experimentals are very rare."

UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA

Here also is felt the increase in postal rates. We understand that the 1½d K.G. is to be withdrawn and replaced by a new 2d value.

URUGUAY

"MENSAJERIAS" signifying "Express Delivery" has been printed in fancy capital letters on the current 2 centesimos value.

Winnipeg Stamp Society

A REAL CANADIAN STAMP SOCIETY FOR CANADIANS

Organized 1919

Mr Collector, if you are a REAL STAMP COLLECTOR you should read this. READ AND THINK: Are you aware that this Society has 41 new members this SUMMER. Did you read over the names in the "Collector"? You didn't think there were so many live Collectors in Canada, did you? What about yourself, why not BE A LIVE ONE also. Of course, before you think of joining you would like to hear about our benefits. Here are a few of them:

First--Membership. We have over 100 live Collectors, many well known, and glad to have you as a fellow member.

Second--Fees. $1.00 per year (except Winnipeg members, $2.00) Pretty reasonable, isn't it, a matter of 2c per week. But read on, Brother, and see what we can do for you, for this little DOLLAR.

Third--A Sales Department, under the charge of an expert, Mr. R. F. Robinson, Box 1773, Winnipeg, Man. Over $2,000.00 net entered since August 1st. You are permitted to enter your stamps, marked at your own selling price in this department. Circuits are sent out often, so that you can buy or sell as you wish. Remittances made for credit balances as soon and as often as possible.

Fourth--Auctions are held every second Wednesday. This gives you a chance of disposing of good stamps at good prices. You have seen our Auction in the "Collector". Some of these lots brought good prices. And look at the commission charged. Only 10%. Pretty reasonable, isn't it? And owners are settled with in a very few days after a sale. If possible, the very next day, although this is not always possible.

Fifth--All members who desired Scott's 1922 Catalogue received same, postpaid on day of issue for $1.25. All other Catalogues are supplied at cost price also. We agree with you, Brother, we never heard of any other place that would supply Catalogues at these prices, either.

Sixth--The Society maintains an Information Bureau in charge of W. R. Patton, Box 2384, Winnipeg, Man. He is always willing to answer any questions, etc. If you require any information it is well to write him. He will be glad to answer your letter.

Seventh--Well, Mr. Collector, we have to think of MacLean. He says, "Leave me some space in MY MAGAZINE," so all we have to say is, "If the above is not worth a DOLLAR A YEAR to you, you certainly should not join us."

Your application should be sent to:

W. R. PATTON, Secty-Treas.

13—R. F. Robinson, now at 781 Portage Ave., Winnipeg, Man.

Since July 15th we have got 51 new members. 19 in August and 24 in September. Credits for new members are as follows: Patton 24, Robinson 10, Wilson 6, Purvis 5, Haskell 2, Douglas 2, Peterson, Albert, Roach, Cabeldu, Huggenberger, Ashby, Deaper, Thompson, Campbell, one each. Members are coming in fast, but not fast enough. Up to date, we have sent out nearly 1500 application blanks. Can you use some? Look up last month's C.S.C., and compare the standing of members with this month's. Come on, boys, get busy. We MUST GET MORE MEMBERS AT ONCE.

Messrs. Purvis and Bricker of Yorkton, Sask. attended the meeting on Sept. 28th. They were warmly welcomed by the boys, and we hope to see them again soon. Don't forget, when you are in Winnipeg on Wednesday night, the Winnipeg members are always glad to meet any members from outside points. Mr. Purvis also brought in two applications with him. That is the kind of members we need. This put Mr. Purvis in third place again, but Mr. Wilson, not to be outdone, also brought in two on Saturday to the Secretary-Treas., putting Wilson again in third place. Last month these two members had got one each, now they have eleven between them. Wilson and Purvis both claim they will keep third place. Watch their smoke, boys!

The first Mail Auction brought $101.10. Lot No. 38, Cape of Good Hope No. 4, cataloging $2.50, brought the highest price, being sold for $2.80. Prices generally were fair, some lots bringing very good prices. Nearly all lots, however, went to out-of-town bidders, and many to the States.

Prices realized were as follows:

First Row Lots No. 1 to 10; second row, 11 to 20; third row, 21 to 30, etc., down to thirteenth (or last) row, Nos. 121 to 130.

Blank spaces denote lots withdrawn.

The J.A.P.S. Sales Dept. Under New Management

As I have been appointed to succeed Mr. Arnold as manager of your Sales Department, it is requested that all correspondence, pertaining to the Sales Department be addressed to the new management. The work in connection with departmental transfer started Sept. 21st, and it is hoped that I may be in a position to start out new circuits by the time members read this report.

The department platform under my administration will be — Service, Courtesy and Good Will to every member who does not stray too far from the Golden Rule plan of doing business.

Fraternally yours,

BYRON B. SMITH, JR.,

1130 Ashland Ave., Wilmette, Ill.

United States Postage Stamps in the Making

(By Joseph Ward)

In Uncle Sam's great postage stamp factory, every day 40,000,000 stamps are manufactured, counted and put up in sealed packages, ready to be sent to any one of the 60,000 post offices thruout the United States. This daily output would cover eight acres if laid flat or would extend 703 miles if each stamp was placed end-to-end.

It is, perhaps, not far from right to say that the consumption of the postage stamp, like the circulation of the penny, is a guage of any nation's prosperity, and business growth. As an example of this take for instance the stamps used in this country for the past thirty years. In 1890, 1,961,980 stamps were used; 1900, 3,998,544,564; 1910, 9,067,164,886, and for 1920 the figures will be very close to 16,000,000,000.

It is a huge job, and is today done entirely by the Government, but in days gone by was "farmed" out to contractors. Today the work is better done and at a greater saving. There is a profit in ink, paper, gum, and labour that formerly went into the contractors' purse.

The printing, etc., of the stamps is done by the "Bureau of Printing and Engraving," in the same building where our bank notes, war saving and thrift stamps and Liberty Bonds are made.

The postage stamp in the making is ultra-interesting reading. When it is decided to issue a new stamp a model is made by a designer, which is submitted to the officers or committee who first discussed the matter. The model is then modified according to criticisms, and finally approved by the Postmaster-General himself.

The approved design is then placed in the hands of the engravers, who cut it upon a piece of annealed steel. After the approval of a "proof" of this engraving it is heated red hot in cyanide of potassium and hardened by suddenly dipping it into oil and water. This single engraved subject is duplicated four hundred times upon the large plates that the stamps are printed from by means of a transfer press.

Steel engraving is the perfection of art as applied to securities and differs from art and sculptoring in that the engraver who carves his work on the plates must deliberately study the effect of each infinitesimal line. Free hand, with a diamond shaped tool known as a graver, aided by a powerful magnifying glass he varces away conscious that one false cut or slip of the tool will destroy his creation and his months of labour will have been in vain.

In no other form of printing can the beautiful, soft, yet strong effects in black and white be obtained as in steel engraving. The introduction of cheap mechanical process work has superseded the beautiful creations of our master engraver commercially, and now we find the art limited to the engraving of securities as applied in the Bureau of Printing and Engraving.

The work in this branch is divided and classified so that each engraver becomes skilled in some operation. For instance they are classified as portrait, script, square letter, and ornamental engravers. Each is confined to his own specialty, and thus becomes unusually expert in that operation, with the result of not only getting perfect work, but a greater output is obtained, and what is of still greater importance, greater security is attained. The individual excellencies and characteristics of a number of men are impressed upon every stamp issued. Therefore it would be difficult, if not impossible, for one engraver to produce an entire stamp, such as a counterfeit.

The transfer process used in making the postage labels of today is the fruit of an inventive American mind, that of Jacob Perkins of Newburyport, Mass., who is today considered as the father of the present method of duplicating bank note and stamp plates. It consists of making a reversed duplicate or mould of the original engraving by rolling a soft annealed steel roller upon it, in the transfer press. Being accurately guided and held by the mechanism of this press, continued rolling under high pressure forces the soft steel of the roll into the engraved lines of the original design and forms an exact counterpart, in relief. This roll being hardened, is used to duplicate the engraving by the same process, upon a soft steel plate, which it will do a great number of times before wearing out, reserving the original engraving or die as it is called for making additional rolls. The original dies are never printed from except to make what are known as die proofs.

The paper used every year for postage stamps weighs nearly 500,000 pounds, and to make this, 1575 spruce trees are required. These trees cover an area of eighty acres, and if this was made into lumber instead of wood pulp it would provide enough building material to construct fifty goodly sized bungalows. About 1,000 men are employed at the pulp mills, and 800 find employment at the printing factory in Washington, so you see to make the humble postage stamp quite an army is required. The amount of ink used is close to 650,000 pounds.

The present system of printing the stamps is accomplished upon what are known as "four plate presses." Four plates are used in order that the operations of inking, wiping, polishing and taking the impressions may be done at once. The press requires the services of three persons; a printer to polish the plates, one girl to lay the sheet in position and another to take it off after it has taken the impression.

The sheets are next gummed by passing beneath a glass roller which is bathed in a solution of dextrine (which forms the gum) and the sheets are carried by grippers thru a drying chamber in which the gum is dried in less than thirty seconds. Just before leaving the gumming machine the sheets are carried thru a device which breaks the gum into innumerable cracks, the latter preventing curling.

The printed and gummed sheets of four hundred are now fed thru a rotary perforator, which perforates the stamps in one direction and cuts the sheet across. Another perforator separates the stamps the other way and cuts the sheet across the former cutting. Thus we have the sheet of one hundred, ten by ten, which after a close and rigid examination are counted and put into sealed packages of 500 sheets to await shipment as requisitions demand.

The H. C. of L. (or better termed the H. C. of Paper) has played an important role in our Uncle's stamp mill. It used to be the custom to destroy the entire sheet of stamps if an error or smudge was noticed on one single stamp. Or if the sheet was torn, exit. But no more. The torn sheet is mended, in the same manner as we would mend a torn page of a book, by placing a strip of paper over the tear, and passing it thru the perforator again, and then sold to the public. Hobbyists delight in getting such freaks.

Without much effort we can recall the much-heralded five cent "two-cent stamp," which made appearance in the late spring of 1917. In some mysterious way in the transfer process a five cent plate had been placed in the press in the place of a two-cent one, and when the sheet was finished it contained several red stamps, perfect in design, with the numerals "5" instead of "2." The department at once went thru their stocks, and recalled outside ones, and examined them. Soon the sheets began to pass out again to the public with the "error" taken out. Ten years ago this entire sheet of four hundred would have been destroyed.

The gum on the back of the postage stamp is made by scientifically roasting tapioca starch, such as is used in making pudding. In 1918, 450,150 pounds were used in the Bureau, enough to give every one living in New York City one serving of the dish.

Up until recently the colours selected for the stamps and other securities were chosen for their colour hue, and by comparison for match; no attention being paid to their permanency. The natural result was colours that faded quickly.

The deterioration of colour is caused by the combined action of light and atmosphere. Chemical composition will give a clue as to the action of the atmosphere, but the action of light is more subtle and nothing short of an actual test is of value. Of course it was not convenient or practical to have an experiment that might extend over a period of months and years; one was necessary that would give the result in days, was required.

It had been determined from exhaustive experiments that a colour that will not change after exposure to bright sunlight in the summer for three days can be relief upon to stand the diffused light of an ordinary room. The amount of fading is very slight so the following method was devised to determine what effect long exposure would have.

A strip of ink-coloured paper was exposed to the light for one, two and three days, with a part protected by black paper. It was found that some colours would fade a little every day, while some others would fade a little the first day and then remain staple the following ones. It was finally decided that the first tested ones would fade away to nothingness while the others would not. The colour that shows signs of progressive fading as the first tested is called is never selected.

It is the established aim of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving to give the people the best that can be made that will meet all requirements and conditions.

THE TURKISH EMPIRE

A Chronicle of Developments in Turkey as Seen on Stamps.

(By Chas. Mueller)

It is about fifty-eight years since Turkey first attracted the Philatelists' attention. Her first stamps were issued in 1863. In the same year Russian offices were opened and a large square label, a 6k blue, was put forth by the Russian Steam Navigation Company. This is now quite an uncommon stamp.

Austria, seeing the advantage of having its own office in such a cosmopolitan land, followed by issuing a set in 1867 for its newly formed postal station.

Germany was third, putting forth a series in 1884.

Great Britain was fourth, issuing adhesives in 1885.

In the same year France, the fifth nation to establish its own Levant mail service, also put forth a number of surcharges. Separate issues for Dedeagh, Port Lagos, Cavalle and Vathy did not come out until 1893-94 however.

Roumania was sixth, overprinting six values with Turkish currency in 1896.

Italy was seventh, making the first two definite sets, for Albania and Janina in 1902. However, a set for use all over the world had been available since 1874. A general issue for the whole Levant and separate issues for Constantinople, Durazzo, Jerusalem, Salonica, Scutari, Smyrna and Valona came out within the following five or six years.

Russia followed Italy's lead by issuing separate stamps in 1909 for the following cities: Constantinople, Jaffa, Jerusalem, Kerassmunde, Mont Athose, Salonique, Smyrna, Trebizonde, Beyrouth, Dardanelles, Metelin and Rizeh.

The seven nations kept up their own services until 1914. Then came a crushing blow, the Abolition of Capitulations which did away with all foreign offices in the land of the star and crescent.

But collectors who hoped that this act would lessen the flood of labels from this part of the world were destined to be disappointed. Turkey was on its way to the carving.

The first piece to break loose was Hejaz, which declared its independence in 1916. A little later the British occupied Palestine and Mesopotamia. Of course, all three of these states are represented in the album.

The next nation to wield the butcher knife was Greece. Although three sets came out about this time all were bogus. The first for Rodosto, a place never occupied by the Greeks; and the second and third for Smyrna and Cydonia, both private speculation.

As hostilities had ceased, Roumania and Poland opened offices at Constantinople and the adjacent coast in the latter part of 1919 and made more work for the cataloger.

Then came an avalanche of issues made by France, for Cilicia, Syria, and Castellorizo.

T. ALLEN

"Craigard" Blake Hall Rd., Wanstead, London, E.II., England.

Three independent countries, Arabia, Armenia, and Trans-Jordan were also formed from fragments of the "old bird." These states made over two hundred varieties for the new-issue fan.

The latest stamps from the land of the sultan are a set for use in the newly re-established British offices in the Levant. These made their appearance but a few months ago.

And this is not all. In the newspapers we read: "A Nationalist government organized in Angora"; "Prince Feisal crowned king of Irak, the region around Bagdad." What will come from these developments is at present only a matter of conjecture. Don't worry, boys, the worst is yet to come!

Who's Who in Philately

(By Geo. M. Moreland)

Giuseppe Garibaldi.

The 1910 commemorative issue of Italy, issued to commemorate the National plebiscite of the Southern States, in 1860, bear a likeness of Garibaldi, one of the world's patriots and the idol of the Italian.

Garibaldi was born at Nice, France, on July 4, 1807. He was the son of a fisherman and was not well educated. In early youth he was a sailor. Condemned to death in 1834 for his share in the Mazzini affair, he escaped to South America.

In 1848, he returned to Italy to engage in the war against Austria. In 1849 he took part in the Mazzini war but had to flee from Rome with 4000 of his troops. During his flight his wife died from privation and fatigue.

He then went to the United States where for a time he engaged in making candles for a living. Returning to Italy, he settled on Caprera Island, which was later purchased and presented to him by admirers.

In 1860 he was proclaimed dictator of the Two Sicilies but acquiesced in its annexation to Italy, declining all honors and retired to his island home.

He fought, unsuccessfully, against the Austrians in the Tyrol. In 1867 he attempted the rescue of Rome, but was defeated by the French and pontifical troops. He fought in 1870 with France against Germany.

He held a position in the French Assembly, later going back to Italy, holding a seat in the Italian Parlia-

The President of the French Republic.

By the decree of August 11th, 1914, etc.

By the law of December 30th, 1916, article 22, which fixes at 15 centimes the rate for letters of 20 grammes.

By the advice of the Minister of Commerce, Industry, Agriculture, Works, Posts and Telegraphs, and the Minister of Finances, Decrees:

Article 1.—The special postage stamp reading "stamp of the French Red Cross," created by the decree of August 11th, 1914, will be withdrawn after the supply of the same emergency is exhausted.

Article 2.—There is created in place of these (withdrawn) stamps, a new French Red Cross stamp which will be of 15 centimes postal value.

Article 3.—The difference between the selling price and the postal value will be mentioned on the stamp, and this will go to a commission instituted by the decree of August 8th, 1914, by the Minister of War, under the authority of the military and with the consent of the societies forming the French Red Cross.

Article 4.—The cost of making the first plates for the printing of the new stamp will be defrayed by the Central Committee of the French Red Cross.

Done at Paris, February 15th, 1917.

R. POINCARÉ,

By the President of the Republic.

The Minister of Commerce, Industry, Agriculture, Works, Posts and Telegraphs,

CLEMENTEL.

The Minister of Finance,

RIBOT.

V.

The French Colonies as well, had their "timbres de la Croix Rouge francaise," which were made by surcharging the current stamps. To this rule, there was, however, one exception: that of Tahiti. The current stamps of French Oceania were surcharged for use in Tahiti. There were eighty-four (84) types issued in the Colonies. The names of each colony and the number of types were:

Dahomey 1, Djibouti 1, Egyptian Offices 2, Morocco 8, Fr. Guinea 1, Fr. Guiana 2, Fr. India 5, Fr. Oceania 4, Fr. Gabon 3, Guadeloupe 2, Indo China 14, Ivory Coast 1, Madagascar 1, Martinique 1, Mauritania 2, Middle Congo 2, New Caledonia 3, Reunion 3, Saint Pierre et Miquelon 2, Senegal 2, Tahiti 2, Tunis 19, Ubangi 2, Upper Senegal and Niger 1

VI.

With apparent reverence to the doomed stamps, Le Collectionneur des Timbres-Poste (9 Blvd. Montmartre, Paris), in making the announcement that French Red Cross stamps were about to be recalled, stated the facts in a very brief manner, as one in sympathetic haste, who does not care to dwell long on the subject:

"Le timbre special de la Croix Rouge est supprime depuis le 1er avril."

The stamps were withdrawn by order of the decree of February 2nd, 1921. The document and translation follow:

Le President de la Republique Francaise.

Vu les decrets des 11 aout 1914 et 15 fevrier 1917, portant creation d'un timbreposte special denome timbre de la Croix Rouge francaise.

Sur la rapport du Ministre des Travaux publics et du Ministre des Finances,

Decret:

Article 1er.—Le timbre poste special denome "timbre de la Croix Rouge francaise" est supprime. Ce timbre ne sera plus valable pour l'affranchissement des correspondances a partir du 1er avril 1921; la vente aux guichets des bureaux de poste cessera apres le 28 fevrier 1921.

Article 2.—Le Ministre des Travaux publics et le Ministre des Finances sont charges, chacun en ce qui le concerne, de l'execution du present decret qui sera public au Journal Officiel et insere au Bulletin des lois.

Fait a Paris, le 2 fevrier, 1921.

We regret to announce that Mr. R. F. Robinson, former Sales Mgr. has resigned from the Society. All Circuits carried by him have been closed out, and owners will have been settled with by the time this item appears. His duties will be carried on by W. R. Patton, Box 2384, Winnipeg, who has been appointed Sales Mgr., until the Annual Meeting. Patton believes in quick service and will endeavor to have all circuits closed out in from three weeks to two months at the latest. In order to do this, circuits will go to six members only, thus giving every circuit about one month to go around. Members can all assist him by forwarding as soon after receipt as possible.

Since July 15th we have 77 new members, this in the space of three and a half months. At the present time we have more than doubled our membership since the summer, which is a very good increase. Credit is due the following for getting new applications as follows: Patton 30, Robinson 10, Wilson 9, Purvis 6, Haskell 5, Thompson 4, Douglas 4, MacLean 2, Peterson, Aubert, Roach, Cabeldu, Huggenberger, Ashby, Deaper, Campbell, Wood, Paul, Muirhead, Mrs. Oughtred, Mills, Mitchell and Nicol one each.

Our membership is now represented as follows:

Winnipeg	64	Jansen	1

Owing to Christmas coming on the usual date this year, there will be no Mail Auction in December. Also no meetings will be held at the Club Rooms on Dec. 21-28, nor on Jan. 4th.

Mr. McCoy, Exchange Manager of the M.P.A., paid us a visit on Oct. 26th and was warmly welcomed by the members present. It was unfortunate that, not knowing of his coming, we were unable to notify all the City members, as many who were not present that evening would have been very glad to see him. After the Mail Auction Mr. McCoy addressed the members regarding the M.P.A. We hope he was able to benefit the M.P.A. by his address.

Nominations were read on the night of Nov. 2nd by the Sect'y-Treas. as follows:
President, H. L. Pratt, A. H. Sutherland.
Vice-President, H. J. Couch, H. L. Pratt.
Sect'y-Treas.—W. R. Patton (Third Term) unanimous.

Directors: C. Blanchard, G. W. Brook, A. F. Cabeldu, H. J. Couch, G. D. Gilbert, V. W. Inglis, J. J. Kelly, W. L. Kendall, A. F. Mills, A. H. Sutherland, F. S. Thompson.

Ballots were mailed to all members in time for voting at the Annual Meeting, on Dec. 7.

—W. R. Patton, Sec'y-Treas.

SECRETARY'S REPORT FOR NOVEMBER

Applications:

438—Charles E. W. Sebbens, 11 Vine St., Worcester, Mass.; age 56. References: Merchants' National Bank, Worcester, Mass.; A.P.S. No. 995. Proposed by Byron B. Smith, Jr., No. 361.

439—Jimmie Moore, 512 Virginia St., Charleston, W. Va. Age 9. Student. Guaranteed by A. S. Moore, A.P.S., No. 6063, 1512 Virginia St., Charleston, W. Va. Proposed by Byron B. Smith, Jr., No. 361.

Expelled by order of the Board of Directors:

337—James B. Johnston, 21 Waltherly Ave., Ridgewood, N.J.

I regret that my first report as Secretary of the J.A.P.S. contains only two applications for membership. A society such as ours, the only national society that is run for the benefit of the younger collectors, should have at least ten times the number of members we have. However, the transfer of the secretaryship has now been completed, and I feel certain that next month will see a good many more applications posted than you see above. Application blanks may be had on receipt of a post card sent to me at 437 Pleasant St., S. E., Grand Rapids, Mich. Let every member during the next month, and every month hereafter, attempt to get at least one new member. Don't leave the work of recruiting entirely in the hands of the officers. They will do their duty in this matter, but in order to make this your Society, you must help in bringing new members into our midst. If you can't quite bring your prospect around to signing, send me his name and address and I will see what I can do.

The Year Book has been mailed to all members. If you have not received your copy, let me know and another copy will be sent.

A Special Junior Collectors' Edition will be run in connection with the Christmas Number of the C.S.C., which will be of paramount interest to all junior collectors.

Send in all the names of collectors you are acquainted with to the Editor, Canadian Stamp Collector, Brockville, Canada, and each and every one will receive a copy of this big, interesting issue as a sample copy. This will boost your society very materially. Act now!

Mr. Collector, have you stamps you wish to get rid of at a fair price? Then try our Sales Dept. Circuits are sent out nearly every day to good buyers, and settlements made as soon as three weeks in some cases. All you need to do is to send in your stamps, we find the buyers, pay postage, etc. and then remit for Sales, less 10%. Pretty easy for you, isn't it. We do all the work, you only do the mounting, and then collect the Cash.

Perhaps you would like to buy. Well, we have all grades from one cent up to as high as you wish. You should see some of our Circuits. It would make your mouth water just to look at them.

What about getting an application blank?

Did you read the Balkan Notes in July Copy of this paper — if so, read it again! If not,—read it! I was fortunate to get a few sets of this remarkable issue, which the Entente did prohibit, and now becomes a rarity, after being in circulation for two weeks.

An Invitation to the Collectors of America to Join the Junior American Philatelic Society.

The Junior American Philatelic Society should have the backing of every collector in America. We are the only society, national in scope, that is run primarily for the younger generation of stamp collectors.

The collectors of the world may be divided into two great groups; the younger collectors and their older brothers. But we want members of both these large groups. The younger collectors need us to give them a national society that is at the same time a junior society; they need us to give them Exchange and Sales Departments that have stamps belonging to juniors that are to be sold to juniors. We need these younger collectors in order to be able to say that we are a junior society that is at the same time a national society. Therefore, I say: You need the J.A.P.S.; the J.A.P.S. needs you; let's get together.

Similarly, the older collectors need the J.A.P.S. and the J.A.P.S. needs the older collectors. We need you, Mr. Older Collector, to back us up in our undertakings, to lend your influence, and to give us an opportunity to show that although we are a comparatively young society, the older collectors have faith in us and in our work. You need the J.A.P.S., Mr. Older Collector, because, as I have said before, it is the only society that is furthering the interests of the younger collectors to any marked degree. You are interested in the welfare of this great hobby, Stamp Collecting, and its future depends upon the younger collector of today, the philatelist of tomorrow.

We all need each other: The J. A. P. S. needs all collectors, young and old; the younger collector needs the older collector and the J.A.P.S.; and the older collector needs the younger collector and the J.A.P.S. So let's get together. Send a post card to the J.A.P.S. Secretary for an application blank; it costs only a cent.

Three times as many applications this month as last month, but we should have next month three times the number we have this month. Especial mention must be made of Mr. B. B. Smith, Jr., who proposes four members this month, and also asks me if I have received two other applications which he said were sent me, but which I have not as yet received. However, I do not expect all the members to turn in four or six applications a month, even though I should like it. If every member gets at least ONE member before the first of April, I shall be satisfied. That will more than double our present membership, and make the J.A.P.S. one of the most important wheels of that machine called Philately.

EVERY MEMBER GET A MEMBER

While speaking of membership, I want to warn all members to take care of whom they propose for membership. If you do not, there is a good chance that many undesirables will gain membership. Then there will be trouble, and someone will probably be expelled. And remember, every notice of expulsion is just that much discredit to the Society, It shows that we were lax about whom we proposed.

EVERY MEMBER GET A MEMBER

Are you taking advantage of your membership in the J.A.P.S.? Are you patronizing the Exchange and Sales Departments? Are you getting stamps priced by collectors who charge what they would want to pay for the same stamps themselves? It costs you nothing to do so, and you have many chances to save your membership fees.

Canadian Precancel Notes

(By Frank S. Thompson)

Moncton has so far issued the following in the new type mentioned last month: 2-cents, normal, inverted, double, 5-cents, normal, inverted, double, inverted, 10-cents, normal, inverted, double, 20-cents, normal, inverted, double, double inverted. It will be noted that the 1, 3 and 7-cent values have not yet appeared. However, they will probably show up before long, when supplies in the old type become exhausted. The 3-cent value of the old type will doubtless prove a very good item, the writer having been unable to secure even a single copy of this stamp. The 7-cent is also difficult to locate, but the other values seem quite plentiful.

Following are some of this month's new issues: Halifax, 7-cent double inverted, Walkerville, 1-cent double inverted, Winnipeg new type 5-cent normal and 7-cent double.

Ottawa is now using the 20-cents precancelled for mailing the war medals, in addition to the 10-cents recently noted.

With regard to the variety known as "diagonal," it should be remembered that this refers to a cancellation having an angle of forty-five degrees, or nearly so, and that if the angle approaches more nearly the horizontal or vertical position the stamp should be classified accordingly. It is probable that some of the diagonals listed in the catalog are not such in the strictest sense.

Those who have an accumulation of Canadian postage stamps issued between 1869 and 1902 would be well advised to sort over same for precancels of the bar variety. Time spent in this way is generally well repaid, most of the bar precancels being worth considerably more than Scott's catalog price for the same stamp with ordinary cancellation. To illustrate, in a small mixed lot recently secured the writer ran across a 2-cent numeral purple precancelled vertically in Type O, a variety previously unknown and the value of which would be many times Scott's quotation for the ordinary stamp.

The writer recently completely revised the Canadian section of the Standard U.S.-Canada Precancel Catalog, the new edition of which is now off the press. The system of types has been entirely re-arranged, pricing adjusted where necessary, and altogether 195 additions made, giving a total of 975 varieties issued to date. It would appear as though the thousand mark will be reached before the close of the present year.

Psalm of the Stamp Collector

Stamps are my hobby; I shall not want another;
They make me to see the ends of the earth;
They lead me to the islands of the sea;
They give me new visions.
Yea, though I lose my temper over the mail, the weather and the government,
When with my stamps I think no evil;
They cover me with the odor of benzine, and with pieces of hinges;
They fill with color many album pages.
Surely will I continue to collect
And to spend my hard-earned pesos,
Until collecting is no more.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

From all appearances we may look forward to a busy season from the Philatelic point of view. McCoy and Sours, for the M.P.A., are out for a record. Good luck to them.

The Secretary's Office is putting out these three pointed paragraphs on its official stationery:

1. The Sales Department calls you.
2. The Exchange Department wants you.
3. If you are buying or selling moderate price stamps the M.P.A. Junior Sales Department is the place for you.

Have you suggestions to offer?

Only those members who have paid their dues for the current year will be listed in the Year Book. If you have not already sent $1.00 to the Treasurer, please DO IT NOW!

Manager Charles V. McCoy is to give us news of the doings of the Exchange Department in every issue of the O.O. Let us have the Sales and the Junior Sales do likewise, thus giving us a live monthly page to the credit of the M.P.A. Team work in any society (philatelic or otherwise) is the foundation of its prosperity.

Every member of the M.P.A. is to receive a blank form of application this month. Use them. Get a new member. And, if you should need more than one, the Secretary's office will see that you are supplied. "Twenty year old in July!" Let us make it 1000 members. This is called for by the fact that the M.P.A. for 1921 has gone over the 500 mark.

The contract for the Official Organ comes automatically to an end with the December number. Shall it be renewed? Are the members satisfied with the service? Now is the time for the members to express their views. Write to the Secretary's office.

Manager McCoy of the Sales Department is retiring all the old books in the Department, mostly on account of the new catalogue prices. Send a few additional books to the Department and arrange for a Circuit. Now . . . !

K. G. Rook, of Toronto, Ont., has been killed in an automobile accident. He was 19 years of age when he joined the M.P.A. in 1918, and worked then as a clerk in the Canadian Home Journal.

Editorial Chat

Merry Xmas All!! Here is our promised great special issue. Are you satisfied with it. Does it meet with your approval? Have you any suggestions to make that you think would improve the old C.S.C.

Write your opinion and send it in to the editor, in order that we can serve you to better advantage. Our motto for the coming year is "Service." All our efforts will be toward a larger and better paper at the old reasonable price as long as possible. Many friends ask us how we can put out a paper at 50c per year, but we leave it to you to judge whether it is worth the price asked or not.

Philately is prospering and will continue to prosper for many moons, and we want to wish you the best of good luck for this and all succeeding seasons. May your Christmas be filled with joys Philatelic as well as those which are universally known, among which Philately will eventually find a high place.

M.P.A. MEMBERS

Secretary Vertefeuille, in his report for this month requests you, as M.P.A. members, to voice your opinion in regard to the C.S.C. officiating as O.O. for the coming year.

New Issues

(By J. W. Robson)

Another year is passing on, for New Year's is near, and we are, I hope, filled with the happy Christmas spirit. We have had a glorious year, the weather has been fine, business has picked up, the Collector has prospered, and, above all, we have obtained many more New Issue correspondents. It is to these, and to all others that read this column, that I take the greatest of pleasure in wishing a very "Merry Christmas" and "Happy New Year"!

"May your business flourish. May your health be good. May your hobbies prosper"!

With every good wish, I am,

Yours,

JAMES W. ROBSON.

PART I.

(PART I. of these notes was prepared for insertion in the November number, but, owing to the fact that the copy arrived somewhat late, it was found impossible to print it in that number. We trust that the readers will forgive the delay.)

CANADA

Various English journals forecast the appearance of a 4c value here. I, myself, do not believe that such a value will appear; we have received no word of the preparation of such a value from the postal authorities and I am forced to think that this information is merely conjecture on the part of the English Journals' informants.

ABYSSINIA

Mr. D. R. Keith shows us samples of three recently issued provisionals. The first is 1g on $\frac{1}{4}$ g green, the second is 2g on 4d brown and pink, and the third is 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ g on $\frac{1}{2}$ g red and green.

AZORES

The following values of Portugal have been surcharged "ACORES" for use in this colony: 30c, 60c, 80c, 90c, 1e, 1.10e, 1.20e and 2e; also the Parcel Post stamps of 1c, 2c, 5c, 10c, 20c, 40c, 50c, 60c, 70c, 80c and 1e values; also the new 24c and 36c Postage Dues.

BELGIUM

"According to our Brussels correspondent, Mr. Raymond Keon, the new 50c blue (the Brussels Exhibition stamp, engraved and printed by Messrs. Enschede, at Haarlem, Holland) was due for issue on ordinary paper on October 5th or 6th.

"The same correspondent adds that the pictorial 50c is out of stock and no longer to be found in any post office. We have, however, received a number of copies through the post during the last few days."—Stamp Collecting.

BULGARIA

A set composed of eight values and issued in honour of the pro-Bulgarian journalist, the late J. Bouchier, has recently appeared. It is composed as follows: 10, 20, 30, and 50 stot., 1, 1 $\frac{1}{2}$, 2, and 3 leva. Two values, 50c blue and 1l green have been issued as charity stamps in the interests of widows and orphans.

COSTA RICA

Upon the recent invasion of Panama by the Costa Rican army the 5 centimos blue stamp of Panama was overprinted in three lines, in black "ALMIRANTE OCCUPATION COSTA-RRICNSE" for use as a provisional. The "Commemoration Stamp" noted two months ago appears to have grown in size to a series of the following five values: 2c yellow and black; 3c green and black; 6c red and black; 15c blue and black; 30c brown, red and black.

CHINA

The following paragraph is taken from "Stamp Collecting," who, in turn, took it from the "Daily Telegraph":

"China is preparing to issue a new general series of postage stamps to replace the current set, which has been in use, with slight modifications, since 1918. Following the practice of the great American Republic in giving pride of place to Washington on its stamps, China is going to present a picture of Confucius on the low-value stamps of the series. It is generally considered nowadays that the stamp of highest honour is the stamp in most general use, so that lesser celebrities are relegated to the high—and little used—denominations. Confucius will figure on the values from $\frac{1}{2}$ cent to 10 cents, and his will be the only portrait in the series. For the 13 cents to 50 cents values a second design, with a camel as the central device, will be used, the camel being the transport animal extensively used for the conveyance of mails, especially in the north of China. A third design, to be used for the dollar values, will depict a pagoda."

"CHINA" has been surcharged on the 50c black and yellow-green stamp of Hong-Kong, 1921.

DENMARK

A new 10 ore stamp has been issued in green on watermarked paper. We are informed that it is solely for official use.

FIJI

"Stamp Collecting" says: "We have to thank a correspondent for submitting a copy of the 4d K.G., printed from Plate 8, on thick paper, with ORANGE BACK. This was put on sale in Fiji on or about January last, and was, in June, superseded by the issue on thin yellow paper."

FINLAND

A new 10p. blue value has been issued in the lion type.

GAMBIA

This colony has brought forth two new stamps, viz.—4s black and red on white Script C.A. paper, and 5s green and red on the new yellow paper—old watermark.

GERMANY

Copies of four new provisional stamps have just arrived. They list as follows 1.60m on 5pf brown; 3m on 1¼m orange and violet; 5m on 75pf. violet; and 10m on 75pf. violet.

HOLLAND

The values of 5c green, 12½c scarlet and 20c blue have recently appeared.

Mr. Bond submits a 4c lilac denomination in the type of the current portrait series.

HUNGARY

The values 10, 20, 60, 100, 250, 350, 500 and 1000f have been issued in various colors with the values in the center in black by way of an unpaid letter series.

ITALY

15 cent, 25 cent and 40 cent stamps have been issued to commemorate the centenary of the poet Dante. They will be sold and used as state stamps. The first value is claret, the second blue, and the third brown.

JAPAN

The following four values have been issued in commemoration of the return of the Crown Prince to Japan, (Sept. 3rd). They are: 1½ sen violet; 3 sen light green; 4 sen red; 10 sen blue. The 4 and 10 sen stamps are quite difficult to obtain.

LUXEMBURG

"The remaining values of the new stamps with portrait of the Grand Duchess Charlotte have now been issued, and are as follows: 2c brown, 3c olive, 6c violet, 10c green, 15c olive-green, 25c blue-green, 30c carmine, 40c orange-red, and 50c blue. All are in sheets of 100, except the 3c and 6c, which are printed in sheets of 25. The 15c stamp is in a new colour; the carmine stamp has been withdrawn, as this colour has been allocated to the 30c value.—"Whitfield King's Bulletin."

LATVIA

We have received two triangular shaped stamps, issued for aeroplane service. The values are 10r in green and 20r in blue, both bearing the design of an aeroplane ascending over a building.—Economist Bulletin.

MEXICO

On September 1st the following stamps of a "Centennial Issue" were put on sale: 1c lilac; 2c green; 3c brown; 4c red; 5c orange; 10c blue and orange; 15c steel-grey and red; 20c carmine and blue; 50c red and black; 1p blue and black; 5p carmine and black.

MALTA

The appearance this month of a "Constitution Set" is expected.

MOZAMBIQUE

War Tax of 1918, 5c red value, provisionally surcharged "SEIS-CENTAVOS" in green.

NIUE

Mr. Derek Ingram writes: "The 6d King George has been issued with the overprint "NIUE" in deep blue. The sheet has the same two perforations as the other values."

NETHERLAND

"A new 4c Queen type has been issued in violet and the 20c value, oblong in blue with numerals in the centre.

"We have also received two new unpaid letter stamps, the 11c. blue and 1g 1d vermillion."—Economist Stamp Co.

NORWAY

A 20 ore olive value has been issued in the type of 1910-1920, perf. 14½ x 13½.

NEW HEBRIDES

Two provisional values have been prepared, viz.: "20c" on 30c brown on yellow paper (Scott's No. 31), and "2d" on 40c red on yellow paper (No. 32).

We clip the following from "Stamp Collecting":

"New overprint plates containing the word "Palestine" in English (black sans serif capitals), Arabic, and Hebrew, have been made, and E.E.F. stamps of the following duties have been overprinted and dispatched—i.e., 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 milliemes, 1, 2, 5, 9, 10 and 20 piastres.

"The 1 piastre duty is of a different shade of blue from previous supplies.

"The stamps are printed in sheets of 240, on G.R. and Crown watermark paper."

ROUMANIA

"Mr. F. S. Warburg informs us that he recently purchased—for two-pence!—a variety of the 1b black of 1918, perf. 13½ (overprinted to commemorate the recovery of Transylvania and the return of the King of Roumania to Bucharest), having the red monogram INVERTED.—Stamp Collecting.

Mr. W. N. Tanner, Jr., submits several stamps which, he states, have not as yet been listed. Two values, 50 bani brick shade, and 1 leu carmine show the head of the Roumanian King in a small oval in the upper right division of the stamp.

The same correspondent also submits a copy of the "Social Assistance" stamp listed by us two months ago. It is the 10 bani green value and depicts three figures—an old man, a woman and a child. The mother is the central figure. The group suggests the infirm, and the mother and orphaned.

SALVADOR

The following interesting paragraph, taken from Scott's Monthly Journal, should prove of value to many collectors.

"Mr. A. Roterberg has shown us some things from this country which we think should be described, so that collectors may know what they are. They are varieties of the provisionals of 1920, and might be mistaken for errors. First, the 5 cents on 50 cents slate, surcharged in yellow instead of black. Second, the 6 cent on 25 cent dark brown, surcharged in red instead of blue. Third, the 29 cent slate, surcharged 35 cents. The last surcharge was normally applied to the 50 cent. The first and second are stated to be proofs or trial impressions. It will be well to bear this in mind, as it is not impossible that, at some later date, there may be an attempt to market them as errors. Concerning the third, the only statement made to Mr. Roterberg was that "Only forty copies of the 29-cent were surcharged 35 cents." This may have been done by mistake and the stamps may have been put in stock and sold, but until we have evidence of this from official sources, it would seem well to regard the stamps as trials.'

ST. HELENA

Owing to a revision of the postal rates here, as elsewhere, various new stamps are required. The new stamps noted to date are the 1d green, 1½d. red, and 3d blue.

SIERRA LEONE

The 2s violet and ultramarine has appeared on the new Script watermark white paper.

SILICIA

The Economist Stamp Co. informs us that they have received sets of four varieties, 10f, 20f, 40f and 60f. showing the design of an eagle and inscribed "1921 GORNY SLASK." They are roughly executed and unperf.

STRAITS SETTLEMENTS

"A new 12c postage and revenue stamp is on order. The same design as the 2 cents will be used, and the stamps will be produced from a single working plate. The colour will be blue.—Stamp Collecting.

TUNIS

Two new stamps, a 10c green and a 50c blue, type of 1906-20, and perf 14 x 13½, have been added to the present issue.—Champion's Bulletin Mensuel.

URUGUAY

The 2c red stamp, type 1921, has been surcharged "MENSAJERIAS." The 2c orange has appeared in a new design that shows a small figure standing on the globe.

WURTEMBERG

The "State Authorities" stamp of 1916-1919, value 25pf. has been surcharged "25 pf." in the same type figure as Scott's No. 278 and 279.

NORTH WEST PACIFIC ISLANDS

"N.W. PACIFIC ISLANDS" in black, has been overprinted the current 2d Australia C.W.

POLAND

Mr. Wm. Tanner, Jr., sends us three values in a new series. They are 10m blue, 15m pink, and 20m carmine. The design shows a brave Pole who has thrust his sword into the ground and commenced to sow his field with grain.

The same correspondent also submits a 25m purple and yellow value, eagle design. We learn that a 5m value in brown has appeared in the same design.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

Mr. W. N. Tanner, Jr., shows us variously overprinted stamps as follows:

Issue of 1917, 1c buff, 2c lilac brown, and 5c red (Scott's Nos. 232, 233 and 236) surch. "M.J.I."

Our correspondents do not state whether or not the latter stamp will be overprinted for the Canal Zone."—Scott's Monthly Journal.

SECRETARY-TREASURER'S REPORT FOR NOVEMBER

Meetings are held every Wednesday night at 8 p.m., Room 404, Notre Dame Investment Bldg. Visitors and intending members are cordially welcomed.

The following have applied for membership:

- 158—Alan S. Martin, Box 820, Halifax, N.S.
- 159—William Given, 543 Ossington Ave., Toronto, Ont.
- 160—Richard H. Smith, Box 13, Sackville, N.B.
- 161—R. P. Craig, Birdtail, Man.
- 162—J. W. Douglas, 67 Donald St., Winnipeg, Man.
- 163—A. N. Smith, Grayson, Sask.
- 164—Norman R. Hendershott, Merchants' Bank of Canada, Newbury, Ont.
- 165—John P. Fleming, 474 Strathecona Ave., Westmount, P.Q.
- 166—W. Martin, 13 Redhill Ave., Toronto, Ont.

If no objections received by Jan. 25th, the above may be made members.

Resigned.

- 8—H. Edwards, resigned.

Change of Address

- 6—H. Hanks, removed from Box 207 Chauvin, Alta., to 457 Cumberland Ave., Winnipeg, Man.

Removed from List for Non-payment of Dues

- 31—C. H. Kelly, 71 Notre Dame Ave. East, Winnipeg, Man.
- 44—J. S. Mortimer, 603 McMillan Ave., Winnipeg, Man.
- 45—D. H. Boyd, 202 Lenore St., Winnipeg, Man.

The above members will be restored in good standing on payment of membership fees:

A very heavy vote will be cast at the Annual meeting on Dec. 7th. Many mail votes are in already. Frank S. Thompson, the Canadian Precancel Expert, has been working hard for over two months on the new Constitution, and it would appear that he has done a mighty good job. He is one of the nominees for Directors, and his work on the rules alone, certainly entitles him to the position.

Report on the Annual Meeting will appear in the next issue of the Collector. Owing to the C.S.C. going to press earlier than usual, we are unable to get our report ready in time for this month. The Annual report will be well worth reading by every collector in Canada, and it is anticipated that when the Year Book comes out in January, many applications will be received for membership. Any one desiring to put Ad. in the Year Book would do well to write the Sec'y-Treas. Pages will be slightly larger than the C.S.C. and costs of advertising will likely be $5.00 per page; $2.50, ½ page, and $1.25 ¼ page. There will be 500 printed, and mailed out to all members and other desirable collectors in Canada.

SASKATCHEWAN TELEPHONE FRANKS

(W. H. Howes)

In 1907 the Department of Telephones took over the long distance lines owned by the Bell Telephone System and the North Saskatchewan Telephone Company.

The Bell Telephone Company had been using franks in connection with their lines for certain purposes. These remained in use until 1909, when the Department decided to discontinue the use of Bell Telephone franks and to introduce an official set, so the following circular was accordingly sent to all the Long Distance Telephone Booths in the province.

Regina, Dec. 3, 1909.

To Agents:

Method of Reporting Free L.D. Business:

The instructions contained in the Bell Telephone Company's Circular No. 200, Dec. 16, 1907, are hereby cancelled.

Dating from July 1st Free L.D. Business must be reported on Form No. 278.

Enclose coupons with forms No. 278 in a sealed envelope inserting on the envelope the name of the office, month, and amount of coupons enclosed.

Insert without fail in the lower left hand corner of Form No. 278 information asked for.

Your obedient servant,

J. Sutherland,
Superintendent.

These Franks are used chiefly by Linemen, for sending messages on official business, they giving them to the booth operators in payment for messages sent. The operators forward them to the Department, receiving credit for them the same as cash.

The Franks are also used by other Telephone and Telegraph companies who exchange facilities with the Department. They are only of use in the province.

The franks are slightly smaller than the ordinary postage stamps. The design consists of an engraved coat of arms surmounted by a numeral of the value and c. The whole surmounted on two sides by the two words: Government Telephones. The design has a background consisting of a number of fine lines. At the bottom is the Series letter and frank number in red letters.

They are issued for use in small booklets similar to the booklets used by the post office.

The Franks come in two series:

Series B.:

Five cents. Orange yellow color.

Twenty-five cents. Light green.

The Series B are issued to employees of the Dept. only to be used on Departmental Business.

Series C.:

Five cents. Grey.

Twenty-five cents. Blue.

Issued to certain corporations who exchange facilities with the Department.

So far I have been unable to find any variations of shade or perforation.

We Are After You

And after you have read this friendly little message you will be glad that we did get after you. But first a word of explanation,—we wanted to get word to every reader of the "Canadian Stamp Collector," and thus decided to address an open letter to YOU. So here we are!

How Often Have You Been Stung?

By the nasty Bargain Bee? Just about the worst kind of stingem-sting-often of which we know. Some packets are made punk: some packets contain punk; while some packets fairly smell punk. Of course no reputable dealer will knowingly sell you poor goods, but too often some raw stuff will "get by."

But enough of this doleful dirge. We will change the subject and be a bit jolly. There is plenty of reason to be, so, too.

Cheero, My Hearties! Something New In Packets

Come one! Come all! Read about the niftiest lot of packed-with-value packets that you ever heard of. Full of worth-while stamps, jolly good value and all in the pinkiest-pink of condition. Come on, you Condition Cranks! You will not be disappointed with these packets. They are the Real Cheese.

EVERY STAMP EXAMINED FOR CONDITION!
EVERY STAMP GUARANTEED GENUINE!
QUALITY IS THE BEST ECONOMY!
QUALITY IS THE BIGGEST BARGAIN!
QUALITY FIRST, THEN THE PRICE!
QUALITY IS SATISFACTION!
QUALITY IS EVERYTHING!

555 for	$ 1.11	3333 for	$ 33.33
999 for	$ 2.66	4444 for	$ 55.55
1111 for	$ 4.44	5555 for	$ 66.66

Here is where we stop. Just at present we can't go further. But if you will "Feather your Nest" by picking out YOURS NOW, you will be so pleased with what you will get, that you will only wish, "Gee, if it had only been a larger one."

ADVERTISING CANCELLATIONS

(By A. H. Pike, Buffalo, N.Y.)

Here is something of more than passing interest to philatelists as well as the postmark collector and it is a regrettable fact that so little has appeared on the subject in the hobby press.

Canada as well as the United States, has taken full advantage of this means of advertising. They usually mark important events of a national character, although Canada has featured more or less local events on some of these cancellations. Regardless of this fact, each and every one is of sufficient interest and importance to make them worthy of a place in the collections of all stamp men.

As a rule they are only current for a short time, although there are exceptions. It is important that collectors watch for the "new issues" as early dates are considered and varieties are shown in the spacing of the letters. Something may happen to a die so that it is necessary to order a new one. All dies are hand cut and the engravers are supposed to follow a definite design, but many times they fail to do it.

This is a field for the specialist for many minor varieties can be found, but even the regular varieties offers a strong incentive to the man with the collecting instinct. There are several manufacturers of cancelling machines and the collectors should be able to recognize the impression of each. Although similar in some ways, there is sufficient differences to make them readily distinguished.

Canada offers a very fertile field for the collector of advertising cancellations and it is hoped that all readers who have not as yet started a collection, will take immediate steps to do so. Many of the varieties are now rare and demand a good price, but there are hundreds that can readily be obtained at little or no cost.

Since the International Postmark Society was formed in 1912 the hobby has been placed on a sound working basis. It was agreed from the start to cut all marks exactly 2 x 4, and to file them in trays like a card index instead of mounting in books. The size makes it convenient to thumb them over and also is sufficient to include the complete design of postmark and cancellation as well as the stamp.

At least a thousand collectors that I know of are enthusiastic devotees of the postmark hobby, and I am sure that they get as much pleasure from their collection as the philatelist of unlimited means who devotes his time and money to rarities. Stamp collecting has grown from a hobby of juveniles to a full grown man's job, and besides the men who are keeping up with the game have to have a fat income. There are many of us who can't keep up the pace, but there is no use of getting discouraged and giving up collecting, for there are many side lines that can supply all the thrills and pleasures if we look around for them.

In the collecting of postal markings there are unlimited possibilities and the specialist can find various methods to gratify his desires. Quite a large collection can be formed at little or no expense, as sufficient collectors can be found who are glad to exchange. When it is necessary to buy, the price is reasonable. It is a real hobby for the man of small means, and the man with plenty of money can go in as deep as he wants to by specializing.

A check list of the advertising marks of Canada and the United States is in preparation, and it is hoped that before the year is over it will be published and available to those interested. It is planned to illustrate the main varieties of design and in this way it will be a great help in completing collections and affording collectors an intelligent description of all varieties.

Who's Who in Philately

(By Geo. M. Moreland)

Benjamin Franklin

A great many of the stamps of the United States, including the popular first stamp issued by this country, bear a likeness of Franklin.

His was one of the most noted careers among all the great careers of Americans. Born in Boston in 1706, he struggled against adversity and secured an education, taking the trade of printer, in which he became famous in Philadelphia, the city of his adoption. In science, he was also notable, his electrical researches first proving that lightning and electricity were identical. Many other scientific discoveries are accredited to him.

Probably he was best known in his role of statesman. In colonial days he was prominent in affairs of state. During the Revolution he was sent as Ambassador to France to secure the aid of that country in the war for Independence. He was also Governor of Pennsylvania for several terms, having been elected unanimously. He was Postmaster at Philadelphia, was Postmaster General under royal appointment during the colonial days, thus serving Canada as well as what is now the United States. It is probably for this reason that the United States always honors him by using his picture on one of its stamps, the lowest denomination usually bearing his face, except since 1912 when the custom was reversed and all values above the 10c bear his picture.

Some of the stamps on which his face appears cost small fortunes, while others may be bought at a penny per hundred. His genial and fatherly face is quite familiar to all collectors of the stamps of the United States. He died at Philadelphia on April 17th, 1790.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success— Activity in Sherbrooke, Que.

At the regular meeting of the Eastern Townships' Stamp Club, held in October, the members took up the stamps of B.N.A. and enjoyed themselves very much with Mr. J. A. Barrie. On Nov. 1st, a very large number came out and enjoyed the talk by Mr. F. L. Belanger on the stamps of the U.S.A., and saw his large collection. The club is growing, there being four new collectors present. Enthusiasm ran high, and the members determined to meet at the Y.M.C.A. every first and third Tuesday. At the next meeting Professor Richardson will exhibit his fine collection of Great Britain and give a talk on the stamps of that country. An auction sale, a chance to exchange stamps and to compare for shades, etc., kept everyone busy the whole time. If all our meetings are as successful as the past, the winter will be a busy season for our members.

The second meeting in November was the best we have yet held. The stamps of Great Britain and the talk upon them by Professor Richardson, made the evening all too short. Early in December a great treat is expected when the club hopes to have some of the Montreal stamp collectors present with their collections. The details of the program are not fully worked out but we hope to have a record attendance as the last of the sessions for the year.

MEXICO

Mexico celebrates this month, philatelically and otherwise, the centenary of its independence, and can look back on a hundred years of history marked by many false steps, losses, and shattered dreams and hopes, but she is certainly entitled to all the consolation that can be gleaned from the old saying: The first hundred years are the hardest. In the hundred years two attempts have been made to restore a monarchy, first Emperor Iturbide and second that of Maximilian, backed by Louis Napoleon. Diaz brought the country out of chaos and disorders only to have it slip back when his regime was overthrown.

Many political events in the history of the Land of the Montezumas has been recorded philatelically, especially since 1910.

Scott's Number One

Priced by Scott at $11.40

The entire remaining stock of these stamps has been placed with us for quick sale. As long as last we are going to offer them three ways.

Besides numerous different maps on the backs of the stamps there are four distinct sheet varieties—Printings from Plate I. or II. each with map normal and with map inverted. Marginal copies come with plain back and with wording on the back. We therefore offer—

Full Sheet at $1.00

A Page for Your Album (See Below) $1.00

A whole page full of this stamp including several different single copies, several different pairs, both vertical and horizontal, several different blocks of four and two different big blocks. This lot gives you a wonderful showing, enough for two or three pages, between 75 and 100 Stamps.

A Big Block, 25c

A block of 20 stamps also single copies with map inverted, map normal and plain back, all for 25c.

LINN'S STAMP NEWS is a 16 page publication, same size as this magazine and it is crammed full of bargain prices on stamps. We do not believe that there is another publication in the country which prices so many different stamps each issue as you will find priced in our News.

A sample will be sent for a postal request. A whole year for 25c Canadian Paper Money and we will give you free a set of 20 different Reprints of Confederate Stamps, in many colors, reprints made from an electrotype of the Original Plate.

This Latvia offer is just a big sample of the sort of prices we make on many items. These sheets originally sold up to $50 each. Most dealers can't supply at all and those who have them have been asking $1.75 to $2.50.

BRITISH COLONIALS

On this and the following pages we offer a considerable line of these ever popular stamps. Only items quoted we think we have enough of to meet a reasonable demand, but to provide for anything being sold out we would like a small second choice order, to be used only in case the first choice items are out. If you do not see what you want offered, ask us for it. We carry British Colonials about 90% complete at all times and have a splendid line, but too few of most to offer here.

Condition

On the earlier issues our prices are for good average copies, not damaged in any way. Those who insist on picked copies must pay accordingly. Everything is in good to fine condition, and most of the unused offered have never been hinged.

Orders for less than 50c respectfully declined. Customers known to us can remit on receipt of goods, but you run no risk in remitting in advance, as we will refund or change unsatisfactory items, except for those who ask for early issues in superb shape as noted above.

This sign (*) after a stamp or stamps, means they are unused. Scott's 1922 Cat. numbers given.

Whole No. 19

MANITOBA LAW STAMPS (Final Draft)

(Senator J. A. Calder)

The Manitoba Law Stamp Act, 1875, provided that law stamps should be used on legal documents from and after a date to be fixed by Order-in-Council. This order, passed on April 20th, 1877, fixed May 1st of the same year as the date upon which the use of stamps was to become compulsory. Law stamps continued to be used in Manitoba until June 1st, 1901, when they were abolished.

The regular issues of these stamps are oblong in shape and are engraved bearing the design of a figure of Justice standing and holding in her uplifted hand a pair of balances. The 10, 20, 25 and 50-cent values have the words, "Manitoba Law Stamp" in two curved lines at the top and the value at the bottom. The $1.00 and $2.00 stamps have the value at the top and immediately beneath the value in curved lines the word "Manitoba" and across the bottom the words "Law Stamp."

There are two distinct types of the regular issues printed from different dies. The first type has nine scrolls or scallops down each side and all stamps are perforated 12. The second type has only six such scrolls. The surcharged varieties of this second type are all perforated 12½ and the unsurcharged varieties are perforated 11—at times approaching 11¼ or even 11½.

The paper used for all the regular issues is of a white wove variety, unwatermarked, and of medium thickness except in the case of the surcharged varieties of the second type. In all of these the paper used is thicker and much softer and is therefore much more easily torn.

The color of the stamps of the first type varies from a light yellow green to a blue green; that of the second type, surcharged, is of a uniform deep olive blue green; while that of the second type, unsurcharged, ranges from yellow green through olive and blue greens to a deep black blue green.

Prior to May 30th, 1892, all stamps or other, in many cases two surcharges being used. These surcharges indicate the purpose for which the moneys derived from the sale of stamps were to be used. When stamps were first issued two funds were designated, namely, "The Consolidated Revenue Fund," for which stamps were surcharged "C.F." and "The Law Society Fund" surcharged "L.S." At first stamps of these two varieties had to be used on all legal documents. The use of "L.S." stamps was abolished from April 29th, 1884, and of "C.F." stamps from July 1st, 1886. On this latter date stamps were issued for two new funds which were created, namely, "The Administration of Justice Fee Fund" surcharged "J.F." and "The Building Fund" surcharged "B.F." The use of "B.F." stamps was abolished on March 5th, 1889, and of "J.F." stamps on May 30th, 1892.

Stamps bearing two surcharges such as "C.F." and "J.F." — "C.F." and "B.F." — "L.S." and "J.F.", and "L.S." and "B.F." are accounted for by the fact that when the use of "C.F." and "L.S." stamps was abolished the remainder of the supplies on hand were again surcharged for the purpose of designating the new funds created.

In the case of all regular issues the surcharge "C.F." was printed on the centre of the stamps in large block type in black and the surcharge "L.S." in similar type but in blue black. Stamps bearing two surcharges one of which is either "J.F." or "B.F." had the latter surcharges stamped thereon by hand in red or violet ink and as a consequence these surcharges vary considerably in appearance depending upon the care and pressure used. These second surcharges were placed in any position on the stamps but chiefly diagonally reading either up or down.

When certain of the old stocks with the two surcharges ran out the new stamps ordered were unsurcharged and as required the letters "J.F." or "B.F." were similarly hand stamped thereon. Of these the 10c was first received on March 12th, 1887, and the 25c and 50c on September 14th, 1888. Later on, stamps of the first type were ordered with the letters "J.F." printed thereon. There were two varieties of these—the one with large blue block letters being received in stock on August 26th, 1889 (25c, 50c and $1.00) and the other with smaller blue block letters on May 29th, 1890 (20c) and on September 17th, 1891 (50c).

On May 30th, 1892, the use of unsurcharged stamps was authorized but the surcharged varieties on hand continued in use at the same time until they were exhausted. Unsurcharged stamps of both types were used. The use of all law stamps was abolished on June 1st, 1901.

All stamps of the regular issue, first type, were supplied by the British American Bank Note Company and those of the second type by the Bishop Engraving Company of Winnipeg. This latter Company received its first order in 1885 when it was asked to supply all values surcharged "C.F." None of the $2.00 stamps of this issue were ever used. They were subsequently all destroyed. Both of these Companies received orders from time to time which doubtless accounts for the shading in colors.

In addition to the above described regular issues various provisional stamps were used from time to time. The first of these appeared in the latter part of June and early in July, 1877. They were printed on yellow orange paper, imperforate and unwatermarked, bearing the Coat of Arms of Great Britain and small letters "C.F." in black. Each stamp is numbered and signed by A. Begg (Auditor and Queen's Printer. So far as is known they were in use for about two weeks and it is estimated less than one hundred copies of each of the denominations, 10c, 20c and 25c were supplied. The use of these provisionals was occasioned by the exhaustion of the supply of the regular issue of "C.F." stamps of the same denomination.

In the last week of October, 1877, the supply of the regular 25c "C.F." stamps again became exhausted and the second series of provisional stamps were issued and used for about three weeks. They were similar to the first provisionals but were not numbered. Some of them are signed by E. W. Romans (Deputy Provincial Treasurer); others are initialed by E.W.R. or by D.C. (Carey-Prothonatory); a few were initialed by both E.W.R. and D.C.; still others were neither signed nor initialed.

The third provisional issue made its appearance in September, 1881, when certain values of both the "C.F." and "L.S." regular issues ran out. These provisionals are also imperforate and are similar in design to the first provisionals except that the Coat of Arms printed in black is much smaller. The paper used was unwatermarked white wove and small letters "C.F." or "L.S." were surcharged in violet or purple ink with a rubber hand stamp. Occasionally the surcharge was written with indelible pencil and in some instances they were initialed by E.M. (Ed. Marston—Registrar and Clerk of Court) who received the document bearing these stamps.

The fourth provisional issue appeared about the third week in September, 1882, when there was a shortage of the regular 10c and 20c "C.F." values and "L.S." stamps of the same denominations were surcharged "C.F." in purple ink, the surcharge being of the same type as that of the third provisional issue. These are considered the rarest of all the Manitoba Law Stamps.

During the period the use of both "L.S." and "C.F." stamps was compulsory, mistakes frequently occurred in placing correct stamps on documents. In many instances these mistakes were rectified by Court Officers pen stroking the surcharge "C.F." and inserting in red or black ink "L.S." or vice versa. These surcharges are regarded as oddities rather than provisionals.

After April 29th, 1884, the "L.S." stamps were no longer required. Some of them were pen stroked and surcharged "C.F." with red or black ink. The only values which appeared in this form in any number were the 10c and 50c. They should be regarded as the fifth provisional issue.

In the latter part of 1884 and in 1885 the sixth provisional issues made their appearance. They consisted of the 10c, 20c or 50c values of the remaining "L.S." stamps being surcharged with the letters "C.F." in red by means of a hand stamp. There were three distinct varieties of this surcharge—small round letters, large round letters and long narrow letters.

Editorial Chat

Happy New Year, All! Nineteen-twenty-one has come and gone, and already changes affecting familiar societies are in evidence. The Winnipeg Stamp Society has had its name changed to the "Canadian Philatelic Association" and plans are on the way for a coast to coast canvass for members. We hope that the coming year may see this young society firmly established and in a prosperous and healthy condition.

Who's Who in Philately

(By Geo. M. Moreland)

Thomas Cochrane

Admiral Cochrane is honored on the 10 peso stamp of Chile's issue of 1910.

He was a British naval officer and the tenth Earl of Dundonald. He was born in Amesfield, Scotland, on Dec. 14, 1775. In 1814 he was accused of circulating false reports of the death of Napoleon, said to have been made for speculative purposes; was tried, imprisoned for a year, expelled from the British Navy and forfeited his seat in the British Parliament.

In disgrace, he left England, going to Chile, where he, as Commander of the Chilean Navy, performed valiant service for that country during its war for Independence.

In 1832 he was cleared of the charges against him and was restored to his position in the British Navy.

He died at Kensington, England, on October 31, 1860.

173—Robert R. Bruce, Czar, Alta. Principal School. Proposed by S. J. Haskell.

If no objection received by Feb. 15th, the above may be made members.

All members are reminded of the fact that their names will be omitted from the Year Book, if dues are not paid when copy goes to press.

The Annual Meeting was held on Dec. 7th and 14th. Attendance very small, only 32 present, and 6 represented by proxy. Three out-of-town members attended, J. H. Rowlatt of Portage la Prairie, H. Hanks of Chauvin, Alta., and S. J. Austman of Kenaston, Sask. President Sutherland opened the meeting with an address. He gave an interesting comparison of the membership, showing that we had 150 members this Annual Meeting, while at the last one there were only 38; also that we had gained 87 since July 15th. On May 18th we had started a Sales Dept., which in a space of 6 months had handled very close to $5,000.00 net in stamps. He also thanked the members for their good work during the year, in many ways, regretting that owing to there being so many, it was impossible to name them all. Lastly, thanking the Directors for their good work, and attention to duties necessary during the past year. Many meetings had been attended, often at great inconvenience. The Vice-President then read a brief report of the Sales Dept. up to Oct. 30th, showing that Circuits up to that date had all been retired, and owners settled with. Nothing in the Sales Dept. at present being two months old. After reading the Financial statement, the results of the voting were announced, as follows:

President—Sutherland 36; Pratt 17.

Vice-President—Pratt 26; Couch 25.

Secretary-Treas.—Patton, unopposed.

Directors—G. D. Gilbert 37; Thompson 35; Inglis 34; Couch 33; Cabeldu 29.

The new Constitution, drawn up by F. S. Thompson, was then read, after which the meeting adjourned until the 14th. The President asked the new Executive to attend a Board Meeting on the 13th, to commence at 7.30 p.m.

At the Board Meeting held on the 13th, on representations of the Sec'y-Treas. and F. S. Thompson, the name was changed to the "CANADIAN PHILATELIC ASSOCIATION (With which is incorporated the Winnipeg Stamp Society)." They pointed out that unless the name was changed at the Annual Meeting, it would cause a great deal of delay and expense. Also holding up the Year Book until February, and that if it was put up to a vote of the members it would pass almost unanimously. The name was therefore changed in the new Constitution. It was agreed by the Directors to also use the old name, as to keep up the name of the C.P.A. we would probably, in time, take in other local Societies, and in order that they would not lose their identity, we would include their names as affiliated with the C.P.A. Other business was transacted, and meeting closed at 10.30 a.m.

The adjourned meeting held on the 14th to consider the new Constitution. As the Year Book may not be out before this report, it would be advisable to enumerate the new changes, in order that the members may know what is going on.

The new name passed without one dissenting vote. Every member was in favor of the change, also considering the new name as being specially adapted to a Society, which is "For Canadians, in Canada, to help Canadian Philatelists." A proposal to allow prominent Collectors outside of Canada, who might desire to join, was voted down the night before, it being stated by the Secty-Treas. that many of the members were joining us understanding that this was a strictly Canadian Society.

The fees were raised to $2.50 for Winnipeg members, and $1.50 for all members outside of Winnipeg, the extra .50c being the cost of the official organ. Members will note from this that NO MORE SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE TO BE SENT TO THE C.S.C. as the paper is to be supplied free. All fees are to be paid at the rate of 1/12 of the above rates per month, to the end of the Calendar Year.

The Annual Meeting was changed from the first Wednesday in December to the first Wednesday in September, the latter being considered a better date.

Resident-Directors are to be appointed in all localities where there are five or more members. Toronto, Edmonton, Montreal, Yorkton and Calgary will elect their Director in January. Other places would do well to increase their membership, as we should have at least twenty Resident Directors. Mention may be made here of the splendid work of S. J. Haskell of Edmonton in keeping his City in first place until recently out-distanced by Toronto. He has got eight applications so far, and expects shortly to catch Toronto. H. W. Purvis also has done great work in keeping his town in fourth place, Yorkton having dropped from third recently by increase in Montreal members, and the removal of one of the Yorkton boys to Regina.

It has also been decided to add a Publicity and Information Bureau, and Librarian to the Society. W. R. Patton was appointed to the first, and F. S. Thompson the second.

A few additions were made to the Sales Dept. All stamps to be mounted in books only. No sheets to be permitted, owing to liability of damage, which often has to be paid by the Sales Manager. Books to be of a size to fit an ordinary envelope. The words "Stamps to be priced NET" added. Members must write their name or use rubber stamp when removing stamps from circuits. Initials not to be used. It might be stated here that several members have complained, that even after being passed as members, no Circuits have been sent them. For the information of all members, it may be stated that your name will not be entered on the Sales Dept. until you have sent in a written request to have same added. One member recently sent in stamps from Toronto for the Exchange Dept. This was done away with in May, 1921, and if members would only read over the monthly reports, application blanks, etc. (showing they have an interest in their society) they would be aware of this fact. The Sales Manager is also to be bonded.

Upon written petition of three or more members, at any time to change, alter, or amend the Constitution, the Board shall notify each member, also stating date when such alteration, etc., shall be balloted upon.

The commission for Mail Auctions to be increased to 15% commission for selling. Stamps to be sold to the highest bidder, unless a reserve is placed on lots.

The Year Book containing the full Constitution, membership lists, etc., will be mailed free to all members some time in January.

The following appointments were made at the last Board meeting:

Sales Mgr.—W. R. Patton, appointed temporarily.

Auction Manager—C. Blanchard, 124 Arlington St., Winnipeg, Man.

Librarian—F. S. Thompson, 374 Sackville St., Winnipeg, Man.

Publicity and Information—W. R. Patton, Box 2384, Winnipeg, Man.

Travelling Representative—John Wilson, Box 124 Winnipeg, Man.

A Board meeting is to be held on the evenings of Dec. 27-28, and it is expected that a Sales Manager will be appointed to relieve W.

R. Patton, acting temporarily. Much other business of importance will be discussed and some interesting announcements will be made in later reports. The Directors having determined that we are to have 300 members by the next Annual Meeting. New application blanks will be ready at once, and members are requested to use them. All old blanks are to be destroyed at once, and no applications will be passed until written out on the new forms. We only need about 150 members in the next eight months. Will you get them? Patton says we MUST get them. Members, your work of the last five months if repeated again, will more than give us our 150. GET BUSY and bring them in. Every member you get boosts Canada, and shows all other countries that we are a REAL, LIVE Association. Many people say we will not last this year. DO YOU BELIEVE IT? If you don't, get after them, boys. And remember, every member you propose should be reliable. Think this over. You have proposed several members, and after a time, charges are preferred against two of them. They are expelled, for instance. Would you blame the Board of Directors if they consider you a little unreliable? The members you propose either boost us or hinder us. A member expelled lowers the value of your Society as a reference. It shows your executive is looking after your interests, but it also hinders development. We want our Society to be a REAL one, for your benefit and also to benefit Philately in Canada.

Letter from the Acting Sales Manager Fellow Members:

As it is expected that we will appoint a new Sales Manager before the end of the year,, I take this opportunity of thanking all the members who have helped me as Sales Manager. My request for stamps to be entered in the Sales department has resulted in many members sending in books, to the extent of nearly $2,000.00. The greater majority being British Colonials, "fairly priced." This, more than any thing else, makes for a successful sales circuit. Some members will have their books returned with poor sales. Thus the Association suffers, as they will say "Can't sell my stamps there,," or "A poor sales manager." In the British Colonials we can sell everything and "practically all" in the Foreign. Now, if your stamps are priced to suit the buyers, they can be sold. Remember, a great many of our members are well read on stamps, and take many stamp publications, etc. When they receive your books, priced away above others, will they buy? Would you?

Mr. G. W. Brook handed me a book net $31.33
I paid him $20.00 on account then, only that a member has asked for some of the stamps left. H. W. Purvis sent a book net $12.08 on Nov. 11th, and had a credit of over $5.00 on Dec. 5th. Mrs. Oughtred of Montreal sent in some books, containing desirable British Colonials priced at less than half, also some Foreign at 1/3 down to 1/4 catalogue. They only went one circuit, the sales being so good, books had to be retired. Many other examples could be given to show that WE CAN SELL.

Again I wish to thank many of you, who have received circuits, and as soon as they had forwarded them to the next member, remitted me for sales. This helps us greatly in settling with members. It is discouraging work to have several Circuits come back within a couple of days, hardly any remitted for sales, nearly all sold, however, and books must be retired. Probably your Sales Manager is not very wealthy, but he MUST remit these owners for their stamps. What is he to do? He can return your books, and state that owing to not having yet received full remittances for Sales, he will forward shortly. Is that fair to the owner? Hardly, so the Sales Manager must use his own money, and possibly he can go without something he needs for a week or so, till the remittances come in. I am pleased to state, however, that our members have paid up, so that very little amounts are due.

Another matter. I thank all the members for forwarding Circuits so rapidly. Only five delays on the first 29 Circuits. This, I think is a very good record for the members of any Society. In delaying Circuits, members are delaying owners from receiving their money, it taking that much longer to settle. Also you put the Sales Manager in a bad position. All members are aware that we have six-men Circuits. Divided into Western, Winnipeg, Edmonton, Yorkton and Eastern. It is fairly easy to calculate how long any lot should take to go around. I am trying to settle with owners, and retire books in less than two months. This is long enough to have any man's stamps out, and the majority should be retired in that time. Every member forwarding Circuits within three days time is helping me to do this.

In closing I again thank you for your good assistance in helping me in every way, and would ask you once more, "Don't forget to sign your name (or use rubber stamp) at once when you remove stamps." I hope you will support my successor as nobly as you have supported me. THANK YOU.

Yours very truly,

W. R. PATTON, Acting Sales Mgr.

Call for Nominations.

Notice is hereby given that nominations are now in order for officers for the year 1922-23. Nominating petitions, bearing the names of at least ten members in good standing, must be in the hands of the Secretary by March 1. Should no nominations be received for any office, the Board of Directors shall complete the ballot with such names as they may decide upon. Ballots, accompanied with remittance blanks for dues for the forthcoming year will be mailed by March 15, and must be returned with dues by April 15. I might say right now that the sooner ballots are returned the easier will be the work for the Secretary and Treasurer.

Official Organ

So far three papers have made offers for the official organ for next year. All three papers make reductions in subscription for members of the J.A.P.S., offer space for reports, etc., and promise to co-operate with the Society to their fullest extent. The three papers are as follows: The Stamp Herald, formerly our official organ, but under a different ownership; the Philatelic Junch, a young humorous Philatelic publication, having up to the present time issued two numbers; and the Canadian Stamp Collector, our present organ. The rates charges for subscriptions for members vary, in the writer's opinion, in accordance with the values of the papers. Therefore, in considering what paper you want for official organ, consider how good an official organ you want. The dues of the Society, which include payment for subscription to the official organ, will be the same no matter what paper is chosen. Any information concerning any of the above mentioned papers will be furnished by the Secretary upon request.

PROOFS OF CANADIAN STAMPS

(By Fred. Jarrett)

Not enough attention has been paid to the "proof" branch of philately. A proof of a rare stamp is a thing of beauty and a joy forever. Nothing in Stampdom can surpass it in brightness of coloring and clearness of detail.

To appreciate proofs one must know something of the processes by which stamps are prepared. The design is engraved on steel and what is known as a transfer is taken from this engraving. The transfer is really a proof on transfer paper, and this proof is next transferred to the stone from which the stamps are to be produced. The transfers are laid on the stone until the complete sheet has been built up.

It will be seen that there are two kinds of proofs, one taken from the original steel engraving, and the other from the complete sheet. In the proof taken from the steel engraving the ink is delivered from the lines in the plate to the paper pressed upon it, giving a fine sharp impression, as there is a perceptible body of ink transferred to the paper from the cut lines. These proofs are always blessed with bounteous margins, and are of greater rarity than the proofs taken from the complete sheet.

A word may be said about "essays." The actual beginning of a stamp is the rough sketch which the artist submits, showing a suggested design. Assuming that this design is not discarded for another, the artist proceeds to elaborate on it until he has created in every little detail that which he had pictured in his mind.

Now the engraver takes a hand. An engraving is made and a proof taken off. Someone in authority may now discard this design in favor of something different. The design then becomes an "essay." It is easy to appreciate the greater rarity of these essays.

Next we have "color trials." The design of a stamp having been finally approved, the question of color remains to be decided. The beauty of a stamp may be enhanced by proper choice of color. Proofs of the stamp are taken in various colors and a choice having been made everything is ready for the issuing of the "regular" stamp. Newfoundland has a stamp showing a schooner with all sails set ploughing through the sea. It is a beautiful marine view but the stamp was unfortunately issued in orange instead of green, which would have been more appropriate.

We presume further consultation takes place as to whether the paper should be thick or thin, but that is a matter which does not concern us here, except to remark in passing that while proofs are found in various papers and even on cardboard, India paper is commonly used. The cardboard proofs are often India paper proofs carefully mounted by experts.

The engraving of a postage stamp is painstaking work. Particularly skilled in his art is the engraver who can in a space half the size of his thumbnail reproduce perfect portraits of Kings, Queens, Emperors and other important personages, whose privilege it is to criticize the slightest defect. Sometimes one engraving of a face or figure of this kind is used for a series of stamps. Many difficulties must be overcome before a satisfactory "head" has been engraved and accepted. Minor defects are often allowed to pass in respect to the balance of the stamp design, but not so in the case of the central design—the likeness possibly of a Queen who may have pronounced ideas regarding the way her portrait shall be presented to the world through the medium of her country's postage stamps.

A satisfactory "head" having been engraved for an issue, it is often used in making up the plates for the other values in the same series. The engraving for each of the other values of the set will be "minus the head" and this one master engraving will be used to complete the design of each of these stamps. The engraving for the head is slightly less in diameter than the width of the blank oval in the stamp, to allow for any slight variation in the centering which would otherwise mean an overlapping of the engraving at some point.

Compare the engraving of the Queen, than which there is no finer, in the 12d Black (the illustration in the catalogue will do) with the 7½d Green and the 12½c Green 1859. The head of Queen Victoria having been so well executed for the early pence issue and being available as a separate engraving, it was used as above described in completing the design of the 1859 stamp. Proofs from the original engraving of this, and other heads, are very desirable and rare acquisitions.

Proofs of stamps in the color of issue bearing the word SPECIMEN were sent out to the chief postal administrators of all countries in the Postal Union, for purposes of reference, we learn from Mr. R. Whole No. 20

OUR MODERN POSTAL SYSTEM

(By Joseph Ward)

It was on January 10th, 1922, that our postal service, unconsciously perhaps, celebrated its eighty-second birthday. In connection with the anniversary, philatelists—we folks who are unkindly called “stamp crazy”—were expected to be marvelling at the eighty-two years of betterment in the postal service, in this country and otherwise, but it is of interest to everyone in no matter what walk of life; peoples commercially, industrially, agriculturally, or scientifically employed, have all been benefited by the present day postal service, which is the outcome of a bit of advanced thinking on the part of Sir Rowland Hill, from 1835-1864.

Of course when we say that the present day postal system dates from 1840 we do not mean to give the impression that there were no means of communication previous to that date, for there were: From the time of written history until the middle of the 16th century a trusty friend, an imperial ambassador or minister, ship captain or a travelling monk irregularly performed mail carrying functions. The development of continental Europe brought forth a much needed semblance of standardization, and also a very lucrative monopoly. The German Counts of Thurn and Taxis were officially heralded as the hereditary postmasters of the Holy Roman Empire and of Spain. It was a goodly office and certainly profitable to the manager, but decidedly less so to the patrons of the service. The costs were high and the service at best haphazard and careless.

Such were the conditions prevailing at the time that Hill, a village schoolmaster, came to the rescue. In the United Kingdom there was in addition to the Continental abuses, a free franking privilege that made even higher rates.

The free frank was simply the right given to any privileged character to write his name on the piece of mail matter, and the post office would accept that signature as evidence of prepaid postage. This system is in use today in the United States, but of course only for official business, there being a fine penalty of $300 for all misuses. The privileged characters in those days were the Members of Parliament. The Members were allowed fifteen franks each day that the Parliament was in session; but as we might well expect of such a loose system, the franks were used even when Parliament was not in session, and it is a matter of public information that many a past-Member's mail went free on the strength of his signature up in the corner. Although intended for correspondence, the franking was often used to transport many kinds of things, there being instances on record of such posting of 15 pairs of hounds, a feather bed, two maid servants, a cow, a bale of stockings, coats, laces, and even a horse.

Of course someone had to pay for it, and it was then as it is now—the common fellow had to do the paying. Fully 90% of the bulk of mail was “free.” The public, while contributing 10% of the volume also “contributed” 100% revenue for the Department. In addition to the misuse of franks by the Members there was always a great flood of counterfeits. The penalties were quite severe for counterfeiting, forging, etc., in fact, we have heard of one Rev. Dr. Dodd of Tyburn being hung for this offence, but the flood was seldom non-existent.

The rates of the day were enormous, for instance, between:

London and Glasgow	1/3½
London and Edinburgh	1/3½
London and Aberdeen	1/4½
London and Thurso	1/5½
London and Londonderry	1/5
London and Paris	1/8
London and Egypt	3/2
London and Gibraltar	2/10

Because of the high costs of mail, dispatches of young people who were forced to leave their homes and find employment as governesses, apprentices, and other domestic servants, were separated from the home folks as though by death itself. Then, too, a letter was not always charged for the distance between the point of mailing and the point of delivery; the ways of mail routed were not as numerous or as direct as they are today. On this subject one humorist says that this indirect routing was for a reason, or rather a couple of reasons; to air the missive quite well; get the Department more revenue, and also to exercise the patience of the correspondents. We are inclined to agree with him.

The postage, besides being exorbitant, was collectable on delivery, so the mail carrier's rap on one's cottage door often meant more of a hardship than a joy-making event, and especially so if the shilling or more paid was to "lift" an advertising circular of a tailor shop. There are stories told of how a family was unable to spare the price to pay for a letter written by one of the older children now in the city working, in order to provide food for those remaining at home.

How Hill came to get the idea of his postal reform is said in Britain to have been the result of seeing a bit of netty fraud practised on the post office. While travelling in rural northern England, Hill was obliged to stay overnight at an inn. Early in the morning the district mail carrier arrived with a letter for one of the maids employed at the inn. The girl was summoned and given the letter. She looked it over and gave it back to the postman, saying that she did not have the shilling to "lift" it. Hill, always known for his good nature, came forward and gave the carrier his "bob" and the girl got her letter. After the carrier had left the girl told Hill very confidentially that while she appreciated his kindness it was entirely unnecessary. She and her brother had arranged a code of flourishes, etc., so that the address contained the message. This missive told her that all the home folks were well, and that a part of the farm had been sold at a profit. Hill was amazed at such a fraud and at once set down to figure out something better. He succeeded. Within twenty-four hours he had found a solution.

He took for statistical purposes the London - Glasgow or Edinburgh route. It cost the Department five pounds to make this trip, generally taking about 600 pound load. His solution was something like this:

600 pounds	£5
1 pound	2d
1 ounce	1/8d
1/4 ounce (1 letter)	1/32d

The Department charged 1 shilling, three and a half pence for a letter postage costing 1/32 of a penny—an amount too small to collect.

The introduction of a flat rate of postage was his original idea in a very few words. He also wished to do away with the free franking usage, the distance schedule for figuring rates as well as the other one computing charges by the number of sheets in an envelope. The prepayment of postage was also in his mind at the time of planning the "reform."

In 1837 he published a little booklet entitled "Post Office Reform," in which he expressed his ideas in a convincing manner. Because he held no office in any Government Department the Postoffice Department resented the interference of an outsider, but Hill, having made friends with the Duke of Wellington, was able to have his plan placed before the Members for voting in the budget of the Chancellor of the Exchequer. The people at first gave him the hearty laugh, but after the first roars of laughter had died away, they, and the newspaper press were with him. Just before the time to take a vote, petitions from nearly every hamlet and town in the United Kingdom had arrived. There were more than 250,000 signatures, and many a single signature stood for a trade body, town council, companies, and even banks. There were 328 votes cast; 215 to 113 in favor of Hill — nearly a 2 to 1 victory.

One of the themes expounded in his booklet was the prepayment of postage on mail matter. After the Department had adopted his plans, and made a place for him in the post office, he was asked if he would advise forcing prepayment rules on the people. But Hill did not. He knew that while prepayment was a better scheme, it would be resented by some people, as un-English and for other reasons, but he did advise placing the two: prepayment and the old system on the same standard, and let the public take their pick. He believed that they would choose his prepayment idea. As history records, they did.

In 1857 the amount of c.o.d. postage on mail matter was so small that it was decided to pass a law which would require people to use only the prepayment basis. But this statute was of purely academic interest: the

From Sales Manager Hollister

To whom it may concern:

I wish to thank the Directors of the M.P.A. for appointing me to the position of Sales Superintendent of the Society. I will endeavor to fulfill the place to the best of my ability. OUR MODERN POSTAL SYSTEM people had chosen—the present c.o.d. mail was mostly advertisements, etc.

The new system was placed in effect January 10th, 1840,—eighty-two years ago the tenth of last month.

Like all other "firsts" there were some people who wanted for future years a memento of the introduction in the British Isles of the cheap postage. There are indeed humorous stories told of how village postmasters were awakened a few minutes before midnight of January 9th, 1840, to receive some mail at the cheap rate effective at 12 o'clock.

The adhesive postage stamps, although certainly an invention of Rowland Hill's was not in the original scheme of his when he started out. But because a prepayment of postage must be shown by some evidence, he came to the conclusion that "Any difficulties in that plan might be easily settled by the use of a bit of paper, just the size to bear the stamp and having on the reverse side some sort of a glutinous wash which when moistened would stick the stamp to the letter."

Paris and one of the Italian States had stamped postal stationery, and another Englishman had brought up an idea of using a slip of paper to put under the flap of the envelope to mark prepayment, but the adhesive and gummed postage stamp is certainly an invention of Rowland Hill, later knighted for his work in the postoffice department.

The design chosen for the first adhesive postage stamp in the world was taken from the 1837 issue of coinage, intended to make familiar to her subjects the likeness of Her Majesty.

Then when the stamps started to pass through the mails there was another howl. The people, and especially the older folks, who saw the pretty portraits of Her Majesty cancelled with a smear of black ink, were highly aroused and accused the post office department of disrespect to the Queen. Others of less explosive nature sent in suggestions and one of these though not acted upon is worthy of note. The writer suggested that a frame cancellation stamp be used; one that would smear out the value and readings but leave the centre feature of design untouched. This style was actually used in Sardinia but never employed in the United Kingdom.

After seeing his long-cherished system placed in usage, Sir Rowland Hill did not stop his useful work. In 1854 he was made Chief Secretary and ten years later he was retired on full pay. His interest in the personal welfare of the postal employees was a talk of the times. He continued to write after his retirement, on postal affairs, "The Penny of the One Penny Post" was one of his works.

He was knighted and received £9,000 raised by public subscription.

In 1851 the first Canadian postage stamps were issued, and all other well regulated governments soon changed their postal services to conform with the suggestions of the noted Englishman.

Who's Who in Philately

(By Geo. M. Moreland)

Haakon VII.

Many of the present issue of the stamps of Norway bear the picture of Haakon, who since 1905 has been the King of Norway.

He is the second son of King Frederick VIII. of Denmark, having been born in Copenhagen on August 3, 1872. He was Prince Karl of Denmark. In 1896 he married Princess Maud, a daughter of King Edward VII. of Great Britain.

In 1905, when Norway separated itself from the government of Sweden, Karl was elected King of Norway and as Haakon VII. he ascended the throne of Norway on November 20, 1905.

His manner is democratic and his reign is proving one of progress and prosperity to his adopted country. During the great World War he occupied a difficult role, but by his good sense and rare judgment he managed to keep from entangling himself in any way in the great turmoil and remained neutral during the struggle.

IMPORTANT

In these days of frauds, loose dealings, etc., it is most difficult for us to tell who is who as to advertisers, and more especially when copy comes from afar, or arrives just as we are going to press.

Assuming that it will be to the interest and benefit of both our advertisers and readers, we purpose opening a column in our next issue, which if found satisfactory, will be continued in succeeding issues, listing the names of advertisers who have supplied us with references.

In pursuance of this venture, blanks will be forwarded to all advertisers now under contract. Other advertisers forwarding copy for next issue please use blank published on Page 7 of this issue (back of space occupied by this article), or write a similar one and have it signed by your banker or postmaster, also one or more business men of your locality—the more the better—and enclose with copy. We trust that you will co-operate with us in the matter of establishing as far as we can YOUR RELIABILITY, so that prospective purchasers, who, perhaps do not know you, or know of you, will thereby be more apt to initiate dealings with you.

We want to sell you advertising, and we want the advertising to sell your goods. If you are right we want to put you in right, at the start, so far as we can. The exertion required on your part will be small, we will do the rest. We feel assured it will pay you, and, incidentally, will pay us.

Let us hear from you, both advertisers and readers, what you think of this venture. We believe it to be new and original and would appreciate very much your opinion of it.

—Editor C.S.C.

It is regrettable that owing to delay in printing new application blanks, many new members are unable to be listed this month. Next month we will have a much larger list. Any member requiring blanks can have same at once from the Publicity Manager, Box 2384, Winnipeg, Man., or write the nearest Resident Director. Remember, we need 150 more members at once.

The Year Book will be out before this item appears. Delay was also caused in awaiting appointment of Resident Directors in some places.

Collectors of British Colonials—You can well smile! Do you notice how difficult it is to get some issues. The time is coming when 50% will not be known—only as a has-been. Even German journals are advertising for Br. Col. You can well afford to sit tight and smile. The secret of it all is: A collector starts off as a general collector and eventually winds up a specialist; there isn't enough for all, hence the scarcity. Standing on Recruiting to Dec. 31.

2—C. H. Hollister	11
3—B. B. Smith, Jr.	9
4—J. G. Bassler	7
5—George Danielson	5
6—R. K. Milne	4

Following, one each—Bogart, Hibbard, G. Dietz, H. F. Christenson, Thompson, Douglas, Hobart, E. Danielson, Harrington and Caulkins.

At the present time there is no contest going on for new members, but that should not mean that there should be any let-up in recruiting. However, why not, during the next year, let there be someone not an officer get the most new members? It does not look good to have our standings on recruitings bear only the names of officers. The Society belongs to all of us, so everyone should help in recruiting.

Do not forget that nominations must be in the Secretary's hands by not later than March 1st.

I desire to take this occasion to ask the members of our Society to write me, not necessarily about the workings of the Society, but about their collections and their experiences as stamp collectors. I should like especially to get news of younger collectors of various towns getting together in Stamp Clubs.

DON'T FORGET TO GET THAT MEMBER!

ever, are retained in official archives for reference purposes, and only those which are superfluous or not likely to be required actually come on the market. It is probable, therefore, that with very few exceptions these specimen stamps are very, very much rarer than the stamps which are issued to the public. Collectors as a whole have not yet realized their true philatelic interest and value. A few pioneer collectors and specialists do and have done so for some years, and it is only a question of time when every serious collector will realize that here is a group of very collectable varieties full of philatelic merit, of considerable scarcity, to be had at very moderate cost."

The following list of Canadian proofs is offered as a guide. Information regarding anything not listed would be appreciated by the writer:

New Issues

(By J. W. Robson)

CANADA

Two new one-cent values, both of the present design, have been put on sale here. They are: 1c orange-red on the Canadian Postal Card, and 1c orange-red on the Canadian Envelope. One of the English journals says that the 1c post card is to be used only for advertising. This is correct inasmuch as only printed matter may be sent for one cent now. The new 1c envelope will be used for the same purpose. Mr. J. D. Cox, Postmaster at Stenjack, N.S. very kindly sent us one of the above envelopes several months ago.

AUSTRIA

Mr. W. N. Tanner, Jr., informs us that the 15h (No. 237) was issued on Dec. 5th, Prov. surcharged 7½ kr. From other sources we learn that since then a permanent 7½ kr. value has been issued. It is believed that, owing to changes in postal rates, this value may not be in use long and will be, consequently, sought after. The color is yellow and brown.

"Stamp Collecting" lists the following new values: "1922, Jan. 1st. Newspaper adhesives. Helmeted profile of Mercury turned to left, in ornamental frame (square format). "Osterreich" in antique Gothic type at top and

"As to the other stamps, which are upright, we can only say that the 10 kr. has what appears to be an inverted Chinese padoga, and the 12½ kr. an upstanding ear of corn, with sundry ornaments which, in vulgar parlance, might be termed 'knobs.'"

"An advertisement in last week's Stamp Collecting referred to the 10 mill blue Postage Due Stamp of Egypt as "the latest modern rarity." The explanation is that this stamp was only on sale for a few days when it was withdrawn, the new one being printed in red. We understand that only 2000 of the blue stamps were printed, and that the balance left at the post office was destroyed.

"A companion stamp to this that should also be commercially good is the 4 mill. red Unpaid, recently issued, which was changed to green after a very short life."

FRENCH SOUDAN

Mr. Charles has very kindly sent sets of the new stamps listed below. These are the current and Postage Due stamps of Upper Sengal, and Niger and have been overprinted "SOUDAN FRANCAIS" in two lines, in black, and list as follows: 1c violet and brown; 2c brown and grey; 4c blue and black; 10c green; 15c yellow and chocolate; 20c black and brown; 25c green and black; 30c cerise and orange; 35c purple and red; 40c rose and grey; 45c brown and blue; 50c blue and steel-blue; 75c brown and orange; 1fr. grey-purple and brown; 2fr. blue and green; 5fr. black and violet, and a set of Postage Dues, 5c to 1fr. colors as in the set of 1915.

GERMANY

"Our Nuremberg correspondent, Mr. J. L. Riedel, informs us that, as from Jan. 1st, postal rates have gone up by 325%, letters abroad now cost 4 mk. This change will necessitate a lot of new stamps, while the low values from 5 to 40 pf. will become obsolete and will very likely be used for further provisionals.

"The same remark applies to Danzig and Memel, which have the same postal rates as Germany."—Stamp Collecting.

ITALY

The current 30c. Foreign Express stamp of 1908 has been surcharged "Lire 1.20" with bars, obliterating the former value. This prov. has been necessitated by the low rate of the Italian coinage. As will be remembered this stamp is blue and red in colour.

In reference to the Victory Set listed in our issue for December we learn that the stamps are inscribed "Vittorio Veneto Oct. mcmxvii," and bear the design of a statue.

INDIA

The current 1d stamp has been surcharged "NINE PIES—SERVICE." It is rumored that the I.E.F. stamps are soon to be obsolete.

JUGO-SLAVIA

"Sig. Giu. Brandi reports a new set of Pistage Dues, numeral design, perf. 11½, comprising the following values: 10 paras rose, 30 paras bistre, 50 paras violet, 1 dinar deep brown, 2d. blue." — Stamp Collecting.

LUXEMBURG

"M. Champion describes a copy of the current 15c. in rose instead of carmine, the shade being almost like that of the 30c value, and the impression having certain discrepancies. It appears that this is a new (third) printing, in sheets of 100 stamps.

LITHUANIA

We take the following from the "Times":

"Air post stamps in four additional denominations have been issued in Lithuania, with the central device of a winged posthorn: 20 skatigu ultramarine, 40 sk. yellow-brown, 60 sk. green, and 80 sk. rose. During November a set of six air post commemorative stamps was also issued there to commemorate the inauguration of the latest aerial mail service. These stamps, executed in large format, have for their design the plane. They were each printed in two colors as follows: 20 sk. orange and blue-gray, 40 sk. carmine and blue, 1 auks, blue and green, 2 auks orange and grey, 5 auks grey and purple.

"We now confidentially await a set of stamps commemorating the issue of these commemoratives.

SYRIA

Stamp Collecting notes the following new values:

1p on 5m, Postage Due, 2 and 3p, values overprinted "TAXE."

The following current adhesives of France were overprinted with the single word "Avion" in Roman Capitals, reading vertically downwards,—1p on 20c. brown-violet; 5p on 5fr. claret and olive; 10p on 2fr. red and blue.

SWEDEN

A 40 ore in blue and a 50 ore in slate, portrait of King design and perf at the sides only, have been issued.

TUNIS

A large new oblong value (same size as Canadian Confed.) and depicting the ruins of a Roman Aqueduct has been issued. It is 60c in value and olive and black in colour.

TRENGGANU

An entirely new set, on the new script wmk. paper and bearing a portrait of the new Sultan, has been received as follows: 2, 4, 5, 10, 20, 25, 30 and 50c, and $1.00, $3.00, $5.00 and $25.00. It is stated that the $1.00 value is also appearing on the old wmk. paper,

TURKEY

Seven values in the current pictorial set have been surcharged "T" and Turkish characters. They are to be used as postage due stamps. The 10p current pictorial has been surcharged "60 PARA"

UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA

Mr. Derek Ingram forecasts the withdrawal of the 2½d stamp and its replacement by a 3d value in the same colour and design. This has been necessitated by an increase in the foreign letter rate,

URUGUAY

Mr. Ingram also reports that on the occasion of the Aviation Fete held at Mercedes, Soriano, a special passenger flight was operated on November 12th last, between that town and Rocha, including the transport of mails.

For use on the latter a limited number of the 25c adhesive was overprinted in red, "Correo Aero," as was done (in black) on March 21st last for the passenger and mail flight then in operation.

MESOPOTAMIA

"The following Turkish stamps with British surcharge have been received on new Script wmk. paper: ½a on 10p., 1½a on 5p; 2r on 25p, also with additional surcharge on "State Service" ½a, 1½a, 4a, and 8a."—Economist Stamp Co.

SEYCHELLES ISLANDS

Practically all values have been issued on the new paper.

CZECHO-SLOVAKIA

In connection with a design for a new issue of postage stamps Mlle. Russo, a Moravian maid, has been chosen as the representative of national beauty. Oh dear! what an enterprising sales manager the posts of Czecho-Slovakia must have. And, from the young lady's picture, I am afraid that they will find a satisfactory sale for the new stamp.

POLAND

Mr. Wm. Nathan Tanner, a 5-mark value (type of a 10) in brown.

JAMAICA

Mr. Tanner sends me a copy of the 1½d green "Contingent Embarking" stamp IMPERFORATE and used. Although the borders are fairly wide Mr. Tanner states that he supposes it to be a "faked" specimen. Any information regarding this stamp will be received with pleasure.

ROUMANIA

Mr. Tanner sends us a 2 lei blue in the "King" type mentioned in the issue for December.

DENMARK

Mr. Tanner also shows me a copy of a 40 ore (King's head type) with black head and violet border.

JOSE DE SAN MARTIN

(By Joseph Ward)

The twenty-fifth of February was the one hundred and forty-fourth anniversary of the birth of Senor Jose de San Martin, whose likeness appears on the stamps of Argentine, Peru, and Chile. He is a national figure in South America in general and these countries in particular. He was their liberator.

February 25th, 1778, witnessed his arrival in the Jesuit mission town of Yapeyu, on the Uruguay River. His mother was a Creole and his father a Spanish officer, who destined his son to his own profession. At the age of eight he was sent to Spain to attend the best military school in that country, and later served in the Spanish army against the Moors and Napoleon. In that country's service he was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, but resigned this shortly to return to Argentina to aid her in her fight for freedom.

In March, 1812, he landed at Buenos Aires, to find that the "revolution" almost wasn't, and seemed to be in the last stages of suffocation. San Martin's first step was to raise and train some good troops in the city of Buenos Aires, who could later serve him in the capacity of officers in the wars that were sure to follow.

At this time only Argentine, and New Grenada expressed the desire for independence. The other countries were either willing to swing with the old power or else were awed into silence by the show of (Spanish) power. His first plan (to strike the Spanish troops through Bolivia, a mining and fortified mountainous country) was impossible to carry out, so he asked for, and obtained, the commission of Governor of Cuyo, a province of Argentine adjoining Chile, now held by the Spanish. After the fall of this country many loyal Chileans fled to Cuyo and when San Martin arrived and announced that he came with the intention of raising an army they flocked to him to offer themselves. This was a fine recruiting ground. The men were numerous and brave, and all waiting for a chance to redeem their country.

He now prepared for the invasion of Chile. He spent most of his time in preparing rations, gathering mules for mountain transport, making sledges to cross the mountains that meant disaster to gun and crew of a wheeled cannon carriage. Every mile of the proposed route was mapped and guarded.

When January, 1817, came the passes were free from snow; his time had arrived. He split his command into two divisions and taking command of the larger himself, he sent the other through another pass under command of one of his able generals.

A small party were met in the mountains, but were soon dislodged so San Martin entered Chile practically unopposed. Within a short time he was reorganizing his troops on the broad plains of Aconcagua.

Although he had crossed two of the loftiest passes of the Andes very little time was required for refitting his command. He was soon on the high-road to Santiago. The battle of Chacabuco (displayed on the Chilean commemoratives) was won by the Argentine general, and not only benefited the vicinity but gave self-confidence and morale to the rest of South America. Up to this time the different countries were considering asking a foreign government's protectorate, but now with this victory this was forgotten. From this period on, San Martin's military career really belongs to Chile and Peru and no longer Argentine. He subdued Chile and then went up the coast. In July, 1821, he entered the city of Lima and proclaimed the independence of Peru, resigning September 20th, 1822.

It was in Peru that his military career came to a sudden end. He met Bolivar, the liberator of the North, in conference at Guayaquil with a plan for co-operation which would push the Spanish off the continent into the ocean, but Bolivar could not see his way to co-operate. San Martin saw here failure for the Republicans should he and Bolivar have any kind of a disagreement. He explained his position to no one. Rather than split the cause of independence at the moment when the last Spaniard would be ousted from his stronghold in the Peruvian mountains, he submitted to reproaches of cowardice, in silence. Rather than jeopardize independence he sacrificed all: Money, home, honors, and even reputation itself. The History of the world records few examples of finer civic virtue,

The rest of his life he spent poverty stricken in Paris. Only once did he try to return to his native land. At Montevideo he heard that Buenos Aires was again in turmoil so he took the next boat for Europe. For many years his struggle against poverty and ill health were pathetic. It was the generosity of a Spaniard, not a countryman, that relieved his last days.

It was on August 17th, 1850, at the age of seventy-two that he expired at Boulogne-sur-mer, where he had gone to be benefitted by the sea air.

Peru has decreed a monument to his memory and Argentine and Chile have erected statues and all of these countries have placed him on their postage stamps.

COLLECTORS CLUB of NEW YORK

Celebrate Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Incorporation.

On December 3rd, 1921, at 120 West Forty-ninth Street, "The Collectors Club of New York" celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the signing of articles of incorporation, which event took place in 1896. The following names appear on that document: J. M. Andreini, Henry L. Calman, H. E. Deats, Chas. Gregory, William Herrick, John N. Luff, Francis E. P. Lynde, Frederick A. Nash, J. W. Scott.

Luncheon was served at 1 p.m. at the Club Rooms and was followed by an exhibition from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. A large number of members of the club and their friends attended the exhibition. At 7 p.m. the Club Banquet was held at the Hotel Brevoort, Fifth Ave. and Eighth Street. After-dinner addresses were delivered by Mr. John Luff of Scott Stamp & Coin Co., president of the club; Mr. Charles Lathrop Pack, representing the Royal Philatelic Society of London, Eng.; Dr. Carroll Chase, president of the A.P.S.; Major Joseph A. Steinmetz of Philadelphia, Pa., on the air Mail Service; Dr. Julius C. Morgenthau, representing the Collectors Club and absent Philatelists; and Mr. Otto C. Reymann of Philadelphia, Pa., representing the Metropolitan Philatelic Association.

In the course of Mr. Reymann's address he called attention to the fact that in another five years the M.P.A. would be celebrating their quarter-century mark, and pointed out some of the many advantages enjoyed by the members of this association. Other M.P.A. officers and members present included the following: H. L. Linguist of Chicago, H. M. Lewy of New York, J. M. Bartels of New York, J. C. Morgenthau, J. W. Nicklin, M. Ohlman, A. L. Laudvetter.

Canadian Precancel Notes

(By Frank S. Thompson)

Guelph, Ont., is the latest city with a precancel issue. Mr. J. D. Cox sends in the 1-cent precancelled type U-7. Who has seen any other values?

London, Ont., has added the 5-cents both normal and inverted, in type U-3. The catalog seems to have missed the 3-cents 2T1 brown double inverted from this city.

Edmonton, Alta., 1-cent type U-3 double inverted; Vancouver, B.C., 10-cents, type 19, inverted, and Winnipeg 1-cent type 20, double inverted, are new ones noted recently.

Two discoveries of previously unknown old issues are reported this month. Mr. J. Harvey Westren has found the 2-cents Jubilee in type O normal, and to Mr. W. H. Hawes goes credit for locating an 8-cent numeral in type Q horizontal.

MOROCCO: ITS FOREIGN AND PRIVATE POSTS

(By Fred W. Edwards)

The philatelic history of a country closely reflects and illustrates its political history, its form of government, and often even the customs and characteristics of its national life. In no other could we find more substantial evidence of this close inter-relation of philately and history than in the Empire of Morocco.

The government of Morocco is an autocracy, subject to religious influences, which severely repress all progress; and the general system is as corrupt as the people who administer and endure it.

From such a government, and from a people notorious throughout several centuries for brigandage and piracy, no properly organized postal service could be expected, and the natural and almost inevitable outcome of this lack of proper postal facilities was the establishment of Foreign Post Offices, supplemented by private courier posts—the latter system giving rise to abuses, corruption, and stamp speculation, with the result that practically all the "Local" stamps, good and bad alike, are under a ban and have incurred the disfavour of philatelists.

In Morocco, not only does the postal system illustrate a reactionary and corrupt system of government; but the picturesque stamps of the private posts illustrate the characteristics of the country and the Moorish people, by many dainty designs depicting camels, dromedaries, lions, palm trees, Moors, mosques, landscapes and seascapes.

The Empire of Morocco is situated in the north-west of Africa and includes the former kingdoms of Fez and Morocco, the area of the country is about 220,000 square miles, the population is estimated at about seven millions, and the present ruler is Sultan Muley Abdul Aziz, who succeeded in 1894.

While Morocco has no proper Government postal system, there are services under the control of the British, French, German and Spanish Governments; and besides these foreign post offices there were various private posts which flourished between 1892 and 1900 and exploited the resources of the country in general and philatelists in particular, and by the latter were therefore condemned to everlasting execration.

But let it be remembered that these Moroccan private posts were by no means the worst stamp-speculating sinners; for, prolific as they were, all their records for number of varieties are easily eclipsed by the British P. O.'s in Morocco, from which no fewer than 87 standard varieties were issued from 1898 to 1907—and there are more to follow.

The foreign posts of Morocco claim priority of place on account of their greater importance, the higher status of their issues, and last, but not least, the greater number of their varieties; but we shall deal with the private posts at rather greater length, because they are known and even less loved.

British P.O.'s in Morocco

Great Britain competes with France, Germany and Spain in running courier mails along the coast of Morocco; and our own country has a long lead of the other powers as regards the number of varieties issued.

The first specially surcharged stamps for the British Agencies in Morocco were issued in 1898, when the contemporary stamps of Gibraltar, bearing values in Spanish currency (100 centimos—1 peseta—about 7d) were overprinted at the office of the Gibraltar Chronicle, with the inscription, "Morocco Agencies"; and no fewer than 70 varieties of overprinted Gibraltar stamps were issued for the British offices in Morocco during the period 1898-1906; and in 1907 a set of eleven contemporary stamps of Great Britain (King Edward VII.) were overprinted with the same inscription, but with the addition of new values in the Spanish currency. There was, however, a set of seven of our late King's stamps overprinted with the inscription "Morocco Agencies," but without any overprint of new values, and these latter labels are said to be for parcel post.

The French P.O.'s

To our neighbors across the Channel belongs the distinction of having issued the first series of overprints for Morocco; for as early as 1891 a long set of the familiar French "Peace and Commerce" stamps were overprinted simply with a new value in the Spanish currency, there being, curiously enough, no name overprinted to indicate the issuing of these stamps specially for Morocco. These stamps were succeeded by a special series bearing the inscription "Poste Francais Maroc," with overprinted values in Spanish currency, and curiously enough the overprinted "centimo" values correspond numerically with the original "cents" values on the contemporary French stamps; and this numerical identity holds good in all the values except the higher ones in "pesetas."

And whilst speaking of currency we might here express how grateful and comforting is our feeling that the following outlandish currency has never been adopted for the currency of any Moroccan stamps:—1 Mitkal—10 ounces—40 blankeels—24 floos—slightly over 3d. What a "money" table! Fancy asking for a "ten ounce" postage stamp!

The stamps of the "Sower" type of France overprinted "Maroc Gouvernement Provisoire 1907" are bogus. Speaking of bogus stamps of French origin, we might also mention that most of the private posts of Morocco were run by enterprising French firms as is evident by the characteristic French inscriptions "Postes," or "Chiffre Taxe" (Postage Due), found on most of these private locals; whilst those of Spanish origin are distinguished by the familiar Spanish inscription "Correos."

The German P.O.'s

Though the "Fatherland" was about eight years behind France in the sur-charging of stamps for the Moroccan mails, the Germans soon made up for lost time in the competition for quantity of varieties, for during the period 1899-1907, there were 46 varieties of contemporary German stamps overprinted with the inscription "Marocco" and new values in the Spanish currency.

The Spanish P.O.'s

Last and least of the foreign offices in Morocco come those maintained by the Spanish Government, and only thirteen varieties of Spanish stamps were overprinted "Correo Espanol Morreucos," and this set of thirteen values ($\frac{1}{4}$ c-10 pes.) covers the period 1903-9. We might also mention that in the Spanish fortified seaport and convict settlement of Melilla, on the north coast of Morocco, special stamps of heraldic design were issued in 1894 for the Spanish soldiers in the garrison.

The Private and Local Posts.

Having now briefly reviewed the three hundred odd issues of the foreign offices in the Empire of Morocco, we have next to consider a group of about 150 varieties of stamps issued in the private local posts of that troubled country which has been so plagued with its sultans and stamp speculators.

These Moroccan locals are generally considered and condemned as utterly worthless; but exceptions must at least be made in the case of the issues inscribed "Mazagan—Maroc," "Mogador—Marakesch," and "Tanger—Fez."

Considered as a whole, the Moroccan locals are picturesque stamps, and well produced; and thus they possess an attraction which is as deceptive as that of many other beautiful objects. However, as most of these stamps have been obsolete for several years, and are by no means common, perhaps philatelists will eventually favour them with a kindlier regard; especially considering that the Moroccan private posts compare very favourably with the foreign posts as regards the number of varieties and provisionals issued.

In our review of this interesting group of stamps, we purpose adopting the usual alphabetical order of classification, and instead of confusing the tyro with synonyms we had better follow the writer's usual practice of spelling geographical names as they are spelled on the stamps themselves.

Alcazar-Ouazzan—Alcazar is a town of the former kingdom of Fez; it is situated on the Strait of Gibraltar, and was taken by Alphonso, King of Portugal in 1468. A British consular representative was established in this town. Ouazzan is a small picturesque hillside town, famous as a religious centre.

The pretty set of seven speculative stamps (5c-1 franc) issued in 1896 for the private post, Alcazar to Ouazzan, are all of one type which bears a well engraved picture of a dromedary as the central feature of the design.

The issue was suppressed within a month of issue by the Shereef (prince or ruler) of Ouazzan.

Fez-Mequinez—Fez is a holy city, the chief commercial centre, and one of the metropolitan cities of Morocco. In the 13th century Fez was the capital of an independent kingdom; three centuries later it was conquered and annexed by Morocco. In 1905, British, French and German missions were sent to Fez to urge reforms; these the Sultan admitted to be necessary, but desired a conference of the Powers. Britain declined, and the question became acute between France and Germany, but later on a satisfactory agreement was reached, and a British consul was established at Fez. Me-quinez is a royal burying place, about 36 miles from Fez, and, like the latter, is a metropolitan city.

The locals for Fez and Mequinez consist of one set of eight stamps, all of one type, bearing a portrait of a Moor, and this set was supplemented by a corresponding series of eight "Unpaid," which are of a less dainty design, and bear the initials "F.M." as the only indication of the post by which they were issued.

Fez-Sefro—Sefro is an inland town in N. Morocco. The stamps issued under the title "Fez-Sefro," are utterly worthless and probably never saw these places.

Mazagan—Azemour—Marakech: —Mazagan is an almost deserted seaport near the Atlantic and was opened to foreign trade, and here also a British resident was established. The place is situated at a distance of about eight miles from Azemour, and 120 from Marakech the Moroccan capital.

The set of seven speculative stamps issued under the above heading in 1898 are all oblong and of real beauty.

in 1892, and shortly after a new value (10c) was made by surcharging.

In 1893 an ugly set of stamps appeared, which bore the names "Mazagan-Marakech"; and here we might remark that "Morocco," "Maroc (co)" "Marrakesch," and "Marakech," are synonyms for the capital of Morocco. After the issuing of a couple of provisionals, a new set of stamps appeared in 1897 and these latter stamps are of great beauty, depicting as they do a characteristic Moorish scene.

The set of seven "Unpaid," issued simultaneously with these pictorial stamps, are "nondescript," stamps which bear the familiar French inscription, "Chiffre Tax," and these particular "Postage Dues" can be recognized by the kneeling dromedary, which apparently supports a large shield on which is the numeral of value.

This private post fitly celebrated the incoming of the 20th century by issuing another pictorial set of oblong stamps, all of which are bi-colored and of a dainty design.

Mogador-Rgidir—Mogador is a port with a small harbour and is an emporium of trade. Agidir is an inland town in the south.

The solitary set of seven stamps, all bi-colored, issued in 1900 from these places are all of one type, the central feature of the design being an African lion.

Mogador-Maroc—As in the case of "Mazagan and Maroc," which changed the spelling of the latter place to "Marakech," so the stamps of "Mogador-Maroc" changed to "Mogador-Marrakesch"; and it really appears as though the enterprising "postal officials" of some of these private posts created varieties simply by changing the spelling of geographical names instead of by the less original method of changing paper, watermarks and perforations!

The 1895-6 issue inscribed "Mogador-Marrakesch" are a handsome set of rectangular stamps all of a type bearing a design which looks like a panel picture of Paradise!

Saffi-Marakech—Saffi is one of the Moroccan ports opened to foreign trade and in which a British consular representative was established. The lovely set of seven oblong stamps, issued there in 1899, are notable for bearing the finest seascape to be seen on any stamp.

Tanger-Arizila—Tanger is a sea-port and health resort on the Strait of Gibraltar, and possesses a castle,

Who's Who in Philately

(By Geo. M. Moreland)

General Remigio M. Bermudez

It is probable some have wondered at the unusual surcharge on the stamps of Peru in 1894.

The surcharge is the picture of the man whose name heads this sketch.

He was born in the Province of Tarapaca, Peru, on Sept. 30, 1836. In his early life he was engaged in business in his native Province but during the revolution of 1854 he joined the revolutionary army as a lieutenant and finally overthrew the then existing government.

In 1864 he again joined a revolutionary army which succeeded in overthrowing President Castilla.

He was chosen Vice-President of Peru in 1886 and in 1890 was elected to the Presidency of his country.

He died in Lima, Peru, on March 31, 1894, and in the same year his memory was honored by surcharging the 1874-'80 issue of stamps with his picture.

OUR NEW VENTURE

We have received numerous letters from both readers and advertisers, highly commending the RELIABILITY COLUMN we are inaugurating.

It must naturally be a satisfaction to a reader when he notes an ad that appeals to him, especially when the advertiser is unknown to him, he can, if the advertiser's name appears in the reliability column, proceed to do business with him feeling as much assurance of reliability and a square deal as though he had himself first procured references from the advertiser.

We have, in the past, had complaints from our readers with respect to "tricky" advertisers, other stamp journals, presumably not yet having had complaints, are at present carrying ads that we have cut out and refused on account of previous complaints.

We are out to abolish as far as we can, the cause for complaints, although in the past we had been doing our best to keep out the "tricky" advertiser, nevertheless, we have had complaints.

Hence the origin of the RELIABILITY COLUMN. The names you will find there are those of advertisers who have supplied us with references. Other of our advertisers, whose names do not appear may probably be just as reliable, and even more so, but whom, for some reason, have not seen fit to supply us with references; all we can say is, use your own judgment, but do not complain.

We do not, knowingly, accept for publication advertising copy from any but reliable advertisers.

United Stamp Co. List

We have received from the United Stamp Company, 1149-51 Marquette Bldg., Chicago, a copy of their 1922 "United Catalog and Price List." This little publication of 100 pages is quite up to date, well illustrated and appears to us a mighty useful little volume to collectors of U.S. and British North American stamps, as it reflects very closely the real pulse of the present day prices.

King Edward VII. Land Stamps

The first stamps of King Edward VII. Land, issued under authority of the late Sir Ernest Shackleton, under his commission as Postmaster of the British Antarctic, were used in despatching the first mail on Jan. 15th, 1908. The stamps used were special stamps given by the New Zealand government.

The post office of South Georgia, Shackleton's last port of call, is the southernmost in the British Empire. It is a sub-agency of the Falkland Islands post office, and when first opened in 1912, stamps were cancelled with a rubber hand stamp, until a regulation postmark was later provided, and the town is surrounded by a wall. It was taken by the Portuguese in 1471 and ceded to Charles II. of England on his marriage with Catherine; but the "merry monarch" did not think the port worth the expense of its upkeep, and in 1683 he caused the works to be blown up. Arizila is a seaport in the kingdom of Fez, and was formerly a Roman colony and a place of considerable importance; but now does not contain more than 1,000 inhabitants.

The set of eight stamps issued under the above heading in 1900 bear a "geometrical design—a marked departure from the usual landscape or marine view.

Tanger-El Ksar—El Ksar is an inland town of minor importance.

The set of eight oblong stamps issued from this post in 1898 are of one type, the design being that of a ship.

Tanger-Fez—Palm trees surrounding a rectangle in which is a large numeral of value form the principal feature of the design of the set of eight stamps (5c-5 francs) issued by the enterprising French firm which originated this post in 1892; and curiously enough this firm and several others apparently forgot that Spanish currency not French, was in use in Morocco, but this "oversight" is a minor matter!

Tangier-Morocco-Laraiche — Tangier, of course, is another form of "Tanger"; and Laraiche is a strong port open to foreign trade, and possesses a castle and a good harbor.

The set of six stamps emanating from this source are crudely designed and are all of one type; the central figure of the design being a full length of a creature bearing a remote resemblance to a human being! The "artist" from whose inspired soul the design came, seems to have intended to caricature Peary setting out for the Pole!

Tangier - Tetouan — Tetouan is another port in which a British Consul resides, and from this port considerable communication is kept up with Gibraltar.

The most striking feature of the set of five stamps issued from this source in 1897 is the benevolent countenance of the lion depicted as lying under the shade of a palm tree. The kind creature was evidently snap-shotted while indulging in an "after-dinner nap," and there's a smile that won't come off! These stamps are also curious as being non-descripts; and the solitary Spanish word "Correos" is the sole inscription, excepting the value.

Tetuan-Maroc-Chechouan—The set of seven stamps bearing the above cumbersome inscription, together with the date "1896" and comparatively small figures of value in the lower corners, are all of one type—a geometrical rather than a pictorial design. Here again the values (5 centimes-1 franc) are in French currency; but "accidental discrepancies" of this sort are not much worse than inverted surcharges, etc., in our current catalogues.

Tetouan-El Ksar—Instead of the customary camel or dromedary, a mounted horse forms the central feature of the design of the set of six stamps issued by the promoters of this private post in 1897; and this set is the last of our list of Moroccan locals.

We might, however, mention the Spanish stamps surcharged for Tetouan in 1909, and these latter like the French "Tanger" stamps issued in 1891, though really regarded as "government" locals are of the same "kidney" as many of the private locals we have just reviewed.

In conclusion, the writer desires to express the hope that those of his readers who do not exclusively "go by Gibbons" and banish all private posts from off the face of the earth (whilst collecting Brunei, Saymans, etc.) may be interested in this elementary introduction to the issues of the Empire of Morocco—a curious country which even in the 20th century cannot boast of a properly organized government postal service; whilst those philatelists who have no love for "locals" will, by learning more about such stamps, better know what to avoid. — Stamp Collectors' Fortnightly.

is amply covered by membership fees now due amounting to over $80.00.

The Year Book, 12 pages, was mailed all members in February. The C.P.A. is one of the few associations to get out a Year Book without advertising matter. We were agreeably surprised to receive 500 extra books, as a donation from the Canadian Stamp Collector, this making a total of 1000 in all. The Board of Directors has expressed the appreciation of the Association, by passing a vote of thanks to Mr. MacLean for his kind and timely donation.

Notices of dues have been mailed all members, included with the Year Book. Please do your part by remitting promptly.

Resident Directors are now appointed as follows:

Montreal, Que.—Mrs. E. W. Oughtred, 376 Claremont Ave., Westmount, Que.

Edmonton, Alta.—S. J. Haskell, 9918 104th St., Edmonton, Alta.

Toronto, Ont.—Wm. Given, 543 Ossington Ave., Toronto, Ont.

Yorkton, Sask.—H. W. Purvis, Yorkton, Sask.

Calgary, Alta.—F. W. Herring, 312 18th Ave. W., Calgary, Alta.

A very large number of applications have come in from the States, and also from England, France, Spain, Malta, and other countries. We regret to announce that the Constitution, at present, prevents us taking applications, other than in Canada. We certainly appreciate the great interest taken by collectors outside of Canada.

We have set an objective of 500 members before the Annual meeting in September. This calls for an increase of more than 300 to our present membership. It will be noticed that several members are doing good work on recruiting, but all of you must take a hand. Do you remember the story of the dance that somebody arranged? Everybody bought a ticket but on the night of the big show, nobody would get out on the floor. Don't be satisfied to get a ticket in the Association—get out and do something. By just sending in your money each year, how are we to have a REAL, LIVE ASSOCIATION. Mr. McCoy, the M.P.A. Exchange Manager, addressing Winnipeg members some weeks ago, regarding his department, stated: "If you put in junk, you get junk, if fair stamps, you get the same in return, but if you will put in A1 stuff, then you will get the best we have." That also applies to your membership in the C.P.A. If you do not take advantage of the various departments, and help to increase the membership, then you are not getting the value from your membership you should. The larger the membership the greater the benefits for all concerned. "In Union there is Strength." Each member is particularly urged to endeavor to secure sufficient members in his locality to form a Branch of the Association. Five members only are required to form a Branch, which will elect its own Resident Director, maintain its own Club-Rooms, be entitled to adopt its own Rules and By-Laws, and at the same time, have full use of all Departments of the Association. A local Society already organized, may become affiliated with the C. P. A., retaining its own local control, and name, which would appear in the Association Year Book, Stationery, etc., with all its members having full privileges of the Association.

If each one of you will secure two new members, our objective of 500 could be reached at once. WILL YOU DO YOUR SHARE?

Membership applications and further information may be secured from the Secretary-Treasurer: W. R. Patton. DO IT NOW!

Report of Librarian

Donations Received—J. C. Astwood, separate works, hand books, catalogues, etc.; H. J. Couch, periodicals 15; O. Huggenberger, periodicals 27; J. J. Kelly, periodicals 24; D. E. McPherson, separate works, 1; W. R. Patton, separate works 2, periodicals 29; F. S. Thompson, separate works 15, periodicals 262. The Library at present consists of 21 separate works and 434 periodicals.

Mr. Couch has donated 15 issues of the Official Organ, the Canadian Stamp Collector. Numbers still required to complete volume of this publication are 1-2-3-7 of Volume 1. Mr. Kelly has donated complete volumes of the Philatelic Journal of America for 1909 and 1910, a very valuable contribution. Mr. Patton's donation includes a file of Scott's Monthly Journal complete to date. The Librarian personally has donated an almost complete file of Meekel's Weekly Stamp News from 1915 to 1920 inclusive, in addition to several British Colonial handbooks. Other donations include several catalogs and handbooks. The Library is as yet much too small to warrant the issuing of a Catalog, and the Librarian would therefore be glad to receive further donations of handbooks, catalogs, periodicals and other Philatelic literature, so that the department may be placed at the services of members interested, as soon as possible.

F. S. Thompson, Librarian.

REPORT FOR FEBRUARY

It is with a great deal of regret that I send in this report for the month of February without one application for membership. It seems to me a disgrace that this Society, the only one in the United States which is run primarily for the benefit of the younger collectors, has failed to get one application for membership, during a month when Stamp Collecting is supposed to be flourishing all over the country. With the membership that we now have, although it is nowhere near what it should be, we should have at least ten applications a month which bear the names of regular members as proposers, and also a goodly number of applications bearing the names of officers as proposers. Come on, gang! Let's boost our membership up to at least five hundred during the coming year.

Election

The following ticket was the only one nominated for the annual election:

For President—R. Kenneth Milne, Calif.

For Vice-President—J. Harvey Westren, Canada.

For Secretary—Tom Foote, Michigan.

For Treasurer—L. L. Huber, Indiana.

For Directors—H. A. Davis, Colorado; C. W. Kissinger, Pennsylvania; V. W. Rotnem, Minnesota.

The following publications are running for Official Organ: Canadian Stamp Collector, Stamp Herald, and Philatelic Punch.

Ballots and remittance blanks for dues will be mailed about March 15, and must be returned by April 15, for the votes to count.

Publicity Fund

It pays to advertise, but the J.A.P.S. dues are so low that it is impossible for us to do very much without contributions. We have therefore put on the remittance blank an item reading:

Contribution to Publicity Fund, $.....

We want it understood that no member is obliged to contribute to this fund, but any amount sent in will be greatly appreciated.

Promptness

Promptness in returning ballots and dues will lessen greatly the work of the Secretary and Treasurer, and at the same time will put the Society on a sound financial basis to start the new fiscal year.

Correction in Year Book.

The address of Rev. E. C. Reeve should be Clearfield, Pa., instead of Clearfield, Iowa.

Get That Member

And last, but not least, I want to urge you again to get out after new members. We want this to be the last time that there will be no applications to post.

Closing Up Shop

Through lack of time to properly devote to stamps, I am selling out a very nice stock of stamps (wholesale and Retail) at cost price.

Don't delay, dealers as well as collectors, as the best items will be gone first. "A word to the Wise is Sufficient."

THE 1922 SCOTT CATALOGUE

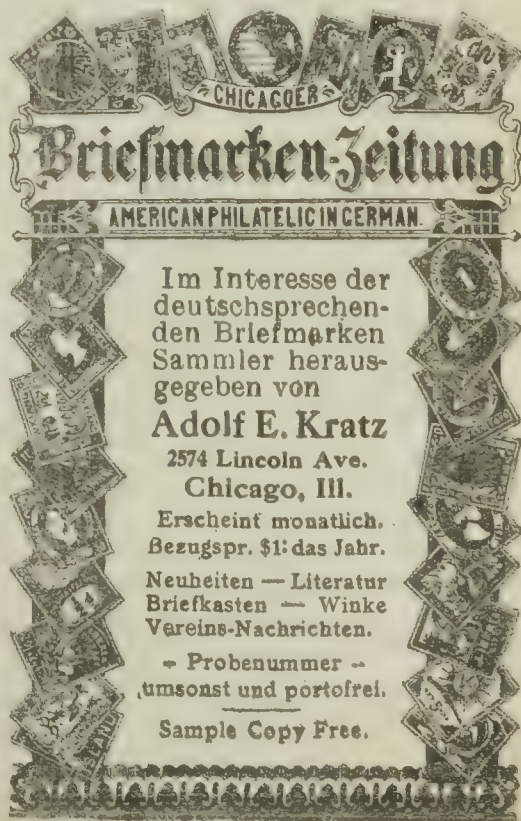

(By J. F. G.)

It is unnecessary for me to call the attention of our Canadian Philatelists, as well as all those outside of Canada, who collect our beautiful stamps for pleasure or for profit, to the very unjust manner in which the compiler of this otherwise truly wonderful catalogue, constantly ignores stamps that have been legally issued by our Canadian Government, used as postage, classed as postage, yet never recognized in this world's famous catalogue. I refer to the paper used in the 1c and 2c King Edward, and the 1c and 2c King George issues. In both values they come on pure white surface paper, then again on tinted paper, respectively green and pink or rose. This can be proved by the outer edges removed from unused sheets at any Post Office. Next we have the 1c and 2c King George hairlines, a distinctive paper from all others. Why is it that Scott insists on ignoring these two stamps? Is it because dealers all over the country got caught "short"? I know I had to write to 19 dealers in Canada and the U.S. before I got an unused copy of the 1c green, and to 27 dealers before I could locate a copy of the 2c carmine (unused). These two stamps should rate very high in our Canada stamps, yet Scott will not recognize them, preferring to be very explicit in drawing our attention to such as lines in Mexico stamps, silk threads in Swiss, granite paper here and white soft there, etc., etc. Is this fair treatment? Next we come to our War Tax surcharged on regular postage of the 5c, 20c and 50c variety. This too is relegated to the refuse heap. It is not an actual revenue since the 5c, 20c and 50c were surcharged "Inland Revenue War Tax" for this very purpose, whilst the words "Inland Revenue" were omitted on our (I insist) regular postage. If, then, in Scott's opinion our 5c, 20c and 50c surcharged War Tax do not have the right to associate with his splendid catalogue, in the name of reason, why is it that our 1c and 2c printed War Tax thereon have any right to claim space in his book. Both were issued for the same purpose. Now then, if our 5c, 20c and 50c surcharged "War Tax" are not to be recognized in his Catalogue, then I think it is only fair and just to cut out any and all the stamps issued by the British Colonies and surcharged "War Tax." If this were to happen I'd be willing to bet that the hundred and one stamp dealers who have stocked up on these and are now reaping their gains, would raise a "holler" that would wake up Mr. Compiler, and cause him to hold a different view as regards these stamps mentioned.

I do not wish to write here of others that should also be mentioned in that Catalogue, since they relate most to specialists. I refer to a 2c King Edward, Perf. 8x8; a 1c pure black King George; a 2c pure orange King George; different imperf. King George, due no doubt to machine cut; to that few sheets of "shrunk" 1c and 2c King George stamps, that got away from Ottawa. These stamps are much smaller than our standard size. I do not mention here the perfs that are cut across and lengthwise run on many of our different issues, or do I mention that the King Edward and King George come on thin, medium and very thick paper, or do I refer to the twenty odd shades all our values come in; nevertheless "Some Day" when some wise Canadian born subject compiles a Canada Catalogue for the benefit of his fellow subjects, all the above may be listed in that welcome book, so it would be well to keep our eyes open and gather any and all specimens of Canada regardless of what the compiler of Scotts thinks of our truly beautiful and always well thought of Canada stamps. One thing certain, Canada issues stamps that should be catalogued, but are not, whilst certain other countries, and I may say dozens of them, issue stamps that instead of occupying page on page in the catalogue should not even be taken notice of, for complete sets of these are not worth the paper they are printed on. Just issued to sell to the dealer, and the dealer to put it over on the poor stamp collector; pure rubbish, most of the later issues, yet each and every minute line or dot is thoroughly explained by Mr. Compiler.

Nuff Sed.

AZORES

A long series of Postage Due stamps is now on sale here. It has been made by surcharging Portuguese stamps. Following are the new values: 12c olive-green, 20, 24, 36, 50, 60, 72c, all olive green; 1e on 20c olive green. An additional Parcel Post stamp, 90c, lilac, has been issued.

ALEXANDRIA (French P.O.)

The Postage Due stamps of France, 1893-1920, have been surcharged with new values in milliemmes, in two lines. Those so far reported are,—2m on 5c, blue; 4m on 10c brown; 10m on 20c carmine; 15m on 50c light lilac; 30m on 1f, lilac-brown on straw colored paper.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

From the "Bulletin Mensuel" we learn that the 5c, vermilion at present in circulation, head of the general Saint-Martin, has been fraudulently reproduced for sale in the post offices. The counterfeit is very successful and large numbers have been sold. It is indeed stated that havoc has been played with the public finances

AUSTRALIA

Owing to changes in postage rates it has been rumored that the smaller values are to appear in new colors. Mr. T. S. Harrison, the government printer, stated that, so far, he had received no notification of a color change. I, myself, do not think that such a change is likely to occur for some time, at least. Such a change is just as probable here in Canada, but, so far as I know, there is no intention of changing our lower value colors.

ARMENIA

The following is adopted from "Stamp Collecting":

"Messrs. Bright & Son have been shown copies of the Russian Charity stamp overprinted in Armenian with the Armenian device and new value, 25r, etc. The following are particulars with the official numbers of the quantities of each that were printed. This information is furnished by a reliable correspondent, and is believed to be accurate:

25r on 1k yellow and grey (only 56 printed).

25r on 3k, white background (only 64 printed).

25r on 1k red-brown and green (only 190 printed).

25r on 3k rose background (only 690 printed).

50r on 7k (only 280 printed).

50r on 10k (1,100 printed).

AUSTRIA

Mr. W. N. Tanner, Jr. shows me a copy of a new 7½ kr. value, color faded violet. This is presumably the new 7½k. value listed last month and stated to be yellow and brown in color. The central device is an ear of corn and flanked on either side by a pair of wavy lines. The value, in figures, is below this central design while the word "kronen" appears at the foot of the stamp. A 12½ kr. value, color green, and of above design, is also submitted. In the same set are two larger stamps—a 10 kr. violet with a very peculiar central device and with the two wavy lines on either side, but this time turned in opposite directions, value at the base as "10 kronen 10" and a 25 kr. ultramarine on which the head of a woman occupies the central position. In this stamp we find that the wavy lines have become very full and very pronounced.

Mr. Tanner, in writing regarding these stamps says: "We think that the best description of the Austrian stamps would be "a masterpiece of ugliness." There is absolutely no need for a new issue at this time, and there is no doubt but that it was made solely for collectors. All the values, except the 12½ and 25kr. were in the last issue and the Parliament set. There is no need for the extra values at all. I have received three letters from Austria, all registered, in the same mail, and each carried a different amount of post-

BULGARIA

This country has printed a series in honor of an English journalist, David Bouchier, at one time correspondent for the "London Times" in the Balkans. This writer did a great deal of work in the establishing of a Bulgarian government. He was also interested, in 1896, in the question of giving of anatomy to the Isle of Crete, and had, some years later, accompanied the Kaiser in his trip to Palestine.

The series is made up as follows: 10c brick, 20c orange (both with portrait of Bouchier); 30c grey, 50c blue, 11 lilac, 1½l olive, 2l green, 3l blue-green, 5l lilac-brown; 9 Bouchier's resting place. The 30 and 50c and 11 show the author in hiking clothes. Above set is perf. 12. A separate 11 value, perf. 12, color blue, and engraved by Messrs. Bradbury, Wilkinson & Co., and bearing a portrait of Czar Boris has also been issued.

BELGIUM

"In accordance with a ministerial decision of December last, the colors of the current Postage Due stamps are about to be modified thus: 5c grey-blue, 10c green, 20c sepia, 30c red, 50c dark-blue. ply is exhausted, when the new colors will be issued.

"Not only have the Postage Dues commenced to appear in altered colors but the type is modified, the numerals being somewhat larger, the letter "c" flattened, and the supporting lines more shaded than previously. This, however, has not improved the typography of the stamps which is execrable. The first value to appear is the 10 centimes, green.—Stamp Collecting.

BRITISH HONDURAS

A new value, 4c. in grey on the old Mult. CA paper and perf. 14 and of the design of the "Peace" stamp of a year ago but without the word "Peace" has been issued.

BRAZIL

We take the following from "Stamp Collecting":

"The 'Revista de la Sociedad Filatelica Argentina' describes and illustrates a striking label which it is proposed to issue in Brazil on Sept. 7th, next, the 100th anniversary of the day on which Don Pedro I. renounced allegiance to Portugal and declared himself the first Emperor of Brazil. The subject is reminiscent of that of the 200 reis commemorative of 1900, depicting a crowd of horsemen acclaiming their new sovereign. The denomination of the projected stamp is 200 reis.

"As a matter of fact two distinct sets of "celebration" stamps are to be issued on the occasion referred to, the 100 reis stamp mentioned being accompanied by others of the value of 150 and 200 reis, in special designs obtained, like the one described, in open competition. The other series, comprising the values of 25, 50, and 300 reis, will be engraved in replica of the famous "bull's eyes" of Brazil, the very first postage stamps issued after those of Great Britain."

CHINA

The 1c orange, 3c green, 6c grey and 10c blue commemoratives have been overprinted with the Chinese characters for use in Chinese Turkestan.

COSTA RICA

"Certain values of the Official series of 1908 have been overprinted "1921-22" and, in two cases, with new denomination. The following are chronicled by L'Echo de la Timbrologie:

4c carmine and indigo.

6c on 1c brown and indigo.

20c on 25c myrtle and lavender.

50c violet indigo-blue and dull claret.

"Our Costa Rican friends propose to present us with some more coffee commemoratives, a number of the current postal adhesives being overprinted with the device of a bundle of coffee and "Cafe de Costa-Rica."—Stamp Collecting.

FINLAND

A 50p light green value has just appeared.

FRANCE

The 30c in the familiar "Sower" type has appeared in its new color, orange-red, which so approximates to the vermilion of the newly obsolete 10c that some confusion is bound to arise. The 10c in current issue is green.

"The short life of the 5c orange is recent history; this stamp is possibly now again in general use as a complementary value, in which event an even greater confusion may ensue."—Stamp Collecting.

FRENCH GUINEA

Mr. H. B. Gould reports the following new colors to "Stamp Collecting": 5c green and purple, 10c green and yellow, 25c violet and black, 30c magenta and orange-vermilion; 50c ultramarine and blue; 5fr. black and ultramarine (Pictorial type of 1913, Perf. 13½ x 14).

FRENCH INDIAN SETTLEMENTS

Mr. Gould notifies the same paper of the following:

Types and perfs as in 1914. 2c purple and green; 5c black and plum; 10c black and green; 25c yellow-brown and blue; 30c black and red; 50c ultramarine and blue; 5fr. black and red.

GAMBIA

Mr. Derek Ingram writes:

"We learn that an entirely new issue of Postage and Revenue stamps is being printed. Two new designs have been selected, the one for the pence values (the same size as the 2d Jamaican) and a larger "revenue" size for the shilling values. The stamps will bear His Majesty's portrait printed in black, while the border duty portion of the stamp will contain the badge of the Colony—i.e., Elephant and Palm tree—and will be printed in the customary copperplate color scheme. All the stamps will be produced by the line-engraved process. The values ordered are as follows: ½d, 1d, 1½d, 2d, 2½d, 3d, 4d, 5d, 6d, 7½d, 10d, 1sh, 1sh 6d, 2sh, 2sh 6d, 3sh, 4sh, 5sh and 10sh."

GERMANY

"Our Nuremberg correspondent informs us that the provisional 1.60, 3, 5, and 10mk. were suddenly withdrawn from issue on January 20th, the official explanation being that millions of stamps with forged surcharges have been discovered in Berlin and other German cities.

"The new watermark has materialized and is aptly described as "chicken wire" watermark. This term, at any rate, is sufficiently explanatory. The following values have appeared, thus:

40 pf. orange (large numerals); 60 pf. purple (blacksmiths), 100 pf. green (blacksmiths), 2mk. purple and rose (posthorn), 3 mk orange and yellow.

"Lt.-Col. D. R. Bennett sends us a cutting intimating that 1.25 mk. and 75 pf. Germania stamps are to be printed on the new "Chicken wire" paper. These two values are not included in the new series of "futurist" stamps. The list of the new "Futurist" set is as follows: Large Numerals—5, 10, 15, 25, 30, 40 and 50 pf. Smiths—60 and 80 pf. Miners—100 and 120 pf. Harvesters—150, 160 and 180 pf. Figures—2, 3, 5 and 10 mk. Plough—20 mk.—Stamp Collecting.

"We Search the Earth for Goods of Worth"

Northern Stamp Co'y

R. 14, Guy Block, 747 St. Catherine St. W.
MONTREAL, CANADA

"We have received a set of "stickers" resembling postage stamps, but which we believe are merely propaganda labels. They are roughly lithographed imitations of the 1 mark violet, 3 mark red-brown, 6 mark deep rose, 10 mark red and 20 mark green of the 1919-20 issue of Poland. They are perforated, without gum, and surcharged in German in three lines "German value—Equal to 7 pf—Vote German." The surcharged value varies on the different stamps and ranges from 7 to 140 marks. Our correspondent sent the labels without any information about them. We doubt that they have any postal value and believe that they have been made to raise funds for political purposes, probably in connection with the controversy in Upper Silesia."

PORTUGAL

The 1920 Postage Due value has reached here in green.

REUNION

The appearance of a 5c value in violet and yellow is noted. Along with this value come others in the type of 1907-17 as follows: 10c green, 25c brown and blue, 30c carmine, 50c blue.

Stamps of 1907-17 have been surcharged as "40" on 20c olive and green, and "60" on 75c vermilion and rose.

7s 6d, 10s, 15s, and 1 pound stamps. These will be of the large "Revenue" size and, as they are required for fiscal as well as postal purposes, they will be inscribed "Postage and Revenue." The portrait of His Majesty will be contained in an oval frame, and on each side of the vignette representations of Arum lilies and New Zealand flax will be shown. The vignette, which will be printed in doubly fugitive black in each value, consists of a ship, etc., taken from the Seal of the Colony. The border duty portion of the stamps will show the universal color scheme for each value."—Stamp Collecting.

TURKEY

"We had hoped the Greeks were going to set a good example and not issue any occupation stamps during their occupation of Turkey in Asia, but our expectations have not been fulfilled. A correspondent in Athens has sent us a pair of provisional stamps, on part of an envelope, and cancelled in Kutaiah, a town in the district of Brusa. This prov. was made by hand-stamping a Greek surcharge, in three lines, on a Turkish stamp of the commemorative issue of 1916. The surcharge reads: "Greek—Kutaiah—50 leptas." The stamps sent us were the 20 paras ultramarine, and as the surcharge was in blue of nearly the same color as the stamps it was difficult to see it. It is stated that the surcharge was also struck in black, which should give a much more distinct impression."—Scott's Monthly Journal.

UPPER SILESIA

"Someone in Europe is industriously circulating some large green labels, which we are asked to believe were used as stamps by a very mysterious Field Post in Upper Silesia. We have received some of these things and they have been shown us by a number of collectors and dealers. They are of two shapes, a large upright rectangle and a smaller horizontal rectangle. Each bears the white eagle of Poland, the words "Poczta Polowa" (Polish Postage), "Gorney Slask" (Upper Silesia), "1921" etc. Furthermore, each stamp has a label at the bottom similar to the Belgian "Sunday" label, and inscribed "Oplata" (whatever that may mean), and 10 marks. These precious stickers are printed in green and are supplied perf. and imperf. A pair is usually sent mounted on a black card, on which "Green Postage" is written in green ink. Many of the lots are accompanied by a clipping from "Le Journal de Pologne," of which we make the following translation:

For the Philatelists

"Collectors will doubtless learn with interest some details about the field post organized by the insurgents in Upper Silesia. These details have been known only quite recently, because of the atmosphere of mystery with which the organization in question surrounded itself.

"It has been proved that, at the beginning of the third insurrection in Upper Silesia, a secret postal service operating on the Polish-Silesian frontier. This was organized by the insurgents and had as its purpose the transporting of correspondence across the frontier at places not well guarded by the authorities,

"This is termed the 'autonomous post' or the 'green post.'

"The postage stamps employed are of two types, both green in color, having their price (10 marks) printed on a detachable coupon because the correspondence intended for the insurrectionary detachments was free.

"Today these stamps are sought by collectors among the insurgents.

The existence of this insurrectionary post is a further evidence of the Polish spirit of organization."

We give this account of these labels for what it is worth, but we shall not give them a place in our catalogue until we have further information about them and evidence that they are an official issue and were legitimately used.

PORTUGAL

Mr. Tanner shows me two Portuguese stamps, one a 5-reis slate surcharged "Republica" and the other a 10 reis green surcharged "Republica" (upwards and obliquely as in the above case) and then surcharged "Assistencia" near the foot of the stamp. All surcharges are in red.

A correspondent asks regarding these stamps:

"Can you give any information as to the Republica Assistencia surcharge? Scott's listing is very doubtful and can mean either the one surcharged "Republica" or the one unsurcharged, but they would not surely list two such distinct varieties under one number. We doubt if it is a new issue because of the age of the unsurcharged stamp."

Any information that will help my correspondent out will be gladly received.

THE PENCE ISSUE OF CANADA

(By Fred. Jarrett)

Books might be written about the first issue of Canadian postage stamps. This article does not pretend to more than scratch the surface of the subject.

Even the experts disagree as to the paper varieties. The shades are numerous.

Commencing with the ½d, the catalogs note ribbed paper, vertical and horizontal, as the rarest of these, but a variety exists on the thin, spongy paper which is of still greater rarity, and seldom seen in anything like good condition. The ordinary wove paper exists in thin and thick grades. The shades run from dull to bright pink.

Where the shade is within bounds some proofs may well be classed as stamps. Not bearing the word SPECIMEN many of these, even though somewhat off the true shade, might legitimately have been postally used, and may therefore be included among the stamps proper. The perforated ½d is of course rare and seldom found well centered. Double transfer varieties exist in the ½d, a doubling of the lower left outer frame line being a conspicuous variety.

As it is the intention to write up the 3d Beaver fully at some later date, this interesting stamp will not be dealt with herein.

The 6d exists in a multitude of shades. The purple violet on thick, soft wove paper is much the rarest. Catalogue falls below the mark on this stamp. If you would verify the statement ask any local dealer how many he has sold during his business career. A shade that is particularly attractive and brings out the design to great advantage is the greenish gray on hard paper. The laid paper and thin wove papers do not bring out the design, and have not as bright an appearance on the page. A double transfer variety exists in this stamp, consisting of a pronounced shading to the upper right 6. It occurs on the upper right corner of the plate.

While the purple violet is much under-priced, the ordinary varieties are possibly over-priced in comparison with the rarity of the 7½d and

10d. The 10d is undoubtedly several times more rare than the 6d, but catalogs the same, while the 7½d is much rarer again than the 10d. Comes the law of supply and demand, however, for while the 6d is not so rare, there is greater demand for the stamp on account of the wide range of shades.

The 6d perforated is a rare item and is snapped up quickly whenever offered. Good advice would be to buy even a poor copy provided you get it at a sacrifice, and then you will have a check on the genuine article should it be offered to you in good condition, but necessitating the outlay of some real cash. There is always a great temptation for the faker to take the ordinary 6d and perforate it. Never buy a perf. 6d without putting the gauge on it, likewise look to the shade, and get out your microscope to see that the top has not been spliced on or a corner neatly added.

The 7½d is the stamp to buy at every opportunity while catalog remains as it is. The paper is the usual hard wove. Be on your guard against something which may be a proof fixed up, although just what urges a faker to spoil a rare proof in this way is beyond the writer. A double transfer variety exists in this stamp, consisting of a doubling in the lower right corner.

In the 10d two papers are listed—a thick and thin, but there are really three papers and possibly four. The thin paper is a peculiar make not often met with today. It is extremely tough, and the design almost shows through it. Occasionally, one encounters a 10d proof posing as the actual stamp, on thin paper, but there is a wide difference between the right paper and the proof paper. The second variety is the same paper in about double the thickness. The third variety is the wove paper used for other issues, and it is possible that this will be found in thin as well as the usual thick. The stamps on this paper show better detail. In looking at a page of these stamps one will notice that the shades run from pale to rich deep blue, and there is no difficulty in distinguishing those on the thin paper.

The famous 12d black exists on laid and wove paper. It is extremely rare on the original cover. A double transfer variety exists, the lower left frame line being doubled. A prominent collector who probably has more of these gems than any other individual, claims that the stamp was printed from two plates. When he gives the philatelic world the results of his studies, do doubt he will surprise us with the information as to plate varieties and so forth.

An interesting point in connection with the 10d is the width of the oval. The stamp is noted with a narrow and a broad oval, and with a variation in the length of the oval. After much learned discussion and argument it was fairly settled that these variations were caused by the paper contracting after having been printed on. This seems logical in view of the kind of paper used and bearing in mind that the paper was often dampened before the impression was made.

In conclusion, considering that we are dealing with stamps which have a value of hundreds of dollars, a word might be said about condition. Be an honest-to-goodness stick-'em-in collector, and do not turn up your nose at a stamp because it is cut close on one side. Get it, provided the price makes due allowance for condition, and replace it with a better copy when the opportunity offers. If you use Scott's as a guide remember that something in very fine condition is worth more than catalogue. The writer once paid $50 for a Canadian stamp catalogued at $35, because it was in exceptional condition. The mate to it brought $100 at public auction not long after. Something that is just average is worth somewhat less than catalogue, and catalogue counts little in the case of damaged or defective copies.

It is almost impossible for the layman to appreciate the degree of expertness with which these rarer stamps may be repaired. A firm existed in Paris, and perhaps still does, to which one might send a badly damaged rare stamp and in due course receive back an original cover bearing a postmark which only the connoisseur could be suspicious of. Sometimes a rare stamp may impress one as being in particularly fine condition, and if the cancellation is as it should be there is not much to be afraid of. If the cancellation is one which your experience tells you does not belong there, invariably you will find the design is scraped or peeled under the cancellation. Occasionally a clever artist paints in a defective corner. Sides and corners are often spliced on to stamps in such a way as to defy even a strong magnifying glass and hot water tests.

BOURCHIER COMMEMORATIVE ISSUE

(By I. I. Matincheff)

On December 30th, 1921, a new commemorative set of nine stamps was issued in Bulgaria in honor of the memory of James David Bouchier, who was the distinguished Balkan correspondent of the London Times. The issue comprises the following values: 10, 20, 30, 50 stotinki, 1, 1½, 2, 3, and 5 leva. Five of the series are portraits, three reproducing no doubt faithfully enough an early photograph, but they are hardly reminiscent of the kindly and vivacious personality which was the charm to all who knew him. The two depicting "J.D.B." in the costume of a Bulgarian peasant have had to sacrifice likeness for general effect. The other four stamps show Rilo Monastery, "Bouchier's Resting Place." The issue constitutes a unique tribute on the part of a country to a foreigner," says the Near East. No doubt the issue constitutes a unique tribute on the part of a country to a foreigner. But who was James D. Bouchier? What had he done? And wherefore such honour to him? are probably some of the questions which the readers (of this) have already asked themselves.

Every nation has its own great men. But there are great men who do not belong to any one nation. James D. Bouchier is one of them. We Bulgarians who have had the fortune to have him for more than twenty years in our midst, and to know more closely his rare character, warm heart, his views with regard to general humanitarian questions, and his never ceasing efforts to bring about a peaceful and impartial solution of the world's problems in general and the Balkans' in particular—have long ago ceased to see in his person merely a correspondent of "The Times." Especially during the last eight years his attention was fully directed toward little Bulgaria, whose people were doomed to pass through the most critical period of their new political life, at the time when he played a grand role in Paris, being the contemporary authority whose opinion the most weight could be given, and commentator of events in the Near East. His articles were published not only in the "London Times," the world's most brilliant newspaper, but also in many other standard English papers and periodicals.

Being a true interpreter of the situation in the Near East, and well versed in the Balkan question, with a sincere wish to see peace and friendly relations established among the people of the Balkans, Bouchier could not but become a defender of the Greeks in their heroic struggle for liberty, especially during the Cretan revolution, and later take part in stirring up the sympathy of the peoples in Europe in favor of the Serbians in their liberation from the Turks, and, then later still, in their struggle against the Austrians. Up to ten years ago he was known throughout the world as a friend of the Greeks, and until his death he was an intimate friend of Mr. Venizelos, in co-operation with whom he contributed so much toward the creation of the Balkan Union of 1912.

It is not by mere chance that Bouchier made Sofia his permanent residence in the Balkans. The Britons rarely make mistakes. The reliable paper which he was faithfully serving could not fail to understand that it was Bulgaria which was destined to play the principal part in the Balkan Peninsula. Consequently this great Briton, doubtless the greatest press correspondent of modern times, chose Sofia for his permanent residence—Sofia, the centre of all Balkan events and movements from time immemorial, and the focus of all diplomatic, political and economic aspirations of the Great Powers in our century.

And if later he grew fond of the Bulgarian people that should not surprise any one who has had like him an opportunity to know the Bulgarians close at hand. Like many other connoisseurs of the Balkan people he did not pretend not to see the defects and rough characteristics of the Bulgarian race, but he knew that all peoples have faults and weaknesses. On the other hand he was fully and deeply convinced of the sincerity, sobriety and their love of physical and mental labour of the Bulgarian people and also generally speaking in the righteousness of the Bulgarian cause in the struggle for national unification. His opinion was that in South-Eastern Europe there will be peace only according to the principles of self-determination and when every nation felt itself master of its own destiny. That was the purpose of the ill-fated Balkan Union of 1912, to which he gave the first impulse and for which he continued to work ceaselessly in Paris and London during the Great War, even at the risk of his own life.

"I shall never cease to work for justice in the Balkans and for Macedonian liberty," said he to his many friends in 1915 when leaving Bulgaria. And he kept his word. His personality, honour and name were so unsullied that he was the only one to whom the French and English authorities did not dare to deny the right to visit the Peace Conference at Paris. In spite of constant warnings, criticism and protests against the wrong solutions, which were adopted at the Peace Conference with regard to the Near Eastern questions, he always remained undaunted by the numerous intrigues, which were being aimed against him. He never ceased to point out the mistakes of the Peace Conference and warn of the fatal consequences for the peace of the Balkans and of Europe, which gained for him the hatred of the official circles, which threatened him more than once. Greeks and Serbians who have been oppressed until now at once become oppressors and were especially hurt by this prophet of human righteousness doing everything possible to compromise him.

During his stay in Paris a plot was organized against him. He was attacked from ambush while walking in the streets of Paris, which nearly cost him his life. But Bouchier was afraid of nothing. In his opinion, to bring out the truth with regard to the Balkans, was in the interests of England and of Europe and consequently brought relief to his soul. The defence of Bulgaria for him was in the first place the defence of the principle: "you are not injuring the interests of Bulgaria alone, but also those of the Balkans and European Peace," said he in an interview during those fateful days in Paris. Then to one of his friends he wrote: "Alas, the cause is lost, and it is a righteous cause, but it is a thousand times better to be defeated in a just cause than in a wrong one."

The articles of Bouchier regarding these questions of world wide interest were published in the leading English magazines, Contemporary Review, Fortnightly Review, Quarterly Review, Atlantic Monthly and many others, but unfortunately they remained unheard, nevertheless they will always be an irrefutable criticism of the decisions in regard to the Balkan questions which the Grand Tribunal at Paris was carelessly adopting.

And though his words were lost like a voice in the desert, his predictions nevertheless began to fulfill sooner than one could ever have supposed. Bouchier himself lived to see with his own eyes the crumbling of the idle dream for the resurrection of the former Byzantine Empire and the shattering of the great Serbian Imperialism.

"There is no longer a Macedonian question, it is buried," cried in statements Venizelos and Paschitch, the personification of Bismark's and Machiavelli's policy in the Balkans. Hardly had one year passed when it was not the Macedonian question, but Venizelos himself who was buried, while Paschitch is on the point to be swept away by a gale in Yugoslavia. In short the events around us are taking place as if in fulfillment of the prophetic words repeatedly pronounced by the great Bouchier.

Bouchier was the best connoisseur of the Balkan peoples, their most sincere sympathizer and strongest supporter of the idea for the mutual agreement and entente of the Balkan nations. He had the courage to point all the iniquities which were likely to weaken the relations of the Balkan peoples and to censure all those who the Balkans. With the death of Bouchier the world loses one of its rare courageous citizens, the peoples of the Balkan Peninsula—their mightiest, most sincere, righteous and authoritative apostle in Europe; Great Britain doubtlessly loses one of her most brilliant publicists, Encyclopedia Britannica, its most authoritative Balkan collaborator; London Times in the person of Bouchier loses its most noble and influential foreign representative.

Editorial Chat

Spring is here and we are suffering somewhat with growing pains; subscriptions galore are coming our way; many letters from satisfied advertisers are in receipt; commendations plenty from readers and advertisers re our Reliability Column. We should worry.

The past winter has been a wonderful season for Philately; it has withstood the stress of hard times in a most convincing manner, and we feel the coming summer will be a marked improvement on the preceding one.

Counterfeiting

Counterfeiting has been apparently carried on to a considerable extent recently in the United States both in postage and revenue stamps. The authorities are on the job; a number of the culprits and their outfits are being gathered in.

Send a Little Cheer

We are advised by Mr. Warren Gross that John Mummert, Jr., of 5622 Christian St., Philadelphia, Pa., quite a young boy, who has a passionate fondness for postage stamps, has recently become very much crippled through illness. We have forwarded to him a selection of stamps, and we would ask any of our readers who feel disposed to lend to the happiness and enjoyment of a "wee" crippled brother, to please send to him any stamps they can. He will surely appreciate the kindness. We thank you.

AUSTRIA

We are indebted to Mr. O. C. Reymann for the following:

A recent issue of the Postal Gazette, the official organ of the Austrian Department of Posts and Telegraphs, carried the following announcement:

"In pursuance of an edict formulated on July 8th, 1921, a special series of postage stamps is to be issued once every year. The proceeds of their sale is to be devoted to welfare work in accordance with the Government's decision from year to year. The issue will be placed on sale during the second half of April. These stamps will be valid for the payment of all postage for four weeks consecutively, beginning with a certain date to be announced later. The series will consist of seven values, namely, 2½, 5, 7½, 10, 25, 50 and 100 kronen. The stamps will be sold by the post office for ten times their face value, hence a complete set of seven values will cost at the post office window 2000 krone (at present exchange rates, about 30c). The first series of stamps will be adorned with the faces of Austrian composers. It is intended to print only 200,000 complete series.

It is further provided that in addition 100 stamps of each value are to be printed on Japanese paper. These specially printed stamps will be arranged in folders which will bear the autographs of the designer, Dr. Rudolf Junk and of the Engraver, Ferdinand Schirmbock. The stamps will be printed from copper plates. Each complete set of this special printing will be sold for 25,000 krone (about $4.00 at the present rate of exchange).

The sale of these Charity stamps will be confined to certain post offices in the capital of each province. They will also be on sale at the Headquarters of the Office for Charity Postage Stamps in Vienna, First District, Postgasse No. 10."

The total revenue from this special issue of stamps will therefore amount to 402,500,000 kronen or about $60,400 in American currency.

45 places, one each.

Take a look at Birtle, Man., a town of 500 population. They held 45th place in February issue, 12th place in March, and now in 5th. This is due to the good work of J. C. Cartwright, who evidently likes to see his town other than at the bottom. Come on, boys, don't let a little town like Birtle take the lead. Probably J.C. is getting peeved at Winnipeg leading: It is certainly up to some of us to show Birtle we have collectors also.

Auction Manager's Report

There have been eight auctions since Nov. 15th, 1921, at which 276 lots were auctioned off. These realized $161.15. A great many lots brought very poor prices, owing to their being New Europe. Good British Colonials have nearly always brought good prices, several lots selling at three-quarter catalogue or better, and a number over half catalogue.

There appears to be no demand for low grade stamps, as many lots which would be called "Junk" have been knocked down to members at less than one-tenth catalogue.

—H. Hanks, Auctioneer.

Sales Manager's Report.

There are at present 417 books on hand and in circulation, valued at $2,333.02. Retired to date 371 books and sheets valued at $1,646.09, many of which were of poor grade. Sales from May 1st 1921 (start of Department) to October 30th, were $367.83. During the time W. R. Patton handled the Department from Nov. 1st, 1921 to Jan. 5th, 1922, the Sales amounted to $366.18, with an average of $1701.22 value of stamps on hand. From Jan. 5th to date, incomplete returns show that $160.75 were sold. At the present time, there is a great scarcity of British Colonials, very few members buying Foreign. We hold a large number of foreign books on hand at present, waiting for buyers. On the other hand, British Colonials are nearly always sent out on day of receipt. It is regrettable that owing to not enough British Colonials being sent in, many members are not getting circuits as fast as they desire. What about it, Mr. Member? Are you going to help us, or are you going to let these members wait for circuits? No more foreign should be sent in, as it takes days before these can be sent out. The Department can handle from $1500.00 to $2000.00 more British Colonials at once. Shoot them along, and watch us sell them. But don't send in stuff priced at double what any Collector wants to pay. Had a book the other day with a superb mint Jamaica 2/- priced at 20c, several other mint shillings priced at 24c. Have an idea the owner will never see these again. Looks like a sale. Lots more books with stamps at decent prices. Why not ask me to put you on the Circuits? If you don't understand them, Patton is the Manager of the Information Bureau, and he will be glad to explain it to you, or anything else you want to know. In conclusion, I would state that if you add up Sales to date, you will see we have sold $900.00. You may say that this is not very much, but considering the poor times, and half of the members unable to buy at present, with a shortage of stamps also, this looks pretty good for the Department. We had only 58 members when the Sales Department was started, so that considering all these items, it can safely be said our Sales Department has done wonders in the last eight months, exceeding the sales per member of far larger Societies.

—V. W. Inglis, Sales Manager.

I would like to call all members' attention to the new members coming in; 18 last month, 19 this. An average of 18 per month. How about it, boys. We have nine months left this year, which would give us 160 more. This would likely give us 350 members by Christmas. Could we not get 30 applications from our 183 members monthly. This is only one application to every six members. DO IT NOW.

—W. R. Patton, Publicity Manager.

Mr. Fred Jarrett, author of our articles on Canadian stamps, which have appeared for some time in the Collector, is going on a Western tour. He expects to be in Victoria during the week of April 17th, Vancouver week of the 24th; Edmonton, week of May 1st, Saskatoon about May 15, Regina about the 26th, and Winnipeg about June 1st. He would be pleased to make friends and meet with various collectors and subscribers to the C. S. C. while he is in the various cities. Look him up and get acquainted and you will not be sorry, as it is always an enjoyable experience to meet Mr. Jarrett and talk stamps with him.

Membership

The J.A.P.S. is the only Society catering to the younger generation of stamp collectors, yet our membership is so small that we should be ashamed of ourselves. Instead of having only a few over two hundred members, we should have five or six times two hundred members. With the aid of the publicity that will be given our society during the coming year, every member should be able to get three new applications, and I can assure you that the officers will also redouble their efforts to put our Society where it should be in regard to membership.

250th Anniversary Celebration at Kingston, Ont.

Next year will see Kingston, Ont., two hundred and fifty years old. The celebration is now being planned by the Kingston Historical Society, and efforts are being put forth for the issue of a series of postage stamps to be known as the "Kingston Commemorative Issue." The celebration will likely be one of the largest that has been held in Canada for some years, and will include a huge pageant. It will undoubtedly add to the interest taken if the occasion is marked with the proposed issue.

The Way Letter Cancel

It will be interesting to collectors specializing in Canadian stamps and postmarks to know that the "Way Letter" cancellation spoken of in Howe's book on Canada, Chapter V., has been in use a few years longer than it is generally thought to have been. In this chapter it states that there is no definite period at which it was discontinued, but that some think can say is not the last date at which it appeared, as I have one of the King

Edward two-cent stamps of the 1903-08 issue in my collection of Canada, cancelled with the "Way Letter" cancel, thereby proving without a doubt that this rare cancel lived until 1903 at least, and probably longer. This gives it twelve years more life than it is generally thought to have existed.
Thanking you for your valuable space.

New Issues

(By J. W. Robson, 17 Evelyn Crescent, Toronto, Ont.)

CANADA

Contrary to my former expectations I now list a new shade in one of Canada's postage stamps and I may, perhaps, at a later date, list more. The new variety is the former 5c blue which now appears in purple. We are sorry to be so late in announcing this change, but this is owing to the fact that our copy has to be in the printer's hands practically a month before the issue of this magazine. We learned of this change around the fourth of March, but our copy had left for the press a week before that.

At the time of writing these notes (March 29th) few, if any, of the new colour have been sold in Toronto. We understand that the postmasters have been requested to use up all stocks of the 5c blue before ordering any of the new 5c purple.

The ten-cent has also appeared in blue.

AUSTRIA

Several more varieties in the "ear of corn" set, listed last month, viz.: $\frac{1}{2}$ kr. pale brown, $2\frac{1}{2}$ kr. brown, 5kr. olive (all type of $7\frac{1}{2}$ kr., perf. $12\frac{1}{2}$) and 50 kr. brown (design of the 25kr. perf. $12\frac{1}{2}$).

Also the following values in a new series of postage dues, 4kr. brown, 5kr. brown, 15kr. blue, 50kr. blue green—all in the numeral type and perf. $12\frac{1}{2}$.

ARMENIA

Armenia has issued the following new set (and that is what it is for—to "set" people back), according to "Stamp Collecting."

1r green, sickle and hammer.

2r greenish grey, ancient sculptures found in the ruins of Ani (near Erivan).

3r rose, five-pointed star, sickle and hammer.

25r, greyish-green, Babylonian sculptures from Ani.

50r. red, Armenian soldier, Ararat in the background.

100r. yellow-brown, sculptures from Ani.

ANGOLA

The Economist Stamp Co. reports the receipt of the following values in new colours: 3c orange, 4c dull rose, $4\frac{1}{2}$ c grey, 5c blue, 6c pale violet, 7c blue, 12c brown, 15c claret, 30c green, 40c light blue, 60c dark blue, 80c deep pink, 1c old rose, 2c purple.

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

The same company also reports that the inscription of the 5c Postal Congress Issue has been altered to "REPUBLICA ARGENTINA."

CHINA

"We learn that, on account of the discovery of forgeries, the 7, 10 and 15 cents values of the current regular series have been withdrawn.

TURKESTAN—Messrs. Bright & Son show us the $1\frac{1}{2}$ c violet and 13c brown (both of which were issued in 1919 in the "Junk" and "Reaper" types respectively) overprinted with the customary single vertical line of Chinese characters signifying that they are intended for use in this Province of the Orient Republic.

CILICIA

"We learn that eight denominations of Ottoman stamps have been overprinted in Turkish, "Adana, December 1, 1921," for use on that day only in commemoration of the signing of the French treaty by Franklin Bouillon. As Cilicia is under the mandatory authority of France, we are somewhat skeptical of the status of these stamps, but we formally chronicle them below.

Turkish adhesives overprinted as above:

- 10pa. green (1916-18).
- 20pa. deep rose (1916-18).
- 3pi. blue (1920).
- 5pi. on 2pa. Prussian Blue (1917).
- 10pi. grey-violet (1920).
- 25 pi. carmine on straw (1916-18).
- 35pi. blue (1919).

CHILE

The Economist Stamp Co reports the 40c purple and black with the border lithographed and the head engraved. They understand these were locally printed in Santiago.

BULGARIA

Last month we mentioned the Bouchier set as a new series, but on looking over several back numbers we find full particulars of this set given in the issue for December. We suppose that the same thing happens quite frequently, but we believe that our readers will forgive us for a little repetition now and then. It would be, you know, practically impossible to go through some half dozen old issues every time we wished to jot down a new note.

DANZIG

We are indebted to Whitfield, King & Co. for information regarding the following new issues: A series of six values, Crown and Crosses, Honeycomb wmk., as follows: 75pf. violet, 80pf. green, 1.25m purple and red, 2m carmine, 2.40m brown and red, 4m ultramarine also a 9m value in red and orange, Arms type.

The following values overprinted "D.M." for official use, 75, 80pf., 1.25, 2, 2.40 and 4m, as above, also 5m (Arms) greenish blue and red on brown.

Postage Due—800pf. purple (Crown and Crosses).

All the above mark values are on mottled paper.

ESTHONIA

One value of 10 marks—a blacksmith at work at an anvil. Lithographed at Reval. Thin, white, wove paper. No wmk. Imp. Colour blue.

EGYPT

The following colour changes are noted: 2 mills (Isis) brick-red, 4 mills unpaid (Pyramids) green, 10 mills, Postage Due of new type in red.

The above 10m stamp was formerly printed in blue, but it is said that only 2000 were printed thus. When the stamp was issued in red all stocks of the blue stamp on hand at the post offices were destroyed. This should prove to be a very good stamp.

FRANCE

The 30c orange-red stamp, recently chronicled, has now been issued in scarlet.

GERMANY

Mr. J. Riedel informs "Stamp Collecting" that a distinctive series of four stamps is to be issued on the occasion of the Munich Industrial Fair (May 13th).

HOLLAND

A new 12½c adhesive, numeral type, hitherto used for the five lowest values, type of 1898-1910, perf. 12½, colour red. Stamp Collecting.

HONDURAS

Type of 1919. Perf. 12. 50c bistre.

IRELAND

The first provisional postage stamps of the Irish Free State were issued to the public on Friday, February 17th, in the form of the current types of Great Britain, overprinted with a four line inscription in Gaelic characters reading "Rialtas Sealadach no Heireann 1922" (Provisional Government of Ireland 1922). Certain values were overprinted by Messrs. Alexander Thom & Co., and others by Messrs. Dollard & Co., both of Dublin. The work of the first named firm is much more highly finished than that of the latter. The total face value of British postage stamps thus overprinted was £250,000.

1922, February 17th. Overprinted in Gaelic on contemporary types of Great Britain.

½d green, 1d scarlet; 1½d red-brown; 2d orange; 2½d blue; 3d purple; 4d slate-green; 5d yellow-brown; 6d purple; 9d agate; 10d turquoise-blue; 1s ochre; 2/6, chocolate-brown; 5/- carmine; 10/- grey-blue.

In the next issue of the C.S.C. an article will appear covering all the numerous errors.

THE REPRINTS OF SWEDEN

(BY E. KLING)

As soon as one hears the word reprint, one generally turns away in disgust, and as for placing them in a collection—never. This is not to be wondered at as most reprints have no philatelic value whatsoever, and are hardly worth the paper on which they are printed. Within this class fall the reprints of Hamburg, Heligoland, Roman States, Samoa, and many others. These go under the refined title of unofficial reprints, as they were printed by private individuals after the original plates passed into their hands, and are little better than counterfeits.

Not all reprints, however, are worthless. Take, for example, the reprints and reissues of our own country, and also those of certain British Colonies, Portugal, Finland, and Sweden. In some cases these are rarer than the originals and eagerly sought by specialists. Among the scarcest and cleanest from a philatelic standpoint are those of Sweden, with which the present article will deal.

The earliest reprints were made in March, 1868. The first issue having become exhausted through numerous requests for copies of these stamps from foreign postal administrations as well as through sales to private individuals, the government found it necessary to reprint them in order to have a sufficient quantity on hand to meet future orders. Consequently, 150 sheets of the same paper which was used for the then current stamps, were sent to a printer in Stockholm with instructions to print an equal number of the 3 sk, 4 sk, 6 sk, 8 sk, 24 sk, and the black Stockholm local, all perforated and gummed. As the old plates had been lost, new ones were made from the original dies. The new plates consisted of nine clichés, arranged in three rows of three, and the stamps were printed in sheets of eighteen, two half sheets making each full sheet. In May, 142 sheets or 2,556 stamps of the six values were delivered. Thus the first reprinting consisted of only 426 stamps of each value.

These stamps can be distinguished from the originals by the colors, by the paper which is always thick and pure white, instead of the yellowish or grayish white of the originals, and by the gum which is white in place of yellowish.

As the first printing was so small, it was soon exhausted and a second was made in November. This time 496 sheets of eighteen were printed, a total of 8,928 stamps. Thus about 1,500 of each were issued, though the number of the 3 sk slightly exceeded that of the others. The second reprinting of 1868 has often been erroneously called that of 1871, but records show that only the 3 sk and the two local stamps were reprinted that year.

These reprints can be told apart from the others only by the colors which are a little lighter than the preceding. (See reference list at end).

In 1871, the treasury was authorized to reprint any of the obsolete stamps when the quantity on hand, which was kept to fill requests from foreign governments, fell below 500. Collectors, no doubt, had something to do with the heavy sales of these stamps and reprints, as they were sold at their face value to anyone who wished to purchase them. It is to be noted that the Swedish government makes absolutely no distinction between originals and reprints and both are equally valid for postage. In 1872, however, in order to conserve their stock, the post office forbade the sale of any reprint or obsolete stamp to a private individual, and this has been faithfully followed ever since except for once a few years ago, when a number of complete sets of the 1885 reprints were sold to the Swedish Philatelic Society.

In April, 1871, the quantity of the two local stamps having fallen below the required 500, they were reprinted. By August the 3 sk was dangerously near the minimum so that also was reprinted. The number was 900 each of the two Stockholm stamps and 540 of the 3 sk.

The last reprinting took place some time in 1885. Very little is known about this as no records relating to its requisition can be found. It is supposed that as the plates of the old issues were to be moved from their place of storage, there was a chance of their becoming damaged, and, in order to have a quantity of these issues for purposes of record, the government gave verbal orders to have reprints made while the plates were still perfect.

In March, 1620 copies each of the skilling-banco issue and 2,000 each of all the other obsolete stamps (see table) were delivered. These were extremely rare until a few years ago when, as I have already mentioned, the postal administration sold a few sets of the skilling-banco reprints to the Swedish Philatelic Society to illustrate their work "Sveriges Frankotecken" and some 90 sets of the 1858 reprints as a supplement to a De Luxe Edition of "Sveriges Postanstalter." As can be seen from the preceding, reprints of any but the first issue are quite rare and worth considerably more than the originals. As the 1885 reprints are perforated 13 they are easily distinguished from the others.

Besides these there exists what is called a private reprint. There are no official records of it nor are any copies in the Postal Museum. It was probably made at the same time as those of 1885, and is printed on a thin white shiny paper. Possibly it is proof of these. It is of the greatest rarity.

The reprints of 1885 also exist imperforate, and the only known specimens are in Baron Lejoumufvud's specialised collection of Sweden. (See "Some Notes on the Stamps of Sweden," London Philatelist, 1912).

Following is a reference list of all the Swedish reprints with their date of issue, color, and the numbers printed. The latter are given on the authority of "Sveriges Frankotecken."

THE IRISH STAMPS

Current issue of Great Britain overprinted in Gaelic characters in black "Rialtas Sealadac (ch) na hEireann 1922" (Provisional Government of Ireland, 1922) in five lines on values to 1/- and in four lines on high values (2/6, 5/-, and 10/-). These stamps were first put on sale in Dublin and provinces of the Irish Free State on the morning of Friday, 17th February, 1922.

The overprinting was done by two Dublin firms:—By Messrs. Dollard and Co., Ltd., ½d., 1d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 5d., 9d., 10d., 2/6, 5/-, and 10/-; by Messrs. Thom and Co., Ltd., 1½d., 2d., 6d., and 1/-.

The Dollard overprint on low values measures 15 x 16mm.; on high values, 21½ x 12mm. The Thom overprint on 1½d., 2d., 6d., and 1/- measures 14½ x 15mm.

There is a slight difference in the printings of the two firms, the Thom overprint being generally heavier, and there is a difference in the figures 1922.

There is a full stop after the date in the Thom overprint, which is missing in the other.

The total numbers comprised in the first printing are as follows:—

6d.	2,000

10d.	1,500
1/-	2,000
2/6	1,100
5/-	1,400

A certain number of minor varieties, showing breaks in the letters, may be found. We are assured that these are due to faulty inking, but inasmuch as all the varieties noted below appeared on all three entire sheets of the 1d. which we examined, and on several sheets of the ½d., 2½d., and 3d., the type must have been more or less weak in the places where the varieties occur, though on the values 4d., 5d., 9d., and 10d. of the Dollard print, which are undoubtedly from the same plate, very few of the broken letters are to be found. These four values seem to be more heavily printed than the others, which may account for these differences.

The following varieties have been noted on the overprint of Messrs. Dollard and Co., Ltd.:—

Top Pane.

- Row 3, the second stamp has final A broken at foot.
- " 4, the third stamp has the left stroke in fourth character in bottom row broken in middle.
- " 5, the sixth stamp has final A broken at top.
- " 6, the seventh stamp has the sixth character in second line defective.
- " 7, the ninth stamp has a damaged A in the third line.
- " " the eleventh stamp has final 2 slightly broken.
- " 8, the third stamp has broken R and A in top line, and fourth character in fourth line.

- " " the fourth stamp has damaged A.
- " " the seventh stamp has the first two letters in top row defective.
- " " the eleventh stamp has the third, fourth and sixth characters in fourth line defective.
- " 10, the fourth stamp has a broken "t."
- " " the fifth stamp has a broken "S."
- " " the sixth stamp has defective R and A in top line.
- " " the eighth stamp has a damaged R.

In this pane the last vertical row is generally more heavily printed.

Bottom Pane.

- Row 1, the fifth stamp has a damaged "L."
- " " the tenth stamp has a damaged "L."
- " " the eleventh stamp has the fourth character in fourth row broken.
- " 2, the sixth stamp has a damaged A.
- " 4, the third stamp has broken A in the third line.
- " " the sixth stamp has a damaged "2."
- " " the tenth stamp has a damaged A.
- " 6, the seventh stamp has the initial R broken.
- " 7, the second stamp has a defective second letter in fourth row.
- " 10, the second stamp has a damaged "2."

"Craigard" Blake Hall Rd., Wanstead, London, E.11., England.

In this pane the settings of the overprint on stamps 10 to 12, in rows 6 to 10, have somewhat slipped.

On the 3d. we have noted that the first stamp of the second row in the bottom pane has the first character in the third line broken.

One sheet of the 5d. was badly centred, and in some cases portions of two overprints appear on one stamp.

The minor varieties dealt with are found to be constant in at least three sheets, no notice having been taken of freaks which occur only once.

Up to now only one error has been reported—the 2d. with inverted overprint, a sheet of which was apparently issued at Cork, two copies postmarked at that city having been shown to us.

The overprint on the 9d. shows up so indistinctly—the color of the stamp being so dark—that it is most likely that future supplies will be overprinted in ink of some more suitable color.

AUSTRALIAN NOTES BY NEW ZEALAND

In Australia the color of the 4d has been changed to "Plum," as the old Yellow was too confusing with the 2d.

A new value 1/4d (one shilling and 4d) has made its appearance. It is mainly to be used for paying for telegrams.

In New Zealand the George 8d is the latest arrival. It is exactly the same color and design as the George 2½d, and is very confusing.

The current 4½d and 7½ are to be soon withdrawn, as these values are quite unnecessary with our new readjustment of Postal Rates.

The Insurance 1½d black and 2d purple have been changed to ochre and yellow, respectively, and the obsolete colors will be very scarce. We hope soon to see a New Scott. The present edition is woefully out of date, and misleading.

Gibbons, 1920, is very low in most New Zealand and Australian and Islands, so how much more so must the antiquated Scott be.

Old issues of this part of the world get scarcer and scarcer and all offerings are eagerly taken up by local Collectors. They will probably become as scarce and rare as the Old Canadian States are, namely, the issues before the Canadian Dominion was formed.

In lieu of cash for renewal subs. or advertising, we will accept British Guiana one cent stamps of 1856.

STAMPS AS AN INVESTMENT

A great deal has been written from time to time on this subject, both in favor and disfavor, but, when the different articles on both sides are summed up, one cannot but feel convinced that the collection of stamps in a careful manner, is not only THE hobby of all the hobbies, but also, that it will in time generally yield the collector a fair, and very often a handsome return in financial profit, to say nothing of the profit in pleasure and fraternalism.

Different writers advise different lines and courses to follow, with a view of financial success. Although every country has its older varieties which continue to advance more or less in value, new issues at one time and another contain errors, etc., etc., that come quickly into prominence financially, and continue to mount, we are of the opinion, that, if cold financial gain is the object, the line of procedure would be:—Confine oneself to a limited number of items of the older medium priced stamps, and if capital be limited, meddle with but a few countries, procure items in quantities and hold for advance.

This, as previously stated, applies to investment only, purchase for gain.

As to collecting, exchanging, buying and selling, etc., with a monetary ambition, we would not venture a suggestion as to what line to follow, success financially would depend largely and almost entirely upon the experience and ability of the collector plus the amount of capital available.

There is no doubt financial satisfaction has been, and is being achieved every day in good old Philately.

A piece of real good advice, for which we charge nothing, is:—Exchange, buy, beg, borrow; don't steal, if not in, get in, and stay in the game.

(By Frank S. Thompson)

The change in color of the 5-cents to purple and the 10-cents to blue may provide a bunch of new precancels to hunt for. Already I have seen Moncton, N.B., on both values. Toronto on the 10-cents is also reported. Who has any others?

Halifax surprised us last month with a few of the 5-cents precancelled in type 12—the old type. These have probably been on hand at the P. O. for some time. Now they are using the 5-cents in type U-15, and we may shortly expect this, in turn, will be followed by the new 5-cents purple.

Edmonton recently issued the 5-cents (blue) in type U-3—must be a rare bird though, as I have so far been unable to catch a specimen for my collection.

Here is this month's list of new issues. Brockville, 1-cent double, 1-cent normal and diagonal; Halifax, type-15 3-cents double inverted; Montreal, type U-3, 2-cents inverted and inverted diagonally; Ottawa, 5-cents (blue) triple; Toronto, type 18 5-cents (blue) double normal; Winnipeg, type 20 1-cent double, 7-cents double inverted.

Discovery of two more uncatalogued old issues has been made. They are the 10-cents brown red (Scott's No. 45), in type O horizontally, and the 1-cent Maple double vertical in type P.

Recruiting Standing for 1922

Officers—Patton 11, Wilson 5, Thompson 5, Mrs. Oughtred 4, Sutherland 1, Haskell 1, Given 1. Total 28.

Members—Cartwright 7, Croker 2, Nicol 2, MacLean 2, Judge 2, Henry, Rogers, Carbonneau, Viney, Labelle, Tattersall, A. C. Douglas, Rodden, S. N. Oughtred, Radcliff, Brook, Smith, Paul, A. S. Martin, one each. Total 29.

My attention has been called to the resignation of C. Blanchard, announced in the February number. This is an error, as Mr. Blanchard has never had any intention of resigning. It should have read resigned as Auctioneer. We apologize to our fellow members for the error.

Amongst the out-of-town members present in Winnipeg lately, we were pleased to have visits from Mr. Jas. McGuirl, Moosomin, Sask., and V. R. Wallis, Birtle, Man. Winnipeg members are always glad to see any visitor, whether a member or not, who comes from any outside point.

The Auction Manager reports a very good Mail Auction. Totals are not yet complete at this date, but so far, he has sold over $50.00 more than any other Auction, and very close to $200.00 realized on this sale. No more Mail Sales will be held till the fall.

Report of Sales Manager.

Owing to pressure of business, I have found it necessary to ask your Board to appoint an Assistant. Mr. H. Hanks, Box 2384, Winnipeg, Man., the present Auctioneer, will therefore be appointed to assist me till the annual meeting, at which date a new sales manager will be appointed. New books, remittances, etc., may be sent to either of us. As soon as Mr. Hanks gets things running in good shape, which will be before this notice appears, we will have a good Sales Dept. He will devote all his time to the Auctions and Sales, so that we are assured of the Department being well handled. Glad to report that nearly $700.00 worth of books have come in since last report, so that value of books on hand is just over $3,000.00. As it will be necessary to retire very close to $900.00, which have been in the Department around six months, we need a great many more books at once. In sending stamps, it is best to send in British Colonials mostly, as these are good sellers. Foreign must be priced at 1-3 Catalogue or less, owing to many members pricing theirs at 70% to 80% discount. This, of course, does not apply to the highest grade of Foreign, which we know are well worth 1-2 to 3-4 Catalogue. If members desire to have better Sales, be sure to have Catalogue number, Catalogue price and net price for each stamp. Some of our best buyers will not look at books unless priced this way. A word to the wise is sufficient. Glad to state that Sales for the month of April ran over $100.00. Mr. Hanks reports that May will probably be one of the best Sales months yet, owing to some superb books just in, and priced to SELL.

—V. W. Inglis, Sales Manager.

As it is only three months before the annual meeting, I would like to call all members attention to the fact, that we are going to have the best little meeting we have ever had. This will be the third, and we hope to see a large attendance. Meeting starts at 7.00 p.m. sharp, with a dinner at a local hotel, in Winnipeg, followed with speeches by prominent Canadians, reports, etc. After this announcement will be made of the elections, by the Election Committee, and the evening will wind up with an enjoyable time for the visitors. Every member from outside of Winnipeg should be here. A cordial invitation is also extended to every American Collector.

The Interest in Precancels Has Been Phenomenal!

WHY?

1. They are accessible to everyone (more than can be said of the older U. S.).
2. They are capable of being organized to fit individual whims and caprices.
3. They have real value.

We'll meet you half way and give you FREE

- 1—15 major varieties of these new U. S.
- 2—A sample copy of THE PRECANCEL GAZETTE which is devoted to this hobby entirely.

We can sell you 100, all different Precancels, for 12c.

More Members Needed.

160 new members in the last twelve months, bringing us up to exactly 200 members now. How's that for a Society nearly three years old? And we've got a lot of opposition, too. Lots of fellows won't join us, because 'We gave Catalogues to the members too cheaply.' Never had any kick from any member, but lots from outsiders, several Collectors have refused to join for this reason. Glad to see there are some people that will not take "something for nothing" in this world. Anyway, boys, come on with more applications. We have plenty of application blanks, and I am mighty glad to have you ask for them. Look at the recruiting list. See all the members who are using blanks. John Wilson headed the list last year, and is only beaten out by J. C. Cartwright, by two. Why not get your name at the head of the List? It's easy, if you only try.

—W. R. Patton, Publicity Manager.

Report of Librarian.

Donations received—H. Hanks, separate works, 3; H. M. MacLean, separate works, 1; periodicals, 4; E. R. Tavender, separate works, 4.

We now have the nucleus of a library of Philatelic literature, but additional material is urgently required to enable the department to handle all inquiries. The C. P. A. Library is dependent entirely on voluntary contributions, and it is a fact that out of our membership of 200 only ten members have so far assisted with donations. Surely every member has at least a few stamp magazines, if not some handbooks or old catalogues, which he could present to the Library for the benefit of the membership at large. All donations received are duly acknowledged in the Official Organ, and each piece of literature is inscribed with name of donor to preserve a permanent record.

Mr. A. H. Pike has very kindly presented the Library with a set of the Collectors' Digest, which provides a complete index to all Philatelic literature published during the years 1917 to 1921, inclusive. (Members wishing to obtain a set for personal use should address the Librarian). The Librarian has, in addition, indexed all material contained in the C. P. A. Library, and not covered by the Digest. Members can now be supplied with material on any subject, or loans may be made by name of periodical. Letters of inquiry should be accompanied by return postage.

—F. S. Thompson, Librarian.

Do you want one for your col-first-class fancy specimens. But they are fairly clean, and are cancelled with red or black maltese crosses. They are mostly close-clipped, however; though some have one or more margins.

NEUROPE AND OTHER WORRIES.—In 13 Spasms.

Written for the Australian Stamp Journal by T. C. Gray.

I.

I think with regret
Of the war that's upset Stamp-collecting (once quite a mild mania)
And with shudders reflect What we've now to expect Confronted by, say, Lithuania.

II.

A fresh emanation
From some brand-new nation
Will make one indulge in an orgie, a Sane-minded person
Regards with a curse on
The up-start Republic of Georgia.

III.

And sometimes you'll hope,
As so blindly you grope
In a darkness pathetically Stygian,
That sundry disasters
Befall the shin-plasters
Comprising some labels Lativijian.

IV.

This glut will make you ban
The issues of Kuban;
And where in the world is Lettonia?
I'm thinking the same'll
Be muttered of Memel, Adzerbaidjan (ye gods!) and Esthonia!

V.

Full many an issue
Will oft make you wish you Were just about twenty times brainier;
And in tones harsh and strident
Consign that old trident
To a far warmer clime than Ukrania.

VI.

Now that term "Plebiscite" Bamboozles one quite;
It's sufficient to make any man sick.
And I, though I want to,
Can never "get on" to Silesia, or Slesvig, or Danzig.

VII.

Some small Baltic regions
Have joined up their legions
In most irritating behaviour;

And, having united,
They keep us excited
With issues yeleft Jugo-Slavia.

VIII.

With republics and states
Springing up at such rates,
Our faith seems to daily grow shakier
So we cannot enthuse
On the portraits and views
From the newly-formed Czecho-Slovakia.

IX.

I'm tired of Bavarians,
And countless Hungarians, Allenstein too; and gladly I'd murder
The fates who decide,
What new type shall be tried
With emissions of Marienwerder.

X.

So onward they roll, and
I notice that Poland
Is far too prolific to please one;
And even young Thrace
Must come into the race
With all sorts of surcharges to tease one.

XI.

Now the French occupations
Entail ruminations,
And our geography's put to the test;
To find Syria, Cilicia,
(And others still fishier);
We wish they would give them a rest.

XII.

And the conquests of Italy
Make one weep bitterly,
With Trentino, and Giulia, and so on Say! Is Tridentino
Of interest to me? No!
One wonders how long it will go on.

XIII.

But the peach of the lot
Is that miserable spot;
(It's Fiume, of course, I allude to);
And philatelists irate
Wish poet and pirate
In reach of them all, to be rude to,

New Issues

(By J. W. Robson, 17 Evelyn Crescent, Toronto, Ont.)

AUSTRALIA

In contradiction of the statement made in this column in the issue for March we learn that new shades have been issued here. Mr. E. R. Tavender informs us that he has received the 1d. value in purple and the 2d. value in scarlet.

From R. Bobb we learn of other colour changes, viz., ½d. brown, 1½d. green, 2d. orange, 4d. ultramarine and 6d. blue.

AUSTRIA

"Additional values have been added to the regular series as, ½kr. listre, 1kr. brown; 2kr. blue; 2½kr. red brown; 4kr. violet; 50kr. maroon; 100kr. green.

"New newspaper stamps in the following values have appeared, 1.80kr. blue; 3kr. green, and 6kr. purple.

"The 1kr. brown, 1½kr. green, and 2kr. blue, type a47, have been overprinted in four lines "UPSTIMMUNG in SALZBURG, 29 MAI, 1921."

"Eighteen values from 5h. to 20kr., type a43 to a46 have been overprinted in gold "DEUTSCHES GAU" (German Territory)."

—Economist Stamp Co.

BALTIC STATES

"A correspondent in Switzerland sends us three stamps which he terms "Soviet occupation of the Baltic." He gives no further information, either as to the date of issue or the particular state supposed to have been occupied. The stamps are made by surcharging two which we catalogue as Latvia, Nos. 262 and 263. The original stamps are stated to have been prepared for the forces under Colonel Bermoydt-Avaloff that invaded Latvia in 1919. This particular group did not arrive in time to be put in use before the invaders were driven out. We have the 15 kop. orange and the 20 kop. violet with Russian overprint "Edinatvo i Svoboda," which we regret we are not able to trans-

BULGARIA

"The 20 stot of the 1915 Postage Due series, formerly in carmine, is now appearing in yellow."—Stamp Collecting.

BURGENLAND

Burgenland, the revolutionary district of Western Hungary, is a new name for the stamp album. We copy the list of the sixteen new values given below from "Stamp Collecting."

"1922. Engraved and printed in recess by Paulussen and Co., Vienna, on unwmkd. wove paper, perf. 13.

- 10f. lilac-brown. (Arms).
- 20f. green. (Portrait of Military Leader).
- 40f. sepia. (View of Franko).
- 50f. green. (View of Nemetujvac).
- 60f. grey black. (Franko).
- 1 kr. red. (View of Varosszalanka).
- 2.50kr. blue. (Arms).
- 5kr. brown. (Nemetujvac).
- 10kr. purple-brown. (Portrait, same as 20f.)
- 50kr. purple-brown. (Varosszalank).
- 100kr. blue. (Arms).
- Postage Due—50, 100, 200, 500 and 1,000f. green.

"Each of the stamps is inscribed "Lajtabansac," the Hungarian equivalent for Burgenland.

"The Postage Due stamps are uniform in type and colour, being transverse oblong in format, with the native inscription of the territory at the top, "Porto" at foot, and "Filler" in the lower part of the centre space, and numerals of value, in black, in the centre; the double cross appears, in miniature, in each corner.

"Fifty thousand sets are said to have been printed."

CAYMAN ISLANDS

"The 10s. carmine on green, new design, on old wmkd. paper."—Economist Bulletin.

CANADA

Seeing that the 1c. envelope has appeared in yellow, it is now to be expected that the current 1c. green will be shortly issued in the same shade while the present 2c. red will very probably appear in green.

DENMARK

A 25 ore stamp in red, type a16, has been added to the current series.

EGYPT

Mr. C. Cole informs us that the new 5 mil. pink has been overprinted "O.H.H.S" and its Arabic equivalent in black.

ESTHONIA

The 10 mk. blue imp. has appeared in a new design, viz., a blacksmith working at his anvil.

FRANCE

The 10c. "Sower" type has been issued in green while the 30c. value of the present series appears in orange red.

GREECE

The Economist Stamp Co. informs us that the 5 lepta Red Cross stamp has been issued as a War Tax stamp.

GEORGIA

"This Republic has issued a 5,000 roubles stamp, having a female figure in nurse's garb, stretching out her arm to a stricken group. It is in dark green on perf. 11½."—Stamp Collecting.

GOLD COAST

A 3d. blue value, perf. 14 and wmkd. Script C A, on white wove paper has appeared. It carries a portrait of King George.

HEDJAZ

"The new definite stamps recently foreshadowed have now appeared. They are, as with the others, Arabesque in effect, having what may be the Arms of the King of the Hedjaz in the center with inscriptions signifying "Arab Government of the Land of the Prophet" (at the top) and "Mecca the Blessed" (at the sides), the denomination being expressed in words at the foot. The stamps have been surface printed in Mecca, and do not bear comparison with the early ones produced by the Survey of Egypt to the order

To Boost Philately in Canada

I offer for 6 months to non members and members of Canadian Philatelic Association the privilege of securing the following stamps at 55% off Scott's 1922 cat. prices, Canada No. 1 to 20; British Columbia, all issues; New Brunswick, No. 1 to 4; Newfoundland, No. 1 to 38; Nova Scotia, No. 1—7. Furthermore I will extend the privilege of taking these stamps at 12½% above purchase price, and to non members purchasing any stamps will pay dues to Canadian Philatelic Association for balance of year, provided such applicant is acceptable to said Association and will become a member. Condition of stamps to be mint or used copies not damaged in any way or heavy cancellations. Good margins only of 1-16 of an inch to be considered. Let us boost Philately in Canada. Stamp collecting is a hobby, and furthermore an investment as good as bonds, so let's ride it, not hide it. Stamps will be allotted in rotation as applications are filed. Imagine a No. 7 Canada, 108 blue. Superb copy for $13.75. I paid $11.50 for it.

of the Hedjaz Government. The values so far seem to comprise the following, all on white wove paper, perf 11½:—

½pi. Venetian red; ½pi. scarlet; 1pi. indigo; 1½pi. lilac.—Stamp Collecting.

BELGIUM

Mr. H. Hooreman shows us copies of the recently issued 50c. slate blue and 1fr. bistre stamps. These bear the usual remarkable likeness to King Albert. "Belgique" at top, "Belgie" at bottom, value in lower corners.

The same correspondent shows copies of the 65c. red and black (centre) and bearing the design of some official building or castle overprinted "55c" in each upper corner of the central design. The former value, in each of the four corners has been obliterated by means of fine horizontal bars. All surcharges are in red. These stamps come to us in horizontal pairs—that on the left without overprint of any kind, while that on the right is overprinted as above.

IRISH FREE STATE

The Gaelic overprint on the stamps of this state has been altered from black to red. 1,000 sheets each of the 2½d. and of the 4d. and 1,600 sheets of the 9d. have been so overprinted.

ITALY

The following stamps of the current series have been overprinted for use on the Levant—10 para on 1c. brown, 20p. on 2c. red brown, and 3 pia 30 para on 25c. blue.

RUSSIA (BOLSHEVIK GOVT.)

"The first has now the familiar hammer and sickle device in the centre, in a shield supported by conventional ornamentation (as illustrated), while the other has the hopeful picture of smoking factory chimneys on one side and ruined buildings on the other, "graced" by a clenched fist in the middle and inscription in Russian characters on a scroll wise ribbon.

COLLECTIONS for SALE

Unequalled Opportunity for Collectors or Dealers!

A comparison of prices and quality will be more convincing than many words. Harris Co. offerings are all guaranteed to be exactly as described and money will be refunded without question in any other case. You can't lose—and we are positive that every trial order will mean a permanent customer!

PORTUGUESE COLONIES

An excellent accumulation of 1500 different stamps from Portuguese Colonies only (no Portugal) all in excellent condition, mounted by countries in three blank books. Catalogue value will be about four hundred dollars. Included are many scarce and popular sets, such as the Vasco da Gama issues (surcharged) complete for all of the Colonies. Most of the stamps are unused and mint. The next few years will see rapid price increases in Portuguese Colonials and only a very fortunate purchase enables us to offer a collection of this merit at practically one-sixth of catalogue! As only four collections are in stock, an immediate order is advisable.....SPECIAL PRICE $67.50

Ten Thousand Variety Collection

This collection embraces both 19th and 20th Century issues and covers a wide range of countries. Catalogue value is high enough to make it an attractive buy even from a dealer's standpoint. All the stamps are different and mounted in ten blank books ready for pricing or transferring. Regularly priced at $300.00 and our special quotation holds good only while present stock lasts.....PRICE $197.50

Twenty Thousand Variety Collection

An assembling which bespeaks for itself the highest amount of praise and recommendation. Twentieth Century issues are in the majority, but there are also a goodly number of 19th Century stamps both used and mint. We guarantee every stamp to be a distinct variety and the collection is entirely free from the many revenues, telegraphs, unlisted minor varieties, etc., etc., which are found in all of the "imported" packets offered for sale in this country. The same collection—plus these unwelcome varieties—is offered abroad at prices ranging from $1,700.00 to $2,000.00. We have only one in stock, which is priced to clear—at practically cost.....PRICE $1,250.00

Wholesale Approval Department

We have made a specialty of approval consignments to dealers for many years, and during that time have established a service which is perhaps unequalled either in this country or abroad. We are prepared to make up complete stocks ranging in value from $100.00 to $5,000.00 for those who wish to enter the stamp business. Our stock is comprehensive and prices are reasonable in the extreme. Let us know your requirements immediately!

ORIGINAL RESEARCH

(By Romney Gibbons)

Many general collectors are frightened, I think, by the term "original research," and are thus unconsciously missing one of the chief pleasures of our hobby; others do not seem exactly clear as to the meaning of the words, and so a great deal of time and energy is wasted in wrong directions.

It is, indeed, curious that so many collectors are content with the additions that they are making to their collections without striving to add some contribution to the study of philately. These notes are made in the hope that they may render the meaning of the term "original research" more clear to the uninitiated.

Examples of misdirected zeal may be found in the pages of almost every philatelic periodical that one picks up. Mr. Blank has found examples of the Patagonian half-anna surcharged with the letter "N" missing—or Mr. Dash has shown us a copy of the 1 cent. of Lilliput coloured bright blue instead of green. If Mr. Blank had made investigations he would probably have found that his copy was a freak, due to the accidental presence of a fragment of paper between the stamp and the type, whilst a few experiments would have demonstrated to Mr. Dash that his rarity was a chemical changeling of the commonest kind.

Original research consists, in fact, not only in the observation of details, but also in the study of their relation one with another, and thus fits Spencer's definition of science—"organized knowledge."

Research in philately may be directed in two main directions—first, as to the study of the stamps themselves, so as to clear up points about their manufacture, and, secondly, as to their use, involving, amongst many other things, inquiry into postal history.

Plating.

In the study of stamps differences in design have been rightly given pride of place. Many of the early stamps, such as the well known "Sydney Views," were engraved separately by hand, and "plating," the reconstruction of the sheet as first printed with each stamp in its proper place, has always commanded a great following.

It is, however, doubtful, now that the positions of the stamps on the plate have all been proved, whether a great deal of the time and money that is being expended on reconstructing sheets of such stamps might not be better employed on other problems. The fascination of plating is, however, very great, even though it only partakes of the nature of a highly specialized jig-saw puzzle, and this is probably enhanced by the difficulty of securing copies needed to complete the plate in fine condition.

It has even been found possible in some cases to reconstruct plates which have been manufactured by the Perkins Bacon method, which was supposed at the time to obtain absolute uniformity of design, such as the early stamps of Great Britain and the United States. This has been done by noting numerous small varieties in the design, such as guide lines, slight retouches, slips of the engraver's tool, etc.—all very minute varieties which by themselves have very little significance, but, when put together have been instrumental in solving many important problems. This, of course, is original research of a very high order indeed.

In passing, I might remark that I have often seen measurements given of line-engraved stamps, and slight differences detected, which have led observers to deduce the use of two or more plates. Such measurements, and deductions drawn therefrom, are absolutely valueless owing to the fact that line-engraved stamps are invariably printed on paper that has been well damped. After printing the paper contracts in drying, and slight variations in the size of the design cannot be guarded against, and must always be expected.

Varieties of Design.

For those who like to study varieties of design, I think the finest field is provided by lithographed stamps, from the "washer-woman" type of Victoria down to quite modern issues.

The methods employed in the production of stamps by lithography—the use of groups of transfers, the rearrangement and substitution of transfers when making up the stones, and the difficulty of preventing slight accidental flaws occurring on the sheets—all tend to make these stamps an ideal subject for study. I hardly think that there is a single stamp produced by lithography that would not well repay the research expended upon it.

Stamps produced by the more modern process of typography are not usually interesting. Printed, as a rule, in large numbers, by the cheapest method obtainable, they frequently show slight faults, due to slovenly printing or wear of the plates.

Many of these variations are what are commonly called “white varieties,” and I should call them very minor varieties, indeed, and much of the time employed in tabulating such varieties in the current Commonwealth issues is, I fear, love’s labour lost.

Marginal Markings.

An opening for research that is at present much neglected is to be found in the marginal markings that appear in many countries’ stamps on the edges of the sheets. For example, in the Australian Commonwealth issues we have the printings of Messrs. Cook and Harrison clearly distinguished by the marginal inscriptions, of which there are several types. Then we have plate numbers in many countries, with both surface-printed and line-engraved stamps, distinguishing the use in some values of two or more plates. In Great Britain, France, and some other countries, we have control letters or numbers, marking each year’s printings, and of the greatest value for fixing the date of issue and order of shades, minor varieties, etc.

After design, colour is probably of the next importance, and, besides the discovery and naming of new shades, it is of the highest importance to find out their order of appearance and duration of use. This can only be found out in most cases by the careful comparison of dated copies (preferably on the original envelopes). Hardly any stamp that has had an extended existence does not vary more or less in shade, so that this is work that is easily within reach of everybody. Care must be taken, however, to guard against changelings. Most colours, under the influence of the atmosphere, are liable to fade or to alter their tints in the most surprising way.

Minor Differences.

Varieties of paper, perforation, or gum are not usually in themselves of very great importance, though frequently they are of assistance in solving other knotty problems. Perforation varieties are frequently most confusing, and a too slavish devotion to the perforation gauge is apt to lead an observer astray. For example, in a recent handbook, certain stamps were listed in various parts of the book, under three different gauges of perforation. In reality all these stamps had been perforated by the same machine, which has an irregular gauge, but the writer, instead of investigating as to what perforating machines had been in use at the time, had contented himself by merely using his perforation gauge. I consider that much research might be profitably directed into the number and use of the machines in the various printing establishments.

Utility and Classification.

When we turn to the consideration of the use of stamps, promising openings for research are evident in every direction. It is, of course, not possible for many of us to delve deeply into the postal history of a country, such as Mr. Basset Hull has done in his work on New South Wales; such research is, of course, limited to the few who have special facilities at their command. Apart from this, however, much work still remains to be done. It is only in the last few years that the study of postmarks has become generally popular, and how interesting such study is may be seen in the many articles on postmarks which have appeared in this and other journals.

A history of a country that dealt only with a certain period of its development would be considered, rightly, incomplete, and, in my opinion, a collection of stamps of a country should demonstrate, as far as possible, the entire postal history of that country, and not only a part.

Some articles have recently been published in this journal relative to the status of N.S.W. stamps used in Queensland. To my mind a complete collection of Queensland would be divided into five parts — first, the stamps of N.S.W. used in Queensland before separation; secondly, the provisional N.S.W. stamps used after Queensland had become a separate colony, and really constituting the first issue of the new colony; next, the issues inscribed "Queensland"; next, the issues of the various States whose use in Queensland was permitted just prior to the definite Commonwealth issue; finally, the current Commonwealth stamps with Queensland postmarks. Of these five divisions all but one can only be recognized by a study of the postmarks involved, and in the two first much fresh ground remains to be broken, as recent articles have shown.

In fact, taking the important class of "used abroad" stamps as a whole, only those of Great Britain have been at all carefully studied, and the field here is so vast that almost anyone could take up such a subject for research with the certainty of making many valuable and interesting discoveries.

It is, of course, essential for purposes of research to be in a position to secure a plentiful supply of material for study. No doubt it is because of their exceptional facilities in this respect that so many of the most important contributions to philately have been the work of stamp dealers.

The collector of moderate means should not, however, be downhearted, for it is amongst the common stamps, produced in large numbers, that many important discoveries come to light. The more stamps of a certain type that are issued, the more likelihood there is of variations occurring, and the more openings exist for a little profitable study."—Australian Stamp Journal."

THE LOCAL STAMPS OF SCANDINAVIA

(By Fred Edwards)

Speaking of Scandinavia, we purpose taking the term in its broad sense as referring to the lands occupied by the Scandinavian people—Denmark, Iceland, Norway and Sweden—instead of applying the name in its restricted sense to the peninsula of Norway and Sweden; and we even intend to trespass outside our territory to briefly review the rural stamps of Russia.

Although stamps had been issued in Denmark as early as April 1st, 1851, and a fairly well organized government postal service was established and maintained in this kingdom of islands, the local post established in Holte in 1870 to supplement the government postal service was the forerunner of a number of private posts, which, like those of Norway and Sweden, generally thoroughly abused any concessions granted them by government; and if the number of varieties of stamps issued by these private posts was any measure of the number of despatches and deliveries with which the public were served, there would be no denying that these private posts fulfilled a worthy and useful function.

Alas for that public and for philatelists, as the latter were far more generously catered for than the former, for the truth must be told that the number of postal despatches and deliveries was generally in an inverse ratio to the number of varieties of stamps issued.

Yes! these private posts evidently believed in no cheese-paring niggardly policy as regards supplies of stamps. Treating these private posts in alphabetical order, the first to command notice is Aalborg, a district in the northern part of Jutland (the portion of Denmark on the mainland), with a chief town of the same name on the Lum Fiord. This private post was established in 1885, and in 3 years about 50 varieties of stamps, comprising 14 different types were issued, and there were plenty of provisionals, inverted surcharges tete beche, and imperfs. to gratify even the greediest glutton!

Aarhus, a district with a chief town of the same name, on the east coast of Jutland, issued stamps from 1884-9, and was satisfied with 12 varieties of stamps and only four types; but at least one of the three sets of four is also known imperf.

Copenhagen, the capital of Denmark, situated (part on the island of Zealand and part on the adjoining island of Amager) on the Sound, gave the other private posts in Denmark a strong lead (as becomes a capital!) by issuing, between 1880-1889, about 59 varieties in a total of 16 types; and, as with Aalborg, the provisionals were made by over-printing new numerals of value, the size and type of which being such as is usually associated with the figures on tradesmen's window tickets!

Besides the "original" Copenhagen stamps there were special issues of parcel labels for the Copenhagen Express Co., in 1880, and Adams' Copenhagen Express Co., in 1889.

Fredericia, a town in the district of Veile, in Jutland, opposite the island of Funen, seems to have established something in the way of a substantial record by issuing, in 1889, no fewer than a score of varieties and 5 types in one year!

But these private posts must not altogether be judged by the record of such prolific places as the preceding, for our next place is Holte, a town in Zealand, about 12 miles north of Copenhagen, and this town issued only two varieties of stamps of different types. The first was the "2 skilling" brown, issued in 1870, and the second, the "2 skilling" green of 1872, and both are of undoubted high status. And we might here pertinently remark that these two "Holte" stamps are the only Danish private locals having their values in the currency: 96 skilling=1 rigsbankdaler=2s 3d, most of the other Danish locals having their values in the currency adopted in 1874: 100 ore=1 rixdala (or krona)=1s 1½d.

The most prominent feature of the design of 5 out of the 6 types of stamps issued in Horsens, a town in the district of Aarhus, on the east coast of Jutland, is the numeral of value; but the dainty set of 5 stamps issued in 1886 in Kolding, a town in the south of Jutland, were really a creditable attempt at pictorial design.

Odense, the northern district of the Island of Funen, with a chief town of the same name, did not do amiss in only issuing 16 standard varieties and a total of 4 types in two years (1885-7); and besides these we must mention the pair of parcel stamps issued in Odense in 1885, and the stamps of the Odense Steamship Co., issued three years previously.

The most striking feature of most of the stamps of Randers, a town and district on the extreme east of Jutland, is the gigantic numerals of value of the surcharges, and the extraordinary number of such provisionals that were issued.

Rambling from Randers to Svendborg, a town and district south of the island of Funen, we get a most refreshing change from the Randers' overprints to the dainty little violet postmark, "Svendborg Bypost," with which the Svendborg stamps are cancelled; and one wonders what the authorities at St. Martins-le-Grand would think if this dainty Svendborg postmark, which has less superficial area than a 3d bit, were to be substituted for their famous "Wood-Milne boot heel" brand postmarker for obliterating stamps on parcels!

Veile and Vibourg are both districts in Jutland—the former was satisfied with a single set of 5 stamps issued, both perf. and imperf., in 1887, but the latter required 5 types of stamps in two years, 1886-7.

We must close our brief review of the Danish locals by just a bare mention of the "Dead Letter" office label of 1871, and the interesting Railway stamps of Denmark; but none of these latter come within the scope of our present paper.

FIRST, CLEANSE THY TONGUE

If England adopts the proposed system of advertising on postage stamps, quite possibly one will, before posting a letter, have to lick "Pears Soap," or, "Somebody's Disinfectant."

AUTOMATIC FRANKS

New Zealand, Egypt and India have recently adopted the automatic franking machine for correspondence. The mark is impressed by a special machine that not only stamps the envelopes, but keeps an accurate record of the number franked. Commercially and economically the idea appears good, but, if taken up by the world generally, it will surely have a telling effect on Philately.

IF THEY ALL HAD TO BE LICKED ? ? ?

A registered letter from Russia was delivered in Newark, bearing five hundred stamps, folded in sheets and attached to the envelope by a clip. Ordinarily the stamps would have bought a motor car and a ton of coal, but at the present rate of exchange they just managed to cover the 8d mailing and registering costs.

Sunday Times, Pretoria, S.A.

OUR RELIABILITY COLUMN

Canadian Stamp Collector,
Brockville, Ont.

Gentlemen:—

"We would like to criticise your new plan to establish the reliability of advertisers. Something of this description is certainly needed among the stamp trade of today, not only for dealers but for collectors as well, and we believe that your plan is a forerunner of a general campaign.

However, we do not like your policy of suggesting to the advertisers that they send in such a report. We feel that you should either make every one sign the slip before accepting the advertisement, or else not let any publicity be given to those who do.

In the United States, Postmasters are not allowed to sign or give any information about the people in their territories, and a bank reference is at best a very doubtful thing. A man can deposit several hundred dollars one day, and have a very fine reference, and then withdraw the money on the next day.

In short, the system as now in operation, is a hardship to the small dealer, who might have some trouble in filling the application, a nuisance to the large dealer, whose credit is already well established, and a dangerous discrimination against those who do not sign.

Again, if you look through the failures among stamp dealers in the last few years, you will find that the majority are the large dealers who have a large credit established, and who would be able to present any number of good references. The small dealer does not go so far that he can not recover, or at least pay off his liabilities.

We would be heartily back of any plan which would firmly establish the reliability of any advertiser, and which would be easily accessible to either a large or small dealer, but we do not think that your present plan is either fair or reliable."

(Signed)

The above is one of the two only adverse criticisms we have received, with respect to our RELIABILITY COLUMN. The writer, is apparently, under the wrong impression as to the object of the system, and intimates that no scheme should be made use of except it be practically infallible security, which, of course, seems to us impossible.

An advertiser, before trusting stamps to any extent to an unknown customer, generally asks for references, and what does he receive? Only the names of parties who are said to be acquainted with the customer; they, in turn, if appealed to, could only acknowledge acquaintance, and belief in the customer's reliability; they would not, generally, go bond for, or guarantee, payment of any liability of the customer.

We do not guarantee, in any respect, the dealings of our advertisers; how could we?

A customer, if the advertiser is unknown to him, would naturally, before trusting him with an appreciable amount of money, require references, here is where our COLUMN comes in; it does the trick for him; it assists the customer, and we feel assured also assists the advertiser.

We do not accept, knowingly, advertisements from unreliable advertisers, but, can we always know? Time and expense will not very well permit of our making enquiries by correspondence, but if he encloses with his copy our reference form, as required, we have, so far as reference goes, reason to believe him reliable. We have advertisers whose names do not appear in our column, who are probably just as reliable as those whose names do appear, but for some reason of their own have not sent in their reference.

We do not concur that it is a hardship on the small dealer, or any dealer, in fact. Surely if one is reliable, if he feels disposed, he can get some of the parties required in our application to state they know him and believe him to be reliable; it is not a matter of how much money he has in the bank or elsewhere. Is he liable to deliver, as advertised—is the question. There is no expense connected with the system, only to us.

It appears to us to be a mighty convenient and inexpensive method for an advertiser to place, simultaneously with his ad., his reference, and to establish with our many readers his reliability, so far as references go.

We solicit and will appreciate, also put into execution, if found practicable, any suggestions of improvement to the system that may be offered.

Recruit Standing for 1922.

Officers—Patton, 17; Wilson, 5; Thompson, 5; Mrs. Oughtred, 5; Haskell, 4; Hanks, 2; Sutherland, 2; Given, 1. Total, 41.

Members—Cartwright, 10; G. W. Brook, 3; A. C. Douglas, 3; Croker, 2; Nicol, 2; MacLean, 2; Judge, 2; Tattersall, 2; Henry, Rogers, Charbonneau, Viney, Labelle, Rodden, Radcliff, Smith, Paul, A. S. Martin, Osborne, one each. Total, 36.

The above list shows 77 new applications this year. This means a total of 182 new members in the last 10 months. Credit as follows: Patton, 51; Wilson, 16; Haskell, 10; Cartwright, 10; Thompson, 9; A. C.

Douglas, 7; Purvis, 6; Mrs. Oughtred, 6; Paul, 5; MacLean, 5; Nicol, 5; Brook, 3; McIntyre, 2; Osborne, 2; Croker, 2; Judge, 2; Tattersall, 2, others members of one each 39, making a grand total of 182, an average of 18 per month. How's that for the new Association? Let us all endeavor to keep this up during the Summer months, in order that we may have 300 members listed in the new year book. WE CAN DO IT!

H. Hanks, the Acting Sales Manager, reports $390.00 sales since he took over the department. This, in two months or so, is good, especially as our Sales Department is less than one year old. Owing to taking over this department, his appointment as Auctioneer is cancelled by the Board, and a new Auctioneer will not be appointed until after the Annual Meeting.

We expect a visit shortly from Fred. Jarrett, and many of us are looking forward to seeing him when he reaches Winnipeg. Fred is a very entertaining member, and always has something worth seeing, as he is always on the lookout for old Canadians.

We are advised that Scott's Catalogue, 1923 edition, will be ready late in October. Announcement as to supplying members will be made later, as to whether the Association will supply members again this year. Scott's Monthly Circular for May gives a few boosts to Canadians, notably No. 28, which is now $35.00, and No. 37 to $3.00. Both stamps are well worth the boost.

Several members, mostly in cities, are complaining re the non-arrival of the Official Organ. This is strictly not up to the C.S.C., as MacLean is doing his best to see that you all get your copy. He mails his Mailing List to the Secretary every month, as soon as each month is mailed out, and all addresses are carefully checked over. If we have your correct address, it must be up to the Post Office.

There being a large number of Year Books on hand, the Board has decided to sell some of the balance. Any person, member or otherwise, will be mailed as many copies as desired, at 10c each, price delivered. If you need a list of real, live Canadian Collectors this is the great opportunity.

Nominations for President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer and five Directors, may now be made. Any paid-up member is eligible. Be sure before you nominate any member, that his fees are paid up to Dec. 31st, as if not, his name must be omitted from the ballot. Closing date for nominations, Aug. 6th, 1922.

Applications for Sales Manager, Auctioneer, Publicity Manager, Librarian, and Counterfeit Detector will now be received by the Secretary-Treasurer. No application can be considered, if dues are not paid to Dec. 31st. Closing date for applications Sept. 5th, 1922. In applying for Sales Manager, you are required to furnish Bond when required by the Directors. No applications considered from members under 21 years of age.

F. S. Thompson has been working on a new Constitution for over six weeks. Any member who has any good ideas, please communicate with Mr. Thompson, 374 Sackville St., Winnipeg, Man., who will be glad to hear from you.

Applications for space in the Year Book will now be taken. Covers, both insides, and back outer cover, will be $6.00 page, $3.00 per ½ page, and $1.50 the quarter. All other space $5.00 page, $2.50 half, $1.25 quarter pages. We are glad to announce that some space has already been taken. To get the best positions, write the Publicity Manager at once. Remember this Year Book goes all over Canada, and the members are all active Collectors. We will have around 500 copies to send out, as soon as printed, and this should be worth something to you.

As there are a few members WHOSE DUES ARE NOT PAID to Dec. 31st, would call their attention to the fact that they are not entitled to nomination, cannot vote, nor can they apply for any Office, as advertised above. PLEASE REMIT.

Do not forget the Annual Dinner on Sept. 6th. Apply to the Secretary at once, to reserve a ticket for you, in order that we may know how many members will be able to attend. Cost of ticket, and place, will be announced later. If you have friends who would like to attend, glad to see them, even if they are not members. This is for all stamp collectors, and we want you to be there, and have a good time. Glad to see any from the States, who can avail themselves of the opportunity. I would like any of you who can afford it, to help a little with the expense, such as reporters, etc., etc., as there is always some slight expense, and some of us will have to shoulder the expense, as it is not intended to use any of the Associations' money. Send contributions to the Publicity Manager. A statement of expenses will be published later, in the October issue.

The Interest in Precancels Has Been Phenomenal!

3. They are capable of being organized to fit individual whims and caprices.
2. They have real value.

Just as we are closing off our report, we received word from the Secretary-Treasurer of the Edmonton Stamp Society, that "At a regular meeting of the Society, held in the Victoria Armouries, Edmonton, Alta., on May 21st, it was moved that the E.S.S. affiliate with the C.P.A. After a short discussion, the motion carried unanimously." We have no report from Edmonton, but will give our members one in the next month's issue. The E.S.S. is a new Society, formed this year, and has 25 paid-up members at this date. Any Collector who is in Edmonton at any time, will do well to get in touch with the Secretary-Treasurer of the E.S.S., Mr. S. J. Haskell, 9918-104th St., as from all accounts they have a Real, Live Society, and members well worth meeting.

Nominations for Resident Directors will close on Aug. 6th, 1922. Members at Montreal, Toronto, Edmonton, Birtle, Halifax, Vancouver, Yorkton, and Calgary, only can nominate members for this position.

Sales Manager's Report.

Although a little over a month has passed since a request was made for more books, I am glad to acknowledge having received over $1,200.00 in new books. Have recently retired 51 books, valued at $660.25, which leaves a total of 403 books, value $3,919.93. It will be necessary for me to retire over $650.00 more, and this will be done as soon as possible. To replace these, and due to the large number of members now getting on the Sales Circuits, I will need at least $2,000.00 more to carry on successfully. There is a scarcity of the higher priced stamps, of which I could handle a much larger amount. Pleased to announce that Sales for the last month have been good, so that in less than two months I have sold $376.08. This makes total Sales of $1,210.56 in less than the first year of the Sales Dep't.

If you are not on the Circuits you are missing one of the benefits of membership. I will be very glad to hear from any member who desires Circuits, and can promise him that he will not be overlooked. If you want to buy good stamps at good prices, take a look at the Circuits. You will never regret it.

Any member who has any books over two months old in the Sales Dep't., when this item appears, please write me at once, as I am clearing all the old books out, and sending statements. I may have missed you, and I will therefore be glad to have you call the matter to my attention. I intend to have no books over five months old, but will clear everything out as quickly as possible. It is my belief that the Sales Department should not hold books for too long a time. I will also send statements to every owner, at least once in six weeks or two months at longest. Where Sales will warrant, will also send remittance with statement. In order to do this, and also to settle promptly with owners, I would ask all members to remember, "REMIT PROMPTLY, RUSH CIRCUITS WITHOUT DELAY." In this way, I will be able to give good service. The service you have a right to expect. I thank you all who have helped me since I took things over, and would ask that "REMIT PROMPTLY, RUSH CIRCUITS WITHOUT DELAY" be the watchword of all.

As was said of the famous "snakes of Iceland" we might also say of the "local" stamps of Iceland—"there ain't none!" But we might mention that the "3 aur" stamp of Iceland, though not a local, inasmuch as its franking power is not limited to the restricted area of the island, yet is principally used for the local purpose of prepayment of the rate of newspapers within the island.

The "interior" stamps of Sweden, issued in 1874, are regarded by the writer as "locals," inasmuch as their use was restricted to inland postage. But these do not concern us so much as the private local posts of Sweden, the first of which, taking them in alphabetical order, is that of Gothenburg, established in May, 1888. The funny feature of this private post is the ridiculous-looking set of three triangular stamps, one of which was issued for "official" use. The "authorities" who established a private post at Malmo in 1888, and issued a set of 7 "great big" stamps, seemed well justified in reducing the superficial area of their stamps by issuing a new set in the next year. There are Stockholm Stamps and Stockholm Stamps! The government issues for Stockholm in 1856 and 1862 are well worthy of their prominent place in our current catalogues, but when private enterprise stepped in about 30 years later, about a score of varieties were issued which do not bear comparison with their predecessors.

The "By-posts" of Norway were established in about a score of towns and districts, and they issued between them something like 300 standard varieties of stamps, the most prolific place being Drammens, in which two or three different firms seem to have set up a rivalry and competition to see which could issue the largest number of varieties for between them there were over one hundred varieties of stamps issued from this town and district alone. The "runner-up" in this Norwegian stamp-issuing race was Throndjem, the ancient capital of Norway, for no fewer than 49 varieties were issued therefrom between 1865 and 1888, but the early issues are amongst the best and most classical European locals.

Most of the stamps of Aalesund, an island off the western coast, have a fish for their central design, whilst all the "Arendal" stamps, 1885, bear the design of a ship, except the queer-looking, type-set "Journal" stamp, issued in the following year. The date of the "Bybudkontor" issue is uncertain.

The designer of four of the five types of stamps issued in Christianssund, between 1868 and 1889, seems to have derived his inspiration from Denmark, for, with the exception of the "portrait" series, issued in 1880, all the stamps from this place are decidedly "Danish" in design!

After Drammens comes Grimstad with its "ship" stamps; Hammerfest, the most northern town of Norway, with its "marine view" stamps; and Holmstrand, with more view stamps. The 3 pretty blue stamps of Hortens, all bear the figure of an anchor, whilst the set issued in Kragero, and those from Levanger, Mandal, Namso, and Stenkjoer are all dainty but d——d!

Tonsberk stuck to one type for all its issues, but the perforations were changed with abominable frequency; and Tromso adopted the reindeer for its "trade mark" on all its stamps, but three different types of stamps were issued.

The issues of the Tyrifjord Steamship Co., are even less loved or known than the majority of Norwegian locals, and the same remark applies to the Norwegian "returned letter" envelope issued in 1866, and the "pictorial stamps" of Vadsø and Vardo.

In our introductory paragraph we expressed our intention of trespassing outside Scandinavian territory to make mention of the Russian "Rural" stamps, because these "rural" or "zemstvo" stamps form one of the most interesting and extensive groups in the whole world, and as an Imperial edict of Sept. 3rd, 1870, (old style) to the various local assemblies, duly authorized them under certain restrictions to establish postal services within their jurisdiction, as well as to act in conjunction with the Imperial service, it will be seen that the local stamps of Russia enjoy a much higher status and value than those of Scandinavia. Of the 50 governments in European Russia, 31 contain rural district posts which have at one time or another, issued stamps, and in these 31 districts were about 150 stamp-issuing places from which over 1,800 varieties of stamps were issued.

Vice-Presidency.

Through some misunderstanding, Mr. J. Harvey Westren, of Toronto, was nominated for the office of Vice-President of the J. A. P. S., and as he was the only one nominated for this office, he was elected. It now develops that Mr. Westren is not a member, nor has he ever been a member of the J. A. P. S. Therefore, although elected by a great majority of members voting, Mr. Westren is not our Vice-President. Mr. Max Casper, although not nominated, received the second largest number of votes for the office of Vice-President; but Mr. Casper has not yet paid his dues for the coming year. Therefore, our Society is without a Vice-President. However, I have written Mr. Casper concerning the mix-up, and in all probability by the next report he will have paid his dues, and we shall have a full staff of officers.

Unpaid Dues.

It is not with any great pleasure that I must announce that less than one third of our last year's members have paid their dues. If you are one of the guilty ones, please send in your eighty cents. The Society can find a place for the money, and although eighty cents is not a very great amount of money to one member, more than one hundred thirty-five eight cent contributions amount to quite a great deal. Please.

New Members.

As is usually the case when dues come due, a good many members have discontinued their membership in the J. A. P. S. However, this should not be a discouraging influence on the paid-up members, but should serve to make our paid-up membership strive harder to get new members, in order to keep up our former reputation. As I have said many times before, it seems a pity that, although we are the only national philatelic society catering to the younger collectors of today, the philatelists of tomorrow, we have only one-tenth of the membership we should have. Let's get busy.

"1922. Commemorative. Transverse oblong. Mounted military group. Dated 1821-1921. Perf. 12. 10 pesos, brown and black."—Stamp Collecting.

NEWFOUNDLAND

"Copies of the 6 cents Cabot issue, surcharged "Three Cents" in red or black, are being offered at high prices. We are reliably informed that these are merely essays, printed as trials and never offered for sale at any post office. Possibly we should say not for sale at any stamp window. It is difficult to know what may take place in a back room."—Scott's Monthly Journal.

"A brand new series has appeared, comprising 7 values in a uniform allegorical type, the MOTIF of which is a man pushing a wheelbarrow towards a resplendent sun, to which a winged female is pointing, while she places her left arm encouragingly around his shoulder.

"1922, April. Design as above. On pelure paper. No wmk. Perf. 13½. 1 m. olive. 2 m. green. 3 m. blue. 5 m. vermilion. 10 m. brown. 25 m. pale brown. 50 m. violet."—Stamp Collecting.

"The 'Philatelic Magazine' reports two new air-post stamps, viz.:

"Overprinted ("CORREO AEREO" and aeroplane in red). 5 centesimos grey, 25 cent. dark brown."—Stamp Collecting.

ZANZIBAR

Mr. Derek Ingram writes:

"Official information reaches us that the supplies of 6c. green and 10c. red postage stamps, which were recently prepared have been destroyed, and that new printings have been made in the following colours, i.e., 6c purple on blue, Script C.A. paper; 8c. purple, on yellow paper, old wmk.; 10c. green on yellow paper, old wmk.; 12c. red on white, Script C.A. paper.

COLLECTIONS for SALE

Unequalled Opportunity for Collectors or Dealers!

A comparison of prices and quality will be more convincing than many words. Harris Co. offerings are all guaranteed to be exactly as described and money will be refunded without question in any other case. You can't lose—and we are positive that every trial order will mean a permanent customer!

PORTUGUESE COLONIES

An excellent accumulation of 1500 different stamps from Portuguese Colonies only (no Portugal) all in excellent condition, mounted by countries in three blank books. Catalogue value will be about four hundred dollars. Included are many scarce and popular sets, such as the Vasco da Gama issues (surcharged) complete for all of the Colonies. Most of the stamps are unused and mint. The next few years will see rapid price increases in Portuguese Colonials and only a very fortunate purchase enables us to offer a collection of this merit at practically one-sixth of catalogue! As only four collections are in stock, an immediate order is advisable.....SPECIAL PRICE $67.50

Ten Thousand Variety Collection

This collection embraces both 19th and 20th Century issues and covers a wide range of countries. Catalogue value is high enough to make it an attractive buy even from a dealer's standpoint. All the stamps are different and mounted in ten blank books ready for pricing or transferring. Regularly priced at $300.00 and our special quotation holds good only while present stock lasts.....PRICE $197.50

Twenty Thousand Variety Collection

An assembling which bespeaks for itself the highest amount of praise and recommendation. Twentieth Century issues are in the majority, but there are also a goodly number of 19th Century stamps both used and mint. We guarantee every stamp to be a distinct variety and the collection is entirely free from the many revenues, telegraphs, unlisted minor varieties, etc., etc., which are found in all of the "imported" packets offered for sale in this country. The same collection—plus these unwelcome varieties—is offered abroad at prices ranging from $1,700.00 to $2,000.00. We have only one in stock, which is priced to clear—at practically cost.....PRICE $1,250.00

Wholesale Approval Department

We have made a specialty of approval consignments to dealers for many years, and during that time have established a service which is perhaps unequalled either in this country or abroad. We are prepared to make up complete stocks ranging in value from $100.00 to $5,000.00 for those who wish to enter the stamp business. Our stock is comprehensive and prices are reasonable in the extreme. Let us know your requirements immediately!
